

He's Doing a Cheesy Job of This

Looks like E. J. Matheson is doing something on a grindstone but he's exploring the texture of a head of cheese with X-ray. That's the way the Department of Agriculture determines the quality of cheese in experiments at Washington.

The newest sport of the winter season at St. Moritz in the Alps is the balloon race. A toy balloon is used for a hockey puck. Miss Lorna Vienna, an American girl, is shown playing the game.

LOTS TO LEARN

Daddy came home from the office early one evening and mother had not returned from some friends whom she has been visiting for tea.

Little four-year old Gwennie ran up to her father's side.

"Daddy," she cried, "I've been wanting to see you for a long time when mother's not near."

"Why, my little girl?" asked father.

"Well, Dad," answered Gwennie, "please don't tell mother, because she's an awful dear, but I don't think she knows much about bringing up children."

"What makes you think that?" asked her father.

"Well," replied Gwennie, "she makes me go to bed when I am wide awake and she makes me get up when I am awfully sleepy."

Arons was arrested Wednesday evening on Main street about 7:40 by State Traffic Officer Houston, and paid the fine in the police court this morning.

"Technically the court had it on me," he said today, "and I thought I knew the law pretty well. No doubt a lot of other drivers overlook this provision, and I hope that my experience will teach them to brush up on the regulations and save them money."

Others fined in the police court were: Ernest Robbins, driving without operator's license, $10. Charles Schultro, driving without lights, $10.

John Doe Camm, reckless driving, $10. Camm was unable to pay the fine and was released on his own recognizance when he promised to pay Monday.

By the drop of 2 cents in the price of gasoline motor car drivers will be saved $70,000,000 a year unless they spend the money for more gasoline.

Advertising Is the Sunlight of Business
 To all that is healthy and vital in business, it means increased strength and growth; but advertising is a fierce heat which withers and consumes that which is unsound.
 A business which is not a good business should not be advertised. A business which would not benefit from widespread appreciation of its ideals had better acquire a new set of ideals.
