

FLYER REACHES HAITI

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Sept. 8.
Lieutenant Walter Hinton in the airplane Sampaio Correia arrived here at noon yesterday on his trip from the United States to Rio Janeiro.

Nothing to put on; Nothing to take off: a turn of the hand and the Brunswick phonograph plays any disc record correctly. Currin Says So.

An Important Question in Every Woman's Mind

Usually at this time of the year—at the height of Fall Fashion Season every woman wants to know what will be worn. Could everyone of our customers have been here for the past week to see box after box of new Fall garments being unpacked it certainly would have been a pleasure to them.

While some of our merchandise from New York was delayed, due to various reasons, most of it is in stock now and we cordially invite you to come in and inspect one of the most complete stock of Ready to Wear in this part of the state. As advertised previously the 20% reductions still prevail.

NEW FALL SUITS

One glance at the suits as they present themselves this fall place them in a distinct class yet being of a moderate price. Practically any kind of materials or shades.

$17.50

STYLISH COATS

It is always easier to select a coat at this store because our stock is larger and more complete. In everyone of these garments you will find the added touch of distinction that one wants most in appearance.

$17.50, $19.50 and up

DRESSES FOR FALL

Charming dresses for Fall that only the most skilled and clever modists can design. Be it either silk or wool you will find the style suited to yourself most.

Tricotine, Poirer, Twill, Serges are the most wanted materials for Fall.

$22.50

HER SCHOOL MIDDY

Dozens of new middies have come in this last week. She may have either the cotton or wool but when school commences she will want two or three of them anyway.

One number is a Lonsdale Jean in white with large navy blue collar trimmed with white cord. All sizes and several styles at $1.50

Another number is the all wool flannel midy in either navy or red. One of the best we have been able to buy to sell so reasonable. These too are in all sizes and several styles $3.50

COATS FOR THE SCHOOL GIRL

An unusually good selection of coats are here for the school girl. Of course she will want a new one because the old one may look a bit worse for wear or perhaps it is her first year in high school.

Very clever styles and designs will be found in children's coats this fall and winter. Some are belted with pockets and large roll collars. Many of them resemble the grown-up style in every way but the price.

A choice of materials await you, included are Velours, Polo, Broad Cloth, Normalaine and others.

Navy, Chocolate, Sorrento, Peach and other shades will be very good.

Priced from $6.50 and up.

It pleases any man to know that the shoe he is wearing has the approval of men everywhere; that it has national prestige; that, at home or on his travels, he can always be glad to have it known that he wears The Florsheim Shoe. Few shoes are so gratifying, none more so, at any price.
