

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

LOOPING THE LOOP IS NEXT

He said to her, "My love for you is driving me quite mad." She said to him, "How odd. It has the same effect on dad."

Punctured

"Here, waitress. This doughnut has a tack in it."

Well, I declare! I'll bet the ambitious little thing thinks it is a flivver tire."

C. T. Darley says after all, the best way to elevate the masses is to raise the children properly.

Setbacks stiffen your backbone if it's made of the right stuff.

Mistaken

Owner of private pond (to man who is trespassing): "Don't you see that notice: 'No Fishing Here'?"

Angler (with an injured air): "Yes, and I dispute it. Why, there's good fishing here. Look in this basket."

Days Gone Forever

We used to be scared to death when a man reached for his hip-pocket. Now we are tickled to death, gargles Bert C. Thomas.

"Hello, is this the club? Is my husband there? Hello, not there you say? Well, all right, then, but hold on. How do you know? I haven't even told you my name."

"There ain't nobody's husband here never," was the darky's reply.

Being miserable and yet perfectly happy defines love, opines John Houston.

"I wonder if you've remembered that tomorrow is my birthday?"

"Indeed I did. I went into a department store today and said to the floorwalker, 'I want a birthday present for my wife.' He said 'How long married?'"

"I said, 'Ten years.' He said, 'Bargain counter to the right.'"

Why kick on members of the fair sex wearing knickers—a much more intimate view is possible when they don their bathing suits.

A woman begins to show her age only when she tries to hide it, says Doc. Johnson.

Teacher—"If Shakespeare were alive today, would not he be looked upon as a remarkable man?"

Student—"Sure he would be; he would be 300 years old."

THE STENOGRAPHER'S VACATION

My typist is on her vacation. My trip's away for a week. My typist is in her vacation. While these damn keys stay hude and see!

Cjoras;

Oy, breung bock, bting brck. Brung bac) mu b'Onnie ti my, to mr; B (ang b'xj, b-7ng b'icx B'ing bock m'4 belno-o mx, oh helk?

S. Redkey says talking without thinking is like shooting without taking aim.

Second hand cars are never as good as they are painted.

'Some folks think it would be an awful calamity if the bootleggers would go on a strike.

Dynamite is about the only agency that would have an uplifting effect on some birds we know.

TO MISS ONE WOULDN'T MATTER

I want to get a house to rent," Jkey told the real estate agent. "All right, my friend, I have just what you want. Nice three-room house; rent, eight dollars; but, understand, there is no bath in the house."

"Dot makes me no difference. We only want it for a year."

Ring Sing Graduates Please Attend. Splendid music will be a feature. Come early if you want to make sure of a seat. All sinners are urged to assist in the choir.

—The Citizen, Iowa Falls, Pa.

SOCIETY

Mrs. W. E. Lamm was hostess Thursday evening at a smart dinner for a group of the younger set honoring her niece, Miss Geraldine Watt, of San Francisco, who with her parents is spending the summer in Klamath Falls. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock and covers were laid for 10 around a table centered by a bank of lavender and pink sweetpeas. Those present were: Misses Ellen McVeigh, Ina Graham, Eleanor Torrey, Vera Thompson, Maybelle Leavitt, Marjorie Delzell, Myler and Clara Calkins, Margaret Worden and the guest of honor.

A number of the very young set of the city were asked in for the afternoon Tuesday by Mrs. Leslie Rogers for the purpose of celebrating her son, James' fifth birthday. The wee tots had a glorious time on the lawn at the Roger's home, playing games until refreshment time when they were served with a sumptuous luncheon. The guests were: Margaret Hibbert, Mary Jane Moore, Helen Carrol Moore, George Duncan, Donald and Robert Hunt, Lester and Louise Hunter and Donald Rogers. The following mothers assisted Mrs. Rogers: Mesdames W. M. Duncan, Charles L. Moore, I. H. Hibbert and Warren Hunt.

Wednesday evening of this week Miss Margaret Worden, assisted by Miss Marjorie Delzell and Miss Maybelle Leavitt, entertained at a small informal shower for Miss Myler Calkins, who has chosen August 27, as the date of her marriage to George Stevenson. Miss Calkins was the recipient of many lovely gifts from the young ladies who attended her shower. Following is the list of guests: Misses Mildred Thrasher, Marie Obenchain, Ruth Lindsey, Esther and Clara Calkins, Florence Porter, Marjorie Delzell, Faye West, Elizabeth Sullivan, Minnie Barnum, Ina Graham, Evangeline Foster, Claudia Spink, Mrs. Ira Orem and Mrs. Frank B. Robinson.

Mrs. Kip Van Riper is home after three months spent in San Francisco, where she visited with her two daughters, Mrs. Harold Turner, of Chicago, and Mrs. C. C. Richardson, of Los Angeles, who were also spending some time in the Bay City.

Fifty friends of Mrs. J. L. Beckley attended a farewell party in her honor the first of the week. The entertainment took the form of a picnic supper on the Dr. G. A. Massey lawn in Hot Springs. The whole company joined in the singing of old songs and played games during the evening. A quartet composed of Messrs. Slough, Southwell, Floyd Allen and West, entertained with some very fine selections. The feature of the evening was the presentation of a large picture of Crater Lake to Mrs. Beckley by spokesman, Rev. A. B. Bristow. Mrs. Beckley and family left Tuesday for Oakland, California where they will spend the winter.

The Auction Bridge club will meet with Mrs. L. F. Wilhite at her home on Klamath avenue, next Wednesday afternoon.

A more informal, but interesting affair of the week, was a watermelon feed held on Tuesday afternoon at the Herald office for the paper carriers.

riers. The event took place in the back yard and the feature of the afternoon was the surprising number of melons the young progeny of Klamath Falls consumed without apparent effort.

The United States Reclamation office force entertained with a farewell party for Miss Juanita Howe, who leaves on August 9 for San Francisco. The affair was a lawn party held Tuesday evening on the lawn at the U. S. R. S. office. The following took part in the entertainment: Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Newell, E. C. Koppen and family, Willard Smith and family, Laton Stephens and family, Whitehead, Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Frey, Dyer, Long, Sha, and the honor guest.

ly, Laton Stephens and family, Whitehead, Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Frey, Dyer, Long, Sha, and the honor guest.

The Happy Hour Sewing club will meet with Mrs. R. J. Sheets on Tuesday afternoon of next week, at the Sheets home on South Riverside street.

Human Nature Perhaps A revival of interest in the euja board is reported. It seems people can't get along without having something to stir up their spirits.

Everybody's going Monday night. You are included.

ALGOMA

John Hagelestein has been cutting rye and grass hay the past few days. Wm. Uhrman went to Klamath Falls Wednesday on business.

Ketover Bros. have been hauling hay in their barn the last few days.

P. Petersteiner has returned from Prospect, Oregon, where he has been working on the highway. He intends to stay on his ranch for the remainder of the summer.

Monday at The Liberty, The Queen of Sheba.

Herald classified ads pay you.

Advertisement for Klamath Flower Shop, featuring trees, shrubs, rose bushes, and bulbs. Includes phone number 289 and address 824 Main St.

TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN—THE Montana Auction and Commission Company

BONDED CERTIFIED AUCTIONEERS—HOME OFFICE, BUTTE, MONTANA

BURT MARSH, Official Auctioneer

We list your offering and conduct public auction sales, no matter what your offering may consist of. Here and everywhere—time and place of sale subject to your selection.

Our modern system is not an experiment, but is the result of thirty years of active and practical experience.

We list and advertise your offering. Circulate extensively all billing matter most essential for best results, on strictly a commission basis.

REMEMBER THAT OPPORTUNITY IS A VISITOR WHO RARELY CALLS ON THOSE WHO NEGLECT TO PROVIDE A SUITABLE WELCOME.

OUR LISTINGS CONSIST OF

Live stock, namely—Cattle purebred and grades, dairy and beef breeds, dairy and family milk producers, young and service age foundation breeders possessed of type and individuality, range and stockers.

Horses and mules, brood mares and stallions of heavy draft type. Matched draft teams and general purpose horses worth the money.

Hogs, males and females of all the progressive breeding types.

Sheep in, any number, of the mutton, wool and utility breeding.

Special attention is called to our automobile motor car department. We have at all times an extensive list of automobiles, business cars—Light and heavy motor trucks, industrial road machinery—All makes, models and capacity. Mining, milling, smelting and farm machinery.

WE CONDUCT AUCTION SALES FOR CLEARANCE HOUSES. ANY TIME, ANY PLACE, WRITE US WHAT YOU HAVE OR WHAT YOU WANT. WE HAVE IT. SALE DATES AND TERMS FURNISHED ON APPLICATION. Yours for efficient service,

Montana Auction and Commission Company

26-28 East Broadway

BUTTE, MONTANA POSTOFFICE BOX 346

PHONE 6075

NOTE—Please read the following pointers, and preserve this card for future reference.

Some of the Material Reasons Why You Should List Your Offerings and Wants With Our Company:

- BECAUSE—We are a company of stability, with a force of ability.
BECAUSE—We are at all times prepared to handle and list your wants at private or public auction sale at any point in Montana or elsewhere if desired.
BECAUSE—We use the latest and most efficient methods in listing your offering and furnish you with a highly schooled, competent sales pavilion—Experience bonded, certified Auctioneer.
BECAUSE—You can not afford to list your offering or employ the services of a man who alone says that he is an auctioneer, who in fact is simply a good natured fellow who may know enough, but can't think of it. Possessed with a cross road supply of pumpkin center philosophy.
BECAUSE—We correspond with breeders, buyers and sellers of the various types of pure-bred and better grades of live stock throughout the United States and Canada, being in direct communication with hundreds of applicants who desire to sell or purchase.
BECAUSE—Money doesn't really make the mare go; but can be used as an inducement to incidental effort. (We make the mare go.)
BECAUSE—By reason of our method of advertising we reach and keep in close touch with those most interested in our general offering.
BECAUSE—We can and will save you time, trouble and money by selling your offering at the highest possible price in the shortest possible time.
BECAUSE—Our official field auctioneer, Mr. Burt Marsh who is one of the legally bonded and approved certified auctioneers of this state—knows the auction business from its many angles. His ability as an auctioneer is appreciated nation-wide. He gives you safe, sane and intelligent service, which immunizes you from loss or disappointment.
BECAUSE—Our system has found you — the same will find others. Every day's delay may mean an opportunity lost.
Respectfully submitted,

Montana Auction and Commission Company

BUTTE, MONTANA

Wood

You should take advantage of our summer prices to lay in a supply for winter.

- 10 cords, green slab $30.00
Dry slab, per cord 5.00
Single Blocks 5.00
Double Blocks 6.50

Come to us with your problems, our help is always free.

O. Peyton & Co.

419 MAIN. PHONE 535

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

He Tries to Pass It Off By Laughing

BY ALLMAN

