

The Office Cat

BY JUNIOR SILLY, AIN'T IT?

Has he gone, Is he went? Has he left we all alone, Is he never come to see, It cannot was.

A Wise Bird "Why have I never married?" the old bachelor said in reply to a teasing question.

"Well, once upon a time, in a crowd, I tried on a lady's gown. She turned furiously, beginning, 'You clumsy brute! Then she smiled sweetly, and said, 'Oh, I beg your pardon! I thought you were my husband! No, it really doesn't matter in the least! And when I came to think it over, I decided that maybe I'd just as well let marriage alone."

Modernity Love comes once in a life-time, and then again and again. The consolation of the rejected is that he lives to try again.

DEAD LANGUAGE "Take this seat." "What'll you have?" "Here's your number." "Yes, Two good seats left." "Madge, does my petticoat show?" "Thanks for the tip, sir." "Police captures burglar." "Take a son-of-a-bitch!" "Fried oyster free." "Help yourself." "I beg pardon." "Have one on me."

We'll wish for this same weather just about February 15.

Will the ladies with bobbed hair look good in long skirts? Bobbed hair and bobbed skirts surely go together.

It isn't polite to do it, but there are a lot of folks that need a good kicking after they are down.

WAIL OF A JUNE BRIDEGROOM When the last wedding silver is tarnished And the bridal bouquet has dried, When all the rice has vanished And the old shoes been cast aside— We shall find, and faith we shall prove it, That our friends didn't speak quite true, When they said that the cost of living Was as much for one as for two.

At last Aunt Sarah is forced to confess her need of exorcism. She tried to boil the rhino nest egg.

Personal Mention

G. M. Raymond, circuit court reporter, spent yesterday in Madocel taking evidence at the meeting of the Board of Equalization.

Joseph S. Kent arrived on last night's train from San Francisco and will be here for the next few days attending to matters of business.

J. H. Dennison is a Klamath Falls business visitor this week from Medford. He is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Jenny Benedict and Jane West Benedict are tourist visitors here from New Orleans. They are guests at the White Pelican hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Mathias and Mrs. E. Mathias Sr., of San Francisco, have been the guests of the Frank Moorland's at Rocky Point for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas and Dr. Geo. R. Mallett were among the local people who went from here to view the Lakeview round-up. Thomas reported the affair was all it was advertised to be.

Miss Marjorie Dolzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dolzell, left this morning for Medford, where she will teach school this winter. For two years past Miss Dolzell has held a position in the Klamath Falls city schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Marjion Barnes and two children and Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes and son, Ned, have returned from an outing trip to Diamond lake, Summer lake and Lakeview. At the latter place they took in the big round-up before leaving for home.

Mrs. William Inrel and small son are here from Modesto, California, for a brief visit with relatives and friends. They drove up from their southern home with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive and expect to return next Sunday morning. Mrs. Inrel was Miss Hattie White before her marriage.

Mrs. Frank Moorland and children returned home Saturday from Oakland, California, where they passed the last seven weeks. They were accompanied on the trip home by Albert Moorland, who has been attending Head's Business college this summer.

H. W. Hobbs, land attorney for the Southern Pacific company, who attended the meeting of Board of Equalization at Madocel, California, yesterday, was a brief visitor in Klamath Falls, leaving on this morning's train for San Francisco. Hobbs said he believed the merging of the Union and Central Pacific lines would add a heavy public burden, as it would require heavy terminal development by the Southern Pacific at several points in California.

Mrs. Nina Martin, accompanied by her son, Stanley, left this morning on the return trip to their home in Long Beach, California, after a month passed here and at the Klamath Agency with friends and relatives. The Martins were residents of this city for several years, having returned to California a year ago after the tragic death of Mr. Martin, who was killed by the accidental discharge of his revolver while hunting for a moonshine still on Antelope creek.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

Comic strip 'DOINGS OF THE DUFFS' by Allman. Panel 1: Mrs. Duff asks if it is her duty to speak to a matter that is very painful to both. Panel 2: A man says 'Well, come in, please!' and 'Yes, I was going to a movie.' Panel 3: A man says 'What we have to tell you is of a very private nature and we hope you will accept it in the spirit that it is given - it was something that occurred last evening - you will recall that I met you on the corner last evening?' Panel 4: A man says 'Yes, you said you were going to a movie - well - well - after I left you and started for home - I was walking along minding my own business when I happened to look up and - oh - I can't tell you! I can't tell you!' Panel 5: A man says 'Don't tell her! I can't stand it!' and 'No, I can't do it! No, I can't!'

pected to do more in the future, if conditions favored it.

He pointed out that betterments and extensions had been built in Oregon when the Union Pacific controlled the Southern Pacific lines under the Harmer merger, and that when the merger took place this development stopped; that the strength of the Southern in the state today was due to the expenditures under Union Pacific control.

Natron Cut-Off Discussed

As far as the Natron cut-off is concerned, Spender declared that the Union Pacific had promised to build that road two weeks before the Southern Pacific passed its resolution, pledging the completion of the Kirk-Oakridge line. He intimated that the Southern Pacific had been awakened to the necessity of this promise by the Union Pacific action, and passed the resolution and ante-dated it 15 days.

Other speakers during the evening were H. L. Lounsbury, general freight agent for the Union Pacific line; J. W. Morrow, O. W. R. & N. tax agent, and Walter Pierce, democratic candidate for governor.

Ben C. Day, Southern Pacific counsel, will address a forum meeting next Wednesday evening in behalf of that road.

POINDEXTER IS ELECTION ISSUE

Bull Moose Junior Senator From Washington Is Opposed By Woman

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 7.—The question of whether Miles Poindexter, the junior United States senator from Washington who was swept into office on the Bull Moose tide in 1910, will be returned to office, is the outstanding one in the state primary election September 12. One of his opponents for the Republican nomination is a woman, Mrs. Frances Cleveland Atwell of Bellingham.

Senator Poindexter, who has been engaged for weeks in a vigorous speaking campaign throughout the state, asserts that "newspaper and labor bosses" are responsible for charges that he was recreant to progressive principles when he raised large campaign funds, voted for the four-power treaty and for the seating of Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan.

The opposition to Senator Poindexter centers around two personalities, one in the Republican party in Mrs. Axtell, and the other in the Democratic party, Clarence Hill of Spokane, a former congressman.

Mrs. Axtell was the first woman member of the Washington legislature, her term beginning in 1913. From 1917 to 1921 she was a member of the federal employees compensation commission and is chairman of the Washington state organization for reduction of armament by international agreement.

She declares that she represents "the general protest against the reactionary record of Senator Poindexter," denounces the seating of Senator Newberry, asserts that the senate has been indifferent to the welfare of farmers and promises to work for a soldiers' bonus, child welfare legislation, upholding the Volstead law and for the avoidance of entangling foreign relations.

IN THE COURTS

Anderson vs. Stephenson R. H. Anderson is seeking to collect the sum of $239.94 with interest alleged due him from F. R. Stephenson. Suit was filed in the circuit court yesterday by Anderson.

Grand Jury Called An order was entered by Judge Leavitt today calling the grand jury for Monday, September 18. The regular jury panel will be called October 2, having been postponed due to criminal cases not being ready for trial.

Williamson River Logging Co. vs. Southern Pacific The Williamson River Logging company through its attorneys yesterday filed suit in the circuit court against the Southern Pacific company in which it asks that the court grant a permanent injunction which will prevent the railroad company from interfering with any part of the plaintiff's right of way over their lands. Late yesterday afternoon Judge Leavitt signed a temporary restraining order for the purpose of preventing such threatened interference while the suit is pending.

MOVERS

THE LIBERTY In "Black Roses," his latest Robertson-Cole production, Sessue Hayakawa, distinguished Japanese star, is seen for the first time in many months in a photoplay laid entirely in America. The same artistry with which every Hayakawa production is invested is paramount in "Black Roses" at the Liberty theatre today only.

During the course of the production Hayakawa is seen in three distinct characterizations, first as a happy-go-lucky gardener on the estate of a millionaire; next as a hardened victim of circumstances, when by false evidence he is convicted of a murder he never committed, and finally as a Chinese prince moving in the highest circles of society.

THE STRAND Tonight the admission price to everybody will be ten cents at The Strand and the picture shown will be "The Sage Brusher" with countless thrills from start to finish.

The new price of ten cents which is The Strand price Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week has so crowded the house that an extra performance is given each evening, the shows beginning at 6:15, 7:45 and 9:15.

There has been no reduction of the program and the quality is the best, yet the price is only ten cents. Many wonder how it can be done but Manager White says, "Why wonder, just come to the show and enjoy it. If there's any wondering to be done let me do it." And the crowd goes to The Strand.
