

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Playing Safe for Ma

Pa and Ma Watkins have a small general store on Main street, in a very small town in Indiana. They live in a room back of their store, where Ma generally holds forth by herself when Pa is busy in the store.

One evening about six o'clock, burglars entered the store and worked quietly, effectively and quickly. Pa put up his hands when told to "stick 'em up" and stood that way while the "rush" was on.

"Pa, come here immediately," Pa broke his silence and meekly called back: "I can't come now, ma; I'm busy."

Capt. Applegate says the only drawback about kissing a girl who hasn't previously been kissed is that she doesn't know how to co-operate.

"Guess I'll have to stop selling to that man," declared the druggist. "Why so?" "He wants too much horse liniment for a man who has no horse."

When the mayor at Johnstown, Pa. officially granted permission for the sale of real beer during a water shortage, did he recall that the other Johnstown flood consisted of water.

It is said the dome of St. Paul's in London is cracked. The very common sort of affliction in this country, too.

The man who sings through his nose, snaps Archie Wishard with a last bit of patience, ought to be cut off without a scent.

A bunch of scientists are going to Argentine to hunt old fossils. Seems to us there are enough of them right here at home without going that far for them.

Uncle Levi Zink says his niece is all wrought up this hot, damp weather, because she can't make her wave stay wave nor her bang stay bang.

She—What makes the leaves turn red in the fall? He—They are blushing to think how green they have been all summer.

Harry Poole says there's never a failure of the human lemon crop.

Amenities Rastus and Mose were having a heated argument. In reply to some remark of Rastus, Mose said: "Guess I know, nigguh! Don't you think I've got any brains?" "Huh!" Rastus replied. "Nigguh, if brains were dynamite you couldn't blow off your hat!"

SOON HOME "Expect your husband home early tonight?" "Yes, he has gone to a dry barquet."

LAPPIN'—Is the sensation of feelin' good all over, but showing it particularly in one spot, gargles Amos Tash.

YOUR WINTER'S

WOOD should have your attention. Cool weather and storms force prices up. Our fuel is the best, our prices are right on Slab, Blocks, Body and Tamaoak. Your business is solicited.

O. Peyton & Co. 419 MAIN. PHONE 525

How Siki Did It

Here's Siki, Senegalese fighter, bending over Georges Carpentier, one-time European champ after he had dealt the blow that doubled Georges up into a pretzel on the floor, snatched his championship and muddled up his movie countenance.

H. S. FOOTBALL TEAM IS OUT

Practice Starts in Earnest; Frank Peyton Chosen to Captain Team

Football practice began in earnest again last night after the week's vacation. On account of the fair last week and the weather football practice was more or less interrupted.

Frank Peyton, last year's half-back, safety quarter, and one of the stars of the team, was elected captain. The school is depending a great deal on his field leadership, and all around football knowledge and ability to make a winning team. He will play quarter-back this year.

Scrimmage will be held every night until the team leaves Friday morning. Last night's practice was taken up mainly with signal and play practice. The boys have a lot of hard work to accomplish this week, but with the 24 boys who turned out last night and the interest shown a great deal can be done.

Advertisement for H. J. Winters, Graduate Optician, 714 Main, Phone 149-W. Text: 'What Your Eyes Need In Glasses'.

NEW TODAY section with various classified ads including 'WANTED—Competent woman for general housework', 'FORCED SALE—Autos, few left', 'FOR SALE—Young Himalaya rabbits', 'FOR RENT—Rooms and garage', 'WANTED—Roemer and boarder', 'FOR SALE OR WILL TRADE—Fort town property', 'WANTED—Housekeeping to do, widower or bachelor', 'FOR SALE—Yellow Iris, 20c per clump', 'Furnished one room cabin', 'LOST—Ladie's Brown Fox neck piece', 'August Pitch, 404 Oak St., is ready to pile wood, clean your yard, and do odd jobs', 'WANTED TO LEARN NURSING', 'Kelp Beds Furnish Good Halibut Fishing', 'DANCE—There will be a dance at the Olene Hall, Oct. 14', 'Lebanon—Construction work on new $1,000 Education building at county fair grounds started.'

Letters from the People

EARL RITCHIE TAKES EXCEPTION TO REPORT OF COMMISSION

Editor, The Herald: I wish to state a few facts concerning the statements in the Evening Herald of October 7, signed by Dr. Stewart, Dr. Johnson and Dr. Lamb.

In my fight with Joe Swindler, I received an injury to my right hand during the second round. I continued to fight three more rounds. The fight was stopped, because I was unable to use my right hand. During the three rounds, I gave a very good account as Swindler's face did testify after the fight, using only my left hand.

The commission physician came up and examined my hand at the ring-side and told me that he would x-ray it the next day, not offering any assistance, even to relieve the pain. After going to my dressing room, I sent one of my seconds for Dr. Stewart to come and see what he could do for my hand, and he said: "Oh, well, we will bandage it up a little tomorrow." So much for the principle of Dr. Stewart.

I then sought the aid of two other physicians. They examined my hand and immediately x-rayed it. They said after the x-ray that there were no bones broken, but here were dislocations of the small bones in the wrig of my right hand.

They then replaced and reduced the dislocated bones and bandaged my hand and wrist. All the examinations, x-ray pictures, statements, and treatments were made by my physician in the presence of Judge Chapman, Larry Walker, Jene Linkenback and Alec Stevens who will verify the above statement. And it must be remembered that the examinations, treatments and statements were made by my physicians, 10 or more hours before the x-ray was taken to which Drs. Stewart, Johnson and Lamb refer.

I also wish to emphatically state that Drs. Stewart, Johnson and Lamb knew that I had secured other physicians and they had said that there were dislocated bones, and they replaced them. Even the layman knows that a dislocated bone after it has been replaced will show nothing abnormal in the x-ray and I told Dr. Stewart so. Well, so much for the fairness and squareness of Drs. Stewart, Johnson and Lamb.

Thanks for the one truthful statement made by the commission, that I have always taken the short end of the purse. And I always fought a clean fight and tried to give the fans the worth of their money and in the last bout I continued the fight with my injured hand until the fight was stopped by my seconds who did not want to see my hand permanently injured.

In regards to Joe Swindler, I want a return match for any purse they may agree, to be split any way, or I will fight him for nothing at all.

All that I ask of the Klamath Falls boxing commission is to be as square in the future as I have been with them in the past.

Yours truly, EARL RITCHIE.

Advertisement for 'He'll Be King' featuring a baby's face. Text: 'Probably this baby doesn't know he'll be a king some day. He's the Prince Michael, son of the crown prince and princess of Rumania.'

Sunset Table Official Time Given by Game Warden to Prevent Arrests

Table with columns for date, sunrise, and sunset times.

RED CROSS PLANS SUB-HEALTH CENTERS

SPOKANE, Wash. Oct. 10.—Establishment of sub-health centers in various grade schools of Spokane, under supervision of the Red Cross health center of this city has been undertaken.

The first of these sub-centers opened recently in the Stevens grade school, with Miss Helen McCrea, Red Cross nurse, in charge as supervisor. Each Tuesday afternoon for an indefinite period the class at the Stevens school will be conducted. The work will deal with infants and children under school age and will be free of charge to all who care to take advantage of it. Infants will be measured, weighed and examined. It is also planned to extend the work offered to classes in home hygiene and care of the sick.

The Red Cross plans to establish four such sub-centers in different local grade schools in co-operation with the Spokane school board.

Read and Weep, Hunters Goddard Gets All Awards

Boy, page Diogenes! Then carve a niche in the hall of fame for the newest prize hunting yarn.

"While E. T. Myers and I were out looking for a place to cut wood near the old Quigley logging camp," relates J. W. Goddard, "we came upon a 12-foot cougar that had killed a deer. It was feasting on the warm flesh of the deer and it snarled menacingly at us.

"I at once caught the cougar's eye and proceeded to hypnotize it. In some strange manner Myers also became hypnotized, but I did not notice this at the time. Seeing the cougar was helpless, I directed Myers to tie its tail to a tree. Myers, under hypnotic influence, failed to get the order correctly and before I could protest had tied the tail around my neck, making it fast with a knot that only a sailor could untie.

"At this juncture I noticed that Myers was hypnotized and I snapped my fingers in his face to bring him to. Unfortunately, however, the cougar as well as Myers came to. Then the excitement started.

"Away went the cougar with myself an unwilling close second, held firmly by the animal's tail around my neck. After running 100 yards the cougar swerved sharply to the right causing me to collide with a large tree stump. The cougar's tail pulled off about four inches from my neck. The terrified cougar continued on toward Aspen lake and was within a mile in nothing when last I saw it."

Goddard paused and raptly eyed felt of his neck.

"And how did you get rid of the tail?" he was asked.

"Oh, yes, I almost forgot that part of it. Well, I pulled and I tugged at that knot for a long time, and so did Myers. Nothing doing. That knot would have won a prize at a sailors' convention. So at length I had to hypnotize Myers again so as could untie the knot."

At the Theatres

Manager White of the Strand theatre, has secured for tonight "Honey-moon Ranch," a western romance adapted for the screen from Tex O'Reilly's great novel of the same name.

The stories of Tex O'Reilly, who wrote the scenario for "Honey-moon Ranch," have been featured in the leading magazines for several years. His book "Roving and Fighting" is a tale of his personal experiences as a soldier of fortune under four flags, was published by the Century Company last year.

"Honey-moon Ranch," is his most ambitious effort. The story is based on the fight waged by the old school cattlemen against the invasion of the barbed wire fence. A young society idler from the east is drawn into the feud against his will, and finds love and a real man's fight awaiting him in the border town of Catamount.

All the romance and adventure of the sweeping plains are reflected in this photoplay. It is a five reel western picture which will thrill the most blasé movie fans and its keynote of chivalry will make a lasting impression on all who see it.

THE LIBERTY

Here at "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "The Sheik," "The Conquering Power" and more recently in "Meran of the Lady Letty," "Rudolph Valentino is featured in "Privious Wives," which picture comes to the Liberty theatre today only.

Valentino, today, enjoys the distinction of being the greatest lover on the screen and though there have been written many pages of praise in exploiting his ability and talent, yet his work in the above mentioned photoplays are much stronger arguments than any word of pen or mouth might attempt to convey.

"Privious Wives" is a picture that bears out, in strictest detail, all that its title might imply. It is a modern society drama, with much emphasis on society and drama.

Large advertisement for Chesterfield Cigarettes. Text: 'Blending by Chesterfield's method (based on our private formula) produces a mild cigarette that is at the same time completely satisfying. No other combination of tobaccos achieves this result. Chesterfield's Turkish-Domestic blend can't be copied.' Includes the Chesterfield logo and 'of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—blended'.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

Tom Takes a Hand In It

BY ALLMAN