World Series As Seen By The Camera

THE FIRST HIT! GROH SINGLES TO LEFT

THE FIRST HIT! In the first inning, with the count two to two, Heine Groh, Giants' third baseman, got the first hit of the series. It was a low single to left. Picture shows Groh rounding first base. In the far background is Bob Meusel, Yankee left fielder, ready to make the throw to first that gave Heine a scramble to get back after he had overrun the bag.

Head On

"Awful accident last night—car turned a corner."

"No reason for an accident, was it?"

"Yeh. There wasn't any corner."

Robert E. Strahorn says a fool always finds a greater fool to admire him.

It takes a dressmaker to indulge in cutting sarcasm, garrles J. E. Hosking.

Just As Desired

"He says that his business is going to the dogs."

"What is his business?"

"He manufactures dog biscuits."

Joe Brett says any young woman of today who doesn't get what she wants will ask for it.

AN INCIDENT

She was pretty—maybe not really pretty, but striking looking. She was a rose colored homespun girl.

With a dainty little flapper hat, gray hose, black patents n'everthing.

Black eyes—the kind that snap and twinkle.

And, oh, yes, a winsome stare.

You, she had noticed him. He was sure of it.

Gee, she is turning back.

She is coming toward him—what task?

He always was a devil with the ladies.

Was she flirting? He half suspected it.

Yep, she was actually flirting.

It wasn't his fault if she admired him.

Sh! She's going to stop. Here she is!

He lifted his hat in answer to her pretty smile.

Where would they go?—the restaurant, the movies?

She's speaking even before he had a chance.

"Pardon me," in the sweetest of tones, "pardon me".

"Please, can you direct me to the Western Union."

I've been looking so long—I promise my husband.

I'd wire him."

Yeh. There wasn't any corner.

Robert E. Strahorn says a fool always finds a greater fool to admire him.

It takes a dressmaker to indulge in cutting sarcasm, garrles J. E. Hosking.

For the semi-finals he has matched Tracy and Spark Plug, who afforded the fans six furious rounds at the recent bouts here. Tracy was given the decision but many believe it should have been called a draw.

Garich says that in Eddie Mayo of San Jose he has found a man to meet Kid Wise of Merrill, the young 118-pound whirlwind who has never had to go over two rounds to get his man. Mayo is said to be about the same weight and build as Wise and to have a similar style.

Ted White says a crank's theory often needs only a rivet or two more to become a valuable discovery.

HERE'S FIRST RUN SCORED IN WORLD'S SERIES OPENING GAME

How the Giants Won the Opening Game of the World Series

Heine Groh hero of the first game of the world series, crossing the plate with the tying run in the great eighth inning rally of the Giants. Captain Bancroft, who has just scored, is standing to the right. Frankie Frisch is sliding into third. Little wonder that Pep Young, the next batter up (left) is jumping with joy. His long fly brought Frisch home with tally that won the game.

ALLEN AND ROSS LOSE AT WEED

Both Local Boxers Have Had Luck; Card to Be Announced Here Soon

In attempting to get the results of the boxing bouts at Weed, The Herald was misinformed in talking to Weid yesterday by telephone. The correct results of the bouts were:

Dummy Poole was awarded the decision over Bob Allen when the referee claimed a foul in the second round.

Witnesses returning from the fight said no foul was apparent and that none was claimed by Poole.

Kid Evans of Colorado was awarded the decision over Bob Ross in the fourth round.

Ross was floored twice in the fourth but was going strong at the end.
