A CLOSE CALL

I slipped, I fell I sat down hard I landed on my rear. I cursed, I swore, I damned my luck My heart was filled with fear. I felt, I looked, I felt again I ceased to fuss and chafe, I smiled, I grinned, I cried aloud. "Thank God, the stuff is safe!"

She (sentimental)—Do you think marriage is a failure? Furniture Dealer (practical)—Good lord, no! I made $2,500 last year on perambulators alone.

True Economy

"Hey, papa, there's a fly in my soup." "Well, hey, eat the soup until you come to the fly, then tell the waiter and he'll give you another plate."

Deputy Sheriff Barnes says the intentions of some men are honest and then some men insist that they have the law on their side.

The White Plague

Jack—Did you hear about that terrible accident at the ball game last night? Jill—No, what was it? "Boss got too near an electric fan and two men who were standing near by were almost suffocated by the dust."

Parker: "The only thing he left was an old clock." Lawyer: "Well, there's one good thing about it—it won't be much trouble to wind up his estate!"

The smaller the calibre the bigger the bore. This applies to men, not fire-arms, gargles Bert Withrow.

Six Months Without Sleep "Dix—Whadjamean your insomnia is due to heredity?" Dix—"My father was night editor on the Greenland newspaper."

Love which makes the world go 'round, also ought to make it go 'square," says the Rev. A. L. Rice.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Have you ever Asked your girl to a show And told her you had to Get seats in the balcony, because All the rest of the house was sold out? And then when you got there you found The orchestra was only half filled and You and she were alone in the balcony. Eh?

Jud Tunkins says what makes him admire a mother's love and marvel at it is a photograph of himself taken at the age of 11 or 12.

"My wife loves her Ford, and me, too. In fact, she loves anything that she can drive," gargles Amos Tash.

Take a Hint A young man was jilted the other night because he is always telling what a great man he is, and the young lady is going to marry another man who is always saying what a girl she is.

CONFERENCE TEAMS TO HAVE OFFICIAL PRACTICE FRIDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Football squads of the Pacific Coast Conference universities and colleges, most of them "pointed" at the University of California, will hold their first official practice tomorrow.

California has held the conference championship for two seasons and it is the aim of every team on the Bears' schedule to inflict upon the Berkeley team the first defeat it has suffered since 1920.

From the university of Southern California camps in Los Angeles to Washington state college at Pullman, wherever conference squads are gathering, they are pointing out that this will be the year to defeat California for the Bear machine, they say, has been wrecked by the loss of its 1921 line, from tackle to tackle.

California students themselves, however, are doing little worrying, for they have faith in Andy Smith, their coach, and in his power to train some of his extra backfield stars and second string men to hold down positions on the line. "Brick" Muller, the All-American end is back, so is Captain Charlie Erb, they point out, claiming that the veteran backfield men and ends will be strong enough to offset any weakness the line may have, if it is to have any.

The Bears meet both the Washington conference teams, Washington State and the University of Washington, this year, and strong competition is expected. Last year California defeated both the far northern teams. Washington State has eleven letter-men back, a veteran for every position except center. Washington hopes to regain its place on the football map this year and Coach Enoch Bagshaw says the team will be 75 per cent stronger than it was a year ago, particularly in the line.

Down at Stanford university they are banking their hopes upon a veteran team and upon a brand new coaching system imported from Pittsburgh university. Since the days when the two played rugby Stanford has not defeated California at football.

University of Southern California's "big game" of the year will be against California in Los Angeles and the Trojans want to send the Bears back with a trimming. Even Trojan supporters, however, doubt if this can be done this year for U. S. C. lost several stars of the 1921 team, which failed to defeat the Bears.

WASHINGTON TEAM WILL MAKE ATTEMPT TO REGAIN LAURELS

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 14.—Seventy five percent stronger than a year ago, the University of Washington football team will try this year to regain the place it held on the football map several years ago when the famous Gil Dobie coached the eleven through season after season without defeat.

Many students think the team will be so good it will take the measure of the champion University of California eleven when the two meet here November 11. Last year at Berkeley California defeated the Purple and Gold eleven by more than seventy points in revenge for a score just about as large which was run up by Washington against California back in 1915.

Enoch Bagshaw, coach of the university, promises to send onto the field a powerful line, weak at only one of the ends. The backfield will not show the improvement this year that will be displayed in the line, for Ray Eckman and Harry Quass, stars of 1921, are gone.

Roy Petrie, a giant from Clarkston, will be one of the ends. The other has not yet been selected. At the tackle positions, where the real strength will begin, will be Bill Grimm, once second All-American player, Ed Kuhn, powerful sophomore from Spokane, Tinning, a "W" man, Amos Christie, captain of the Stanford university freshman team two years ago or McMillan, Captain Bob Ingram probably will be one of the guards and either Jim Bryan or Ed Hohl, veterans, the other. For center there is Hank Hayes or Cliff Langhorne, both letter men, but light. Chalmers Walters, dark horse from Everett, is also a candidate for center.

Bagshaw must develop a quarterback and is looking to last year's freshmen. Likely looking men are Wallie Dalley, brother of "Cram" Dalley, ex-Washington star, Myron Hanley, brother of the Hanley boys famed in Washington state college gridiron history, or Fred Abel. In the halfback and fullback positions will be Johnny Wilson, Ray Hill, Leonard Zell, John Black, Elbert Harper, Wayne Hall, all letter men.

THE LIBERTY

"Winning With Wits," will be the feature at the Liberty theatre today with Barbara Bedford as the star.

The story tells of the efforts of Mary Sudan to free her father from a prison sentence for a crime of which he was innocent; and Miss Bedford is said to display her ability and cleverness to great advantage. The exceptional personality, charm, vivacity and sympathy of this nineteen-year-old star are said to be potent assets in helping her gain a new triumph in this fascinating story.

The picture was adapted from a short story by H. H. Van Loan.

THE STRAND

Cully and Clare will entertain those who attend the Strand tonight. These dancing, singing and banjo playing artists are entertainers de Lux, and even at that they are but a part of the wonderful program which has been arranged for this evening.

There is Sinda Dale in a singing and dancing surprise act which will surprise, and added to all this is the usual feature picture and comedy.

Tonight it is "Shirley Kaye" by Clara Kimball Young who acts the part of the fighting daughter of old "Pirate" Kaye and looks prettier than ever when she does it.

Everybody loves a real fighter, especially if that fighter is a young and beautiful girl battling against tremendous odds. That is why everybody will love Clara Kimball Young in "Shirley Kaye".

"Wet" Issue Absent In Kansas Election

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 14.—Complete absence of the wet and dry issue marks the coming election in Kansas, not one candidate having injected the question into the contests in the dry's stronghold.

Statements from a number of congressional and state candidates indicated they were ignoring the issue in their campaigns because they did not consider it existed in any of the state or district contests.

OSAKA MOST EXPENSIVE CITY

OSAKA, Japan, Sept. 14.—Osaka, the industrial capital of Japan has the reputation of being the most expensive city of the empire in which to live. The prices of commodities in Osaka in June averaged 8.7 percent over the same month last year, Tokio the next expensive city, averaged 6.8 percent. The general advance in prices in ten years has been 150.39 percent in Osaka and 136.34 percent in Tokio, according to official figures.

due to profiteering the government recently ordered the department stores to make a reduction of 15 percent in necessities. The stores replied with bargain sales at which they got rid of their surplus stock. This did not satisfy the government so an order has gone out to all retailers to reduce the prices of 'naha' a sort of macaroni and "tofu" bean paste, staple foods of the people. If present weather conditions continue a good crop is expected to bring down the price of rice.
