POLITICAL PEST BEING REMOVED

League Would End Appointment of Unqualified To Diplomatic Posts

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Long strides toward removing diplomatic posts from rewards for political service have been made during President Harding's administration, according to a report issued today by the committee on foreign service of the national civil service reform league.

The report says the first year "seems to indicate that an earnest effort has been made to retain the services of men of experience and to appoint to diplomatic posts persons with qualifications in diplomacy."

The committee reports that five of the nine ambassadors appointed by President Harding were men with previous experience in diplomacy. Six of the 20 ministers now serving in the diplomatic corps, the committee found, were appointed on the basis of their experience and eight were men appointed during previous administrations but were retaining by President Harding.

Four ambassadors, 16 ministers, two agents and consuls general and one minister resident and consul general appointed by President Harding, the report says, were persons without any previous diplomatic experience.

"While many of the 23 appointments made of persons without previous diplomatic experience operated as a recognition of political obligations," the report states, "the extent of such appointments is largely abated by the present administration and contrasts favorably with the records of the first year of other administrations. For this record, President Harding and Secretary Hughes are to be commended. President Harding is furthermore deserving of commendation in that he had selected for secretary of state a man of the highest qualifications and one devoted to the merit principle."

The committee reported a still better showing "an unequalled record of adherence to the merit system" in its examination of appointments in the consular service. There has been, during the first 15 months of the present administration, the report stated "not a single exception to the rules requiring appointments through examinations in the consular service."

Mrs. Charles Collier was retiring comfortably at noon today, according to hospital authorities. Although physicians have not yet operated to remove the bullet which lodged somewhere in the region of her eye, they still have some little hope of saving the eye, it was said.

Swinney is said to be a talented musician who should make a welcome addition to the city band.

Toe Bobbing Due Next So Decrees Professor

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Chiropractors have joined hands with hatdressers in the art of bobbing. Just as stylish woman is beginning to let her hair "grow out," she is adopting the "toe bob."

A demonstration of "toe bobbing" will be given at the opening clinic at the annual convention of chiropractors Monday, Dr. Clifford S. Griggs, president of the Illinois college of chiroprlogy, announced today.

"The fifth toe has become entirely unnecessary," said Dr. Griggs. "With it amputated shoes will be fitted to women more easily. The loss of the little toe is no impediment to locomotion."

Prevention of foot ills in the younger generation will be given considerable attention by the chiropractors. A crusade to teach children to walk correctly, just as they are taught to eat and breathe correctly, will be launched by the association.

"Cinderellas are just as few and far between today as they were in the fairy tale days," Dr. Griggs said. "There is not one perfect foot in 10,000," he added, "but when the next generation grows up I believe the perfect foot will be the rule rather than the exception."

"Individually, the world is on a better footing than in the past," Dr. Griggs concluded.

BEND GETS NEW MILL

preliminaries of construction.

Placed just south of the second mill, between it and the second burner, the new unit will be of the same general size and appearance as the other two. Its sawing equipment will be different, however, in that it will contain a gang saw and one band. This will be the first use of a gang saw in local lumber manufacture. Other equipment which, with the saws, will be furnished by the Filer & Stowell company, will be a trimmer and an edger.

Electricity Motive Power

The new mill will be electrically driven throughout. It will add about four million feet to the monthly output of the plant.

Addition of the new mill will mean an increase of 350 in the number of men employed by the company, these being placed in the mill, in the various departments allowing the mill to care for the increased output, and in the woods to provide the necessary additional log supply. The monthly increase in the payroll at current wages will be about $35,000. In the construction work about 40 men will be employed, under the supervision of William J. Coleman, sawmill superintendent, and G. A. Horstkotte, master mechanic. For the most part local labor will be employed, including the company's present millwrights, but it will be necessary to bring in other skilled mill men to augment the local supply.

First Evidence of Wrongly Marked Ballots Found in Multnomah

PORTLAND, Aug. 8.—The first evidence of support for Hall's contention developed today in the recheck of 270 precincts in Multnomah county. Five democratic ballots with the names of republicans on them were found in the republican box. Other changes redited Olcott's loss to two while Hall lost one.
