A WOLFISH PACK

In a scant and desultory reading of the first four books of the new testament we have never found evidence that clothes played any great part in the merciful ministry of Jesus.

True, some crept close, touched the hem of his garment and were healed, but none of the four chroniclers attribute any potent healing to the texture or style of the apparel. It was the Man within the robe—and we have the impression, rightly or wrongly, that it was a simple garment and in keeping with the style worn by the common classes of the day—not the luscious cloth that wraps the miracle.

Lo, times have changed. But how much for the better is a debatable question. When the newspapers report that a bishop of the Episcopal church, harassed and hounded into a nervous collapse, is heartbroken at the end of a long and useful career in Oregon because of ecclesiastical charges that he failed to wear proper robes at church services.

If it be a fact that the Right Rev. Robert L. Paddock is to be "tried" for some breach of rules of dress, Lord help the church. It needs it.

For Robert L. Paddock is known throughout the length and breadth of Oregon as a man and a Christian, a true disciple of the Master; a man known by his works of mercy and loving kindness, loyal to his faith, simple in its observance, a man beloved of men.

Too big a man as a matter of fact to be hounded by rules handed down from the undemocratic ages when the world judged a man by the clothes he wore.

A strange test to apply to Christianity, this question of raiment. Without wishing to criticize in a matter where we have little knowledge to support criticism, still something seems to tell us that the hounding of a good man to his death over such a small matter may explain why there are so many scoffers at the real truths religion holds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Swender arrived here last night and are spending the day reviewing old acquaintances about town. Mrs. Swender was Miss Lois Meyers before her marriage and made her home in Klamath Falls.

Swender is connected with the Swender Blue Print company of Portland. Mrs. T. A. Monroe and Mrs. Elizabeth O'Rourke, sister of F. G. Williams, left this morning for San Francisco after a week spent here with relatives. They came for the purpose of attending the funeral of Mrs. Williams.

After a visit of ten days here with their daughter, Mrs. Dell Symmon, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell Reed left this morning for Crater lake. From there they will go out by way of Ashland and on to their home in San Francisco.

Fear of a railroad tie-up caused Mrs. R. H. Walton to abandon her plan to spend several weeks here visiting with old friends, and she left this morning for her home in Los Gatos. While here Mrs. Walton was the house guest of Mrs. E. S. Phillips.

Miss Dorothy Milgaard, accompanied by her mother, left this morning for Crater lake. From there they will continue to their home in Coquille, Washington. They have been the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Mason during their stay in Klamath Falls.

F. H. Keen, who has been out of town the greater part of the week assisting with the entomological survey in area 2, is expected home tonight. The survey consists in making an estimate of the number of trees destroyed by the pine beetle in 1921. The crews in areas 1 and 3 are expected to finish their work this week and should be in town in the very near future.

WEST BEATS SOUTH FOR FIRST TIME IN EXPORT OF LUMBER

Northwest Movements in Six Months
624,907,409 Feet; Gain in 1922
Is Large; New Record Made

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 16.—For the first time in the history of the American lumber industry the export trade of the Pacific northwest exceeded the export trade of the southern pine region during the first six months of 1922.

In that period Washington, Oregon and British Columbia shipped 624,907,409 feet of lumber overseas as against 615,122,337 feet for the southern pine region, the fir movement having been 98 per cent greater than pitch pine exports.

Export and domestic cargo shipments of lumber from the Pacific northwest in the first half of 1922 totaled 1,598,867,150 feet, as compared with 738,159,036 in the first half of 1921, an increase of 116 1/2 per cent.

Inspection Report Made

These figures are shown in an analysis of the annual shipping report of the Pacific Lumber Association, by the West Coast Lumbermen's association. Of the total cargo shipments of the period the inspection bureau inspected 1,422,337,599 feet.

With notable increases in foreign and domestic cargo shipments, nearly every direction, the market list is headed by California, the north Atlantic ports and Japan, in the order named.

California Shows Increase

California shipments increased 102 1/2 per cent over the first half of last year, the comparative footage being 703,578,516 feet as against 347,901,289. North Atlantic coast shipments ran to 338,952,376 feet, which was 27,000,000 feet more than were shipped to those ports in the entire year of 1921, the banner year up to this time. The rate of increase over the first six months of 1921 was 154 1/2 per cent.

Mr. Stevenson says he hasn't received a single order for lumber by mail order house for the chamber of commerce lumber office for 1922.

THE LIBERTY

A cast that can well be termed an all star one, without the employment of one iota of exaggeration, will be seen when "Burn 'Em Up Barnes," Johnny (Torchy) Hines first feature length starring vehicle, is shown at the Liberty theater tomorrow.

In "Burn 'Em Up Barnes," which was made during Johnny's "vacation," he has the title role. Playing opposite to him is Betty Carpenter, remembered for her work with Constantine Hines and Alice Brady and in Sunshine Comedies. Next comes that well-known stage star, Edmund Broese, and also there is that most amusing of all character actors, George Fawcett. J. Barney Sherry plays the role of Barnes' father and Julia Seynne Gordon plays the role of the mother.

Ralph Spence, the author of the sparkling subtitles in the William Fox picture of Mark Twain's "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," has provided the subtitles for "Burn 'Em Up Barnes," which even in swiftest humor and timeliness anything that author has done heretofore.
