PADEREWSKI TO QUIT POLITICS

Famous Musician, Former Premier of Poland, Returns to Piano

WARSAW, Aug. 31.—The announcement given out in Paris by Ignace Jan Paderewski, the world-known pianist and former Premier of Poland, that he had retired definitely from the political life of Poland, has caused varied comment here. The radicals are relieved, as politically they feared his return, the nationalists hope it is not true.

They argue that Paderewski is too great a patriot to stand aloof from Poland during the very important elections of November, on the 5th of members of the diet and on the 12th of members of the senate. Even should he return to music at the present time, they say, sooner or later he will have to resume his career as a Polish statesman. Paderewski has been away from Poland for two years; but in spite of this absence he still has great prestige here, and many faithful and loyal followers. The nationalists are still trying to persuade him to return to Poland for the election campaign.

The radicals, it is believed will advance General Pilsudski, the present chief of state, as their candidate for the presidency of the republic. The nationalists have not yet any candidate in sight; if Paderewski returned he undoubtedly would have their support.

In the meantime reports from Switzerland, where Paderewski has been staying recently at Morjes, describe the former premier as devoting himself to his music, and convinced in his own mind that, for the present, he has decided upon a course of action which is the best for his country and himself.

At Morjes Paderewski practiced many hours a day in preparation for his concert tour in the United States which is set to begin in November. He has played little during the past five years. Once was on the occasion of his wife's birthday, in 1919, at his hotel in Warsaw, and another when he was in California last Spring. On the latter occasion he played without notes. His memory has not failed him, and in Switzerland also he played much without notes, waiting until his music could be collected. His favorite hours for practice were in the early morning, and again late at night. His idle time he spent in reading or in feeding his prize chickens, of which he has a large number.

Oregon University May Broadcast Music

EUGENE, Aug. 31.—Plans for broadcasting throughout the northwest the speeches of assembly speakers at the University of Oregon and musical concerts held by the associated students of the university when the regular term begins this fall were announced here recently.

Last spring the university students voted to impose upon themselves a quarterly fee which would be used in paying the expenses of the most talented musicians obtainable. For this reason it is expected that the musical assemblies during the coming year will be entertained by many noted musicians. Several times during each term of the school year, speakers of national prominence address the student gathering.

Garrett Lewis, a student at the University of Oregon, who possesses a high power transmitting set, has offered to handle the broadcasting of the assembly programs. He believes this can be handled without difficulty by constructing a loop from his station to the assembly platform.

Although the university authorities have not as yet given final sanction to the plan, Lewis believes that there will be no difficulty in obtaining their permission.

CHARLEY WAS ONLY HORSE IN U. S. TO BUY LIBERTY BOND

HAVRE, Mont., Aug. 31.—"Charley Anderson" of Havre claims the distinction of being the only horse in the United States who subscribed for a Liberty bond during the war.

"Charley" is an employe of the Great Northern railway and has been on the company payroll for several years. His job is general work around the yards. He gets his board and a man to take care of him, besides overtime, the same as any other regular employe.

But "Charley" is getting old and lazy. Every day at time to go to work he is missing. He is found every morning in the same place, down behind the tallest weeds along the right of way. He sometimes becomes dissatisfied with his regular fare and goes out and rustles his own food. Then his employers look him up at the city pound, and make arrangements so that he can be haled out and put to work again.

Evidently "Charley" appreciates the rights that should be his as a coupon clipper. He realizes that like many another bond holder he is a privileged character.

MAIL ROUTE CHANGED

New Order Requires Carrier on Merrill Route to Use Highway

Beginning September 1, the U. S. mail carrier on the star route from Klamath Falls to Merrill will travel the new state highway, returning by the hill road, the present route, according to an order just received by the post office. Those patrons who are being served by this star route, on the old road, will hereafter be served by the R. F. D. No. 1.

This change will greatly improve the mail service to Merrill, especially during the winter, according to Postmaster John A. McCall.
