PIERCE TO BE HOST

WE HAVE just declined with regret, taking advantage of the courteous permission to wire answer collect, an invitation to attend a dinner at Albany next Wednesday at which the democratic can- fly-by-night champ. didate for governor, Walter Pierce. will "explain to the press his attitude on state issues."

We declined with regret, and we it an ancient history. sincerely regret that we can't be there. It should be good.

There are some hundred and fifty newspapers in the state. Presumably on each invitation would average water in bathing. seventy-five cents: the replies would double this cost. There is a certain amount of overhead in preparing and sending such wholesale invitations.

Looks like the invitational cost would be two or three hundred dollars; the dinner cost as much more.

All to get a few newspaper men together and pour some political pap over them while they are well fed may have gotten slan eyed from lookand in friendly mood, in hopes that ing at their noses. some of it will stick.

Not one in a dozen newspaper men. nor one in twenty will respond to such a trick.

ness that it got a publicity rise out still getting it please bring in your of us. Notwithstanding that it seems receipt and paper will be started a coatly proposition, and not alto- again. Subscription price is 50c a gether in keeping with the honorable host's loudly voiced desire to see a Phone 133J reign of retrenchment, economy and lower taxes.

Such sybaritic feasting is not at all in line with the doctrine of frugal democracy so widely preached by Mr. Plerse. Mayhap he has misjudged himself. If his buckboard campaign for the governorship has so soon attained the proportions of a special train junket, how is the voter to know that his ideas on the conservation of the public finances, were he elected governor, would not suffer a similar. sudden change?

Several days ago representative republicans of the state met in Portland. The chairman of the state republican committee sent no costly telegrams. Each man who attended went at his own expense. The hards working, straight-thinking delegates produced a platform of real merit. setting forth real remedies for the problems that confront the state.

These republican stalwarts, proud of their party, declared their partisanship in plainest terms. They voiced their inmost thoughts, and bound themselves and all republican candidates and public servants, with covenants so clear that they can have no double meaning.

Mr. Pierce's Albany dinner, it is distinctly specified in the invitation. is to be "non-partisau." Mr. Pierce has throughout his campaign played on the "non-partisan" chord strongly. In other words he is hopeful of gathering a majority vote under any screen of camouflage that opportunity permits.

No wonder that the term "politics" has degenerated until it now auggests an organization whose motives will not stand the scrutiny of daylight.

No wonder that the word "politician" is now almost an enithet.

Think it over men and women voters of Klamath county. On the one hand you have a responsible organization, with a record of accomplish ment, pledged to further constructive efforts. On the other you have a "non-partisan" conglomeration, pledged to nothing.

With the most honorable intentions -and we give Mr. Plerce credit for being sincerely of the opinion that he can accomplish much for this state as its governor, of being honest in his purposes-does it stand to reason that his nebulous, unauthorized program will succeed as well as the organized, definitely expressed plan of the republican organization? Think it over carefully.
