

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

In this weather a man is justified in wearing his whiskers long enough to keep a kiss from skidding, opines H. S. West.

Goloshes Or Veils?

Two young ladies stepped out of the music hall and tripped down the sidewalk their veils flapping in the breeze.—News Item.

"Say, did you ever kiss a girl in a quiet spot?"
"Yes, but the spot was quiet only when I was kissing it."

The reason so many person's minds wander is because their bodies can't.

A teacher was explaining to her class about the different seasons of the year, and she asked Rachel Cohen how many there were. Rachel answered: "Two—slack and busy."

For a man who does not do much sleeping Thomas Edison has some wonderful dreams.

Blake—Why is Jim so popular at the club? Why, everyone knows that he can't speak.
Flake—Yes, and he knows it, too.

Cap. Reed says everyone admires good people, but it is hard to enjoy their company long.

First Farmer—"How much did you get for your potatoes?"
Second Farmer—"Well, I didn't get so much as I expected but then I didn't reckon I would."

In a paper we read that a western man wants a "man to milk and drive a Ford truck" while in another section a farmer wants to buy a "cow with three pigs and a gas tank."

J. P. Wells says the great silence you hear is boys cheering because school has started.

The best vacation book is the pocketbook. But it isn't interesting unless it is full.

What has become of the instrument of sudden death, the folding bed? Anyway it sometimes served to shut a man's wife up when nothing else could.

NO NEED TO WORRY

I'm only just a humble little Ford. But, oh! ye walk-out thousands, heed this hunch.
If the passenger trains quit running, on my word,
I'll be the busiest "breaker" in the bunch.

BEWARE

Son—"Daddy, what is a bigamist?"
Father—"A bigamist, sonny, is a man who makes the same mistake twice."

How Women Should Dress

Mary Roberts Rinehart in a recent interview on the subject of clothes and present day fashions said "A woman is well dressed when she can stand the sharpest scrutiny, but when no one turns to look." Isn't it the truth?

Don't Put It in the Attic

It's Fun to Refinish It Yourself
—We'll Tell You How

MANY lovely home things are put in the attic when they are old only on the outside. They would look as good as new if refinished.

You can refinish them yourself with a little paint, varnish, or enamel, and a bit of work—that is really fun.

We organized a special department just to tell you how to refinish things successfully. Write our "Home Service Department," telling them what you want to refinish and how you want it to look.

Our experts will tell you just how to do the work, what materials, brushes, etc., you need.

We make special paints, varnishes, enamels, wall finishes and stains for you to use. They are the results of 73 years in the paint making business. They are the best materials of their kind that we know.

Ask for Fuller's Free Advice and use Fuller's Products to make your home even more attractive than it is now. The work is easy and fascinating. The results are a wonderful reward.

WETS MANY IN ILLINOIS RACE

Majority of Candidates Announce Stand Against Prohibition

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—About one third of the candidates in Illinois for congress have announced their attitude toward prohibition. Of these, 14 declared themselves wet, seven dry, and five said that prohibition was not an issue in their districts. None of the other candidates have announced their position thus far.

Of the candidates declaring themselves wet, three were Republicans, four Democrats, four Socialists, and three represented the Farmer-Labor party. Of the drys, two were Republicans, two Democrats, one a Socialist, and two Farmer-Labor men. Three Republicans and two Democrats said there was no liquor in their districts.

Of the 37 candidates in the ten Chicago districts and the four Chicago candidates for representative at large, 12 have announced their positions, 11 declaring themselves wet. The 12th, James M. Cahill, Farmer-Laborite in the 8th district, declared for enforcement of the 18th amendment but suggested that the amendment might be modified to some extent "to remove the feeling that it is an infringement upon personal liberty."

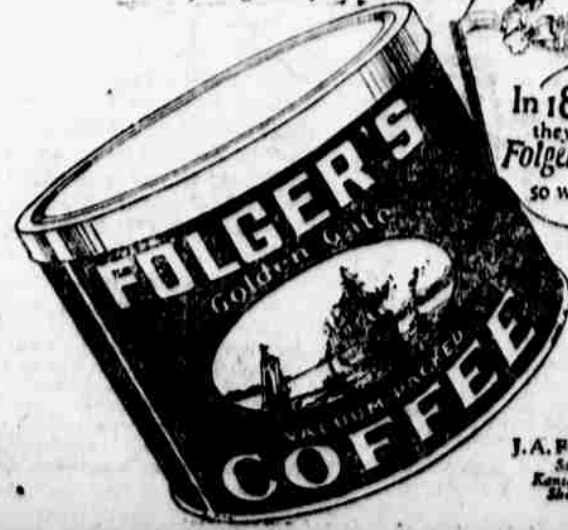

A vacuum tin is of little value in itself
It's the brand that counts

A vacuum tin will retain any coffee flavor—but it may not be the flavor you want.

That's reason enough why you should look for "Folger's Golden Gate" on every tin of coffee you buy. That name assures you of a better coffee flavor—a flavor developed by seventy-two years of experience.

Folger's Golden Gate Coffee is "different in taste from other coffee and better."

Tell your grocer you want it.

In 1850 they liked Folger's Coffee—so will you
