PERKINS' FURNITURE HOUSE

"THE FURNISHER OF HAPPY HOMES"

THE LIBERTY
D. W. Griffith's newest photoplay sensation, "Orphans of the Storm" adapted from the stage classic made famous by Kate Claxton, "The Two Orphans," will be seen for the first time under a United Artists Corporation release in this city at the Liberty theatre today.
The production represents months of preparation and a most careful study of the period depicted, the time of the French revolution. The basis of the story is the famous old play, but Mr. Griffith has woven into it a historical romance with the thrills of some of the maddest days of the revolution. The heroine is seen at its deadly work and there are tremendous crowds of frantic men and women fighting wildly against the aristocrat in the hope of freedom.

In the role of Henriette is Lillian Gish, whose work in former Griffith productions has placed her at the forefront of screen artists. Dorothy Gish has the role of the blind girl, Louise, the other orphan. Then there is Joseph Schildkraut, said to be the handsomest actor in all Europe, and who made such a sensational success in the leading role of "Lillom," in New York. He is seen as the romantic lover of Henriette, the chevalier de Vaudrey, Monte Blue, known to all the patrons of the screen, has the role of Danton. Sidney Herbert another artist, of high repute and achievement, is Robertstern.

THE STRAND
If you enjoy riding and fighting you should see "The Daughter of Devil Dan" at The Strand tonight. It is a story of the Kentucky hills with all bloody feuds that goes with that section. There is romance too which has warmth enough to please the most exacting of us.
All the charge that will be made tonight is ten cents to everybody. You cannot stay at home as cheaply as that. The first show starts at 6:15 and continues during the entire evening giving three shows.

The popular vaudeville may be will be shown tonight and there will be a comedy.
Manager White expresses regret that "A Gamble of Souls," which he advertised cannot be shown. For some reason the film did not come, but he believes the picture tonight will be even more pleasing to the crowd which is sure to pack the house.
