Personal Mention

William B. Freer, a rancher from the Malin section, is in town today attending to matters of business.

J. S. Kent left this morning for San Francisco after several days spent here looking after business affairs.

L. W. Keenan accompanied by Mrs. Keenan, arrived here last night from Portland. They are at the White Pelican hotel.

E. R. Kay is a business visitor here this week from his home in Portland. He is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Dan P. Malloy is moving here this week from his former home in Lakeview and will make his residence at Ninth and Prospect streets.

Marion Nine made an early morning trip into the city to look after business in connection with his logging operations in Swan Lake valley.

Mrs. Perry DeLap and daughter, Virginia Richmond, were passengers on the train this morning bound for Portland where they will visit for a few days.

Mrs. Harry Dickerman was a passenger on this morning's train bound for San Francisco where she will attend the wedding of her brother, George Cunha, which will be an event of the coming Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Setzer and family are planning to leave in their car tomorrow morning on a two weeks' motor trip to Tacoma and Seattle, Washington, where they will visit with friends and relatives.

The Rev. R. H. Hawley, of Acampo, California, and family and V. V. Hawley and W. N. Hawley of Ashland arrived here the first of the week to visit relatives. The Rev. Mr. Hawley is the owner of property in Mills addition which he desired to look over.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Townsend accompanied by Mrs. Townsend's two sisters, will arrive here this afternoon for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, who are in business in Albany at present, were residents of Klamath Falls for a number of years.

Carl Schubert and family, accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Tucker and two daughters, left for Crater Lake this morning where they will spend the night, going on tomorrow to Mrs. Tucker's home in Baker. Mrs. Tucker has been here for the past three weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert, Sr.

Grover C. Whyte arrived in town last night from Flint, Michigan for the purpose of meeting S. R. Black, forest supervisor, who will join him on a month's vacation trip to Crater Lake, Rainier and Glacier National parks. They left in the former's car this morning for Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Palmer and daughter of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Manning, of Sacramento, Miss Angela Sarafeld of San Francisco and W. B. Inokkian, of Oakland, California, officials of the Standard Oil company, left this morning on their return to California after two weeks spent rustling at Harriman Lodge.

John Oral Harris and Miss Helen Steffen were the principals in a quiet wedding at the First Baptist church parsonage, 612 California avenue, at 2:30 yesterday afternoon. The Rev. A. F. Simmons officiated. The bride is one of Klamath's well-known young ladies, whose charming personality has won for her a large circle of friends. She wore a becoming gown of blue crepe. Harris is one of Klamath's progressive young men. A wedding supper was served by Mrs. Tom Harris with only friends and relatives of the bride and groom present, all of whom showered upon the young couple their best wishes.

ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

Estes Snedecor, Former President, Addresses Local Body

Estes Snedecor of Portland, international president of the Rotary club, 1920 to 1921, delivered an inspiring address before the local Rotary club at its meeting today noon. Snedecor dealt with the purposes of the organization and his address was well received by the members.

Snedecor was president of the international convention of Rotary clubs held last year in Edinburgh, Scotland. He is on an outing trip in Klamath county in company with others from Portland.

SLOW WORK

"Well, how's the uplift coming along?"
"Poorly. So few people want to be uplifted."

BRITAIN WOULD BAR RADIO SETS

Amateurs Warned Against Cheap Equipment By Newspapers

LONDON, Aug. 11.—American and other foreign wireless apparatus will be excluded from use by British broadcasting firms if a recommendation of Postmaster General Kellaway is adopted by the cabinet. Kellaway urges that for a period of two years licenses for broadcasting should contain a provision that only British instruments be used.

Following the example of American journals, the British newspapers and magazines are devoting columns and pages to wireless topics. But broadcasting in this country is in an almost nebulous stage, and wireless receiving by the masses has not attained anything like the popularity it enjoys in the United States. The government is slow in inaugurating a general broadcasting scheme.

Some newspapers are warning amateurs to be careful about cheap receiving sets—some of them of American and French origin—which are being widely offered.

"If broadcasting were officially established in England the whole position would become clearer," W. W. Drury, managing director of the Marconi company, said recently. "However, the Marconi company anticipates a large demand in the future for receiving sets and it is turning out many thousands of them. When the winter evenings come and people want to sit at home and listen to the outside world, there will be a great increase in the demand."

P. S. On Chamber Drive Hears Some Real News

Mr. Editor, The Herald: Well, Mr. Editor, I have been out on the cham. of com. drive to raise jack to pay the rent et cetera and so on for the next year, and what I am writing for is to tell you a little of the news I pick up along the ways, me believing you might appreciate a little of same seeing as you are supposed to be printing a newspaper.

This news I have is what some of the birds around town say when you hit them up for their share of the jack for the cham. of com. Some of it is so newsy it could go up to the top of the page along with the cue clicks and other disorders.

One bird says what me pay my jack to the chamber when they have not recalled all the bootleggers which is running the town ragged not on your life I do not.

Another says the chamber did not stop the lumberjacks strike like they should have did.

Another says huh chamber of commerce hey, well how about a railroad. Here I have been awaiting for another railroad for 10 (ten) years and what has the chamber did. Not nothing, that's what. Says he, when I buy my ticket to Portland over the natron cut-off why then you get my subscription. One of the team got sore and says well when that happens we give you $10 (ten dollars) if you forget to come back.

Another leading life is crustie because the chamber has not paved all the roads in the county. He says I give you money, last year and how many roads did you pave I ask you. Not none, that's what.

Another bird says the chamber always is getting off some new idea which I never here the like of before such as auto camp grounds. What do we want of a auto camp ground he asks. When I was a young man I roll my bed any old place and I do not believe in pampering these here tourists. This baby makes me extra soar and I says yes I expect your using the same old barn you slept in back in 49 (forty nine).

Howsoever, it was not all like the above written and lots of the boys kick in and says I'm with you even if the chamber is ruining the town like these other birds would. Have you believe when they try to think up a excuse instead of coming right out and saying well boys I is hard up this month but count on me just the same.

How's that for hot news. And if a lot of birds call up tomorrow and say stop my paper you will no right ways which ones it is which would rather run the old town themselves only they will not ever do anything to start the big boom, only bear about it.

NINE MULES LONG IN DARKNESS SEE LIGHT ONCE MORE

HAZLETON, Pa., Aug. 11.—The coal mine mule, which ordinarily spends years of his life in the darkness of mine tunnels far underground, retains his eyesight even though he does not use his eyes.

So veterinarians in the anthracite region have determined following examination of many of the mules which have been brought to the surface since the mines closed down last spring. With this announcement the veterinarians exploded a theory held by many for years—that because he did not have any use for his eyes, the mule lost his sight.

The coal mine mule usually begins life like any common farm mule. Once he becomes a mine worker, however, things change. He is sent far underground into the dark workings of the hard coal mines and there he stays, often for the remainder of his life. Being a hardy animal he sometimes remains in the mines for 20 years without seeing daylight.

When the mules were hoisted to the surface and turned loose upon the companies' properties some of them blinked a bit at the sunlight. When the veterinarians looked them over they found their eyes were there and as good as ever.

PLEASE

Oh, I like the little flapper as she paddles down the street. With her little sawed-off wrapper and her sandals nice and neat. She's a girdle and a sweater and her skirt is rather high. But I've never seen 'em better as a tonic for the eye.
