Heavy, Heavy Lies Head Wearing British Title

LONDON, Sept. 19.—It is hard to be relatively poor, yet compelled by the circumstance of birth to hide the fact and even play the part of a mad-cap spender.

A certain Lord writes to a London newspaper:

"I have to wear a tall hat and the tail coat of conventionality. I have to tip well and cheerfully, and at the same time count every penny. When friends from abroad come to town I have to entertain them—which is a pleasure, but oh! the plotting and the planning and mean little economies that I have to practice! Without a title I should be a comparatively happy man. But I inherited it and I cannot shed it.

"A wealthy American once said to me, 'You British peers have a jolly good time!' I tried to explain to him that we too had responsibilities, but he countered this by saying, 'I would give anything to be a man of title.' And I would have given a great deal to be plain 'Mr.' with all his money."

THREE CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD FOR GOVERNOR

from the third congressional district there will be three candidates at the November election. These include C. N. ("Pat") McArthur, regular nominee of the republican party; Elton Watkins, democratic nominee, and F. T. Johns of the industrial labor party. Johns was nominated at an assembly held in Portland Monday night and filed his certificate of nomination with the secretary of state Wednesday.

In the second congressional district there will be two candidates, including N. J. Sinnott of The Dalles, republican nominee, and James Harvey Graham of Baker, nominee of the democratic party. W. C. Hawley received both the republican and democratic nominations in the first congressional district.

One Candidate for Treasurer

For state treasurer O. P. Hoff is the only candidate. Milton Miller, ex-collector of customs for the Oregon district, was nominated by the democratic party for this office, but he recently withdrew his candidacy because of ill health. It was said here today that the democratic state central committee may endorse a candidate to make the race for the party in place of Miller.

There will be two candidates in the race for state labor commissioner. These include C. H. Gram, who received both the republican and democratic nominations at the primary election, and B. H. Hansen of Portland. Hansen was nominated at an assembly held by the Oregon educational league in Portland recently, and filed as an independent.

For state superintendent of public instruction there are two candidates in the field. They are J. A. Churchill, incumbent, and R. B. George of Eugene. Churchill received both the republican and democratic nominations at the primary election. George was nominated at an assembly held by the Oregon Educational League.

Three Back Commissionership

Three candidates are in the race for public service commissioner from the state at large. They include Thomas B. Campbell, formerly a member of the commission and regular republican nominee; T. M. Kerrigan, elected a member of the commission at the recall election held last May, and Gus E. Erickson, a Portland lawyer. Both Kerrigan and Erickson filed as independents after having received the nominations in separate assemblies held in Portland. Erickson is the candidate of the Oregon Educational League.

Observance of Constitution Day at the Presbyterian church Sunday, celebrating the signing of the constitution, September 17, 1789, was marked by a large attendance. R. C. Protest Filed Against Changing Name of Sisson

DUNSMUIR, Cal., Sept. 19.—Protest has been filed against the proposed changing of the name of the town of Sisson, near here, to Mount Shasta. The objection came from Mrs. Effie A. Hoepf, Sacramento, a granddaughter of Justin Hinkley Sisson, for whom the town was named and who settled on the townsite at the foot of the Mount Shasta in 1859. Mrs. Hoepf declared in a letter to Postmaster General Work that the name of the hardy pioneer should be perpetuated.

Citizens of Sisson recently voted to change the name and petitioned the postoffice department to order the change. No action has yet been taken by Washington.
