BLOW AIMED AT MASKED ORDERS

Federal Church Council Is Opposed to Methods of Ku Klux Klan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Condemnatory resolutions aimed at masked and secret bodies have been passed by the administrative committee of the federal council of churches. While they mentioned no organization by name, the Rev. Samuel McCrea Cavert, one of the two general secretaries, declared that members of the administrative committee had the Ku Klux Klan in mind in particular.

In making the resolution public Cavert said: "This action was taken as a result of statements made from time to time that the Ku Klux Klan and other masked and secret bodies are acting in behalf of the Protestant churches of the United States. While the Ku Klux Klan is not mentioned by name in the statement, members of the administrative committee had it in mind in particular.

"The motives of the Ku Klux Klan and similar organizations may be of the highest, but members of the administrative committee believe their methods are not only wrong but also dangerous from every standpoint. Action by the committee is significant when it is realized that 39 great communions with more than 20,000,000 members are affiliated with the federal council." The resolution is as follows:

"The administrative committee of the federal council of the churches in America records its strong conviction that the recent rise of organizations whose members are masked, oathbound and unknown, and whose activities have the effect of arousing religious prejudice and racial antipathies, is fraught with grave consequences to the church and to society at large. Any organization whose activities tend to set class against class or race against race is consistent neither with the ideals of the churches nor with true patriotism, however vigorous or sincere may be its professions of religion and Americanism.

Secret Action No Remedy
"Evils of lawlessness and immorality, however serious, can never be remedied by secret, private, and unauthorized action. They must be handled by the state and by the recognized forces of education. For groups of individuals wearing masks and concealing their identity to pass judgment on men and women and to carry out humiliating measures of the town despotism, is subversive of every principle of civilized government, and undermines respect for the established agencies of law and order.

"Any body of men, unidentified and banded together to achieve in a partisan spirit the purposes of a sectional, political, racial or sectarian group, is almost certain to fall into the very evils of mob rule against which the spirit of Christian democracy and Americanism makes vigorous and constant protest. Even if they resort to no unworthy deeds themselves, their practice of carrying on their plans in disguise or under cover of darkness encourages others to do likewise, and so affords the opportunity for all manner of lawlessness to be carried on with impunity from arrest or punishment.

However true it is that in some communities religious organizations seek a control over municipal administration which is undemocratic and highly undesirable, yet for any body of men, secret and oathbound, to undertake to get control is equally intolerable, even if they seek with all sincerity to wrest it from the control of other groups.

"The administrative committee of the federal council of the churches is opposed to an movement which overrides the processes of law and order, and which tends to complicate and make more difficult the work of co-operation between the various political, racial and religious groups in the republic. No such movements have the right to speak in the name of Protestantism, and the churches are urged to exert every influence to check their spread."

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS COUPE

With this coupe Dodge Brothers have proved once for all that a closed car can be as sturdy and practically as inexpensive as an open roadster.

This is largely due to the all-steel body—the first ever marketed—which admits of lower cost of manufacture through standardized machine production. Unlike wood, the steel surface will take a finish of enamel, baked on at high temperature. This process results in a permanent lustre, and eliminates the trouble and expense of repainting.

The wide straight seat is upholstered in genuine Spanish blue leather, durable and readily cleaned.
