

The Office Cat

BY JUNIOR

Henry Ford was arrested in Leroy N. Y., for going 55 miles. His chauffeur was fined $30 which Henry paid. The point of this is that this speed was not made in one of Henry's own productions.

Kitty, aged six had been naughty, and her father had had to administer vigorous correction before going to business.

That an impression had been made was apparent when on his return from business in the evening, Kitty called up-stairs with frigid politeness: "Mother, your husband's home."

Getting Poor

Charles Roberts says some are born poor, others have poverty thrust upon them, and still others buy oil stock.

How an oil stock salesman does weep to see a friend throwing money away on ball games.

E. S. Henry says the world is learning that, if it is to have permanent peace, it must rely on its hands rather than its arms.

Wife—"Judging by this article on electricity, very soon we'll get everything we want by merely touching a button."

Hubby—"You'll never get anything that way, because you never touch a button. Just look at this shirt I am wearing."

"Is Jack very religious?"

"Religious? Why, he actually believes the epistles were the wives of the apostles."

John D. Rockefeller's grand daughter has started a millinery store. That family surely knows how to get the money.

Synthetic Godliness

Daughter: "The preacher just phoned and said he was coming to call this afternoon."

Mother: "Gracious! We must make a good impression. Give the baby the hymn-book to play with."

A. M. Worden says some men never consult either the Lord or their women folks until they get in to trouble.

What has become of the old time horse doctor? He never knew how to keep a horse four days, do nothing at all to the critter, and then charge up 55 hours labor.

"It is permissible to eat onions in a restaurant," advises Allen Sloan. "The bill will always take your breath away."

The first woman was called Eve, it is said, because she came at the end of Adam's perfect day.

Peasant Styles

Peasant fashions, so popular for brown-ups, are now being shown in children's frocks. They distinguish a great many dresses for young girls.

PARIS—There seems to be no end to the popularity of monkey fur, both white and black. It is a trimming which adds distinction to even the plainest costume. Monkey fur, in fact, was the making of one gown in white crepe moracain. Perfectly straight in line with a waistline at normal and the plainest of straight, full sleeves, the gown would have been nothing at all except for six lines of black monkey fur which went at wide intervals in perpendicular stripes from a point half way up the shoulder to a point an inch below the hem.

NEW YORK—The old time miser's purse is back with us again, the convenient draw string purse which is so easy to carry on the wrist whether shopping or strolling down the avenue. But the new miser's purses are decorated with an elaborateness calculated to make any real miser swoon with shock at the lack of economy.

NEW YORK—Black, brown and navy blue are the smart colors for early autumn, an edict which presages a season eminently "practical". For the woman who does not go in for suits, there are smart one-piece dresses of navy canton crepe over which a coat of marvella cloth in navy or black is both suitable and lovely.

NEW YORK—Tweeds which went distinctly "out" before summer arrived, are back again for autumn suits and frocks. The new imported tweeds show large plaids and striking frocks. The colors most in evidence are blue and wood brown. These form especially effective combinations for short clothes.

Portland—Gas company to erect $10,000 building at Gasco on Linton road.

Eugene—Bible university to erect $100,000 hospital.

Prineville to build $100,000 hotel.

Beauties Cause Battle Decisions Are Questioned

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Metropolitan studios echo today with the rumbling of a beauty war, precipitated when Neysa McMein, painter of pretty girls, ventured to select the twelve most beautiful women in the United States.

Miss McMein nominated Alice Joyce, Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, Mrs. John Barrymore, Christine Norman, Mary Pickford, Dolores of the Follies, Hebe Halpin, Winifred Lenthall, Mrs. Angler B. Duke, Irene Castle, Ethel Barrymore and Lady Ribblesdale, formerly Mrs. John Jacob Astor.

Howard Chandler Christy thinks the much-contended list 'pretty good' but believes Mrs. Christy should have a place there; also Mrs. William R. Hearst and Mrs. Oliver Harriman. C. Coles Phillips, from his studio in New Rochelle, announced: "Neysa and I agree on only four points, Alice Joyce, Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, Irene Castle and Dolores."

"I think Barbara Deane, now Mrs. R. W. Otto, the actress, is the most beautiful woman in America. "And if anybody is going to pick a list of a dozen, the names of Ganna Walska McCormick ought to be among them. She can make the average pretty girl look like a country cousin."

The list of Phillips' list includes Elsie Ferguson, Alice McMein, the model; Corilla Palmer, screen actress; Katherine McDonald, also of the movies; Mrs. Tom Shovin, and Marlon Davies.

Among the other beautiful women suggested by the artists' colony are Violet Heming, Barbara La Mar, Julia Sanderson, Betty Compton, Lillian Gish, Hedda Hooper, Pauline Frederick, Alice Gentle, Jobyna Howland, Anna Case, Gloria Swanson, all of the movies or stage; Mrs. Charles Dask Gibson and Dorothy Knapp, artists' models.

Organization of Home Guards By Veterans Is Start of New Movement

TOPEKA, Sept. 1.—Organization of Topeka Post No. 1, department of Kansas, of the American state guards marks the beginning of a movement to form into local, state and national units those who served in the state guards, or citizens' home guards during the world war. In Kansas, this volunteer organization grew to a maximum enrollment of nearly 20,000 men, but it was disorganized soon after the close of the war when the Kansas national guard was reorganized. Those promoting organization of the association state in their adopted constitution, that they regret the lack of proper recognition "for the neglected branch of the military service during the world war." They point out that most of the states had home guard units during the war, and that the Kansas department will urge members of the home guards in other states to organize.

SATURDAY—TUESDAY—WEDNESDAY Three Days of Pre-Season Selling

Discount on Coats, Suits, Dresses, Skirts, Waists, Silk Underwear, Sweaters,

While these discounts will be for Saturday, Tuesday and Wednesday only we are making preparations for one of the greatest Pre-season selling periods we have ever held.

One of the most important things we wish to impress on the minds of the public is that everything on sale during this sale is new merchandise bought expressly for Fall and Winter selling. No left overs as they were all sold during the July and August clearances.

Not only are you going to buy for less but you get the advantage of the New York markets through the R. C. U. which we are a member of. Every garment that comes into this store from our New York office is passed not by one but a half dozen men who are experts in the Ready to Wear line and who do nothing but scan the markets continuously for the purpose of distributing better merchandise at a lowest possible price.

There is but one way for you to tell (to your own satisfaction) whether you are getting more for your money and that is to compare garment for garment in material, workmanship, style, price, service or in any way you may wish.

COATS

It's easy enough to count the number of days and weeks now before a coat will be one of your warmest friends, and to think how much more welcome it is when an opportunity like this presents itself. 20% is a big reduction and it means even much more to those who need a coat for this fall and winter.

Nothing short of a newspaper page could give you a description of the many garments, but we might mention a few materials and shades which will dominate.

MATERIALS—

Velvete — Normango — Velour — Bolivia — Mariano — Velvaline

SHADES—

Sorrento — Pretet — Navy — Reindeer — Kit Fox

Many of the coats this year will have belts and many without, some will be fur trimmed and some plain. Wrappy and Mannish seem to be the wanted styles.
