MANY GERMANS ARE STUDYING RUSSIAN

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—Germans believe that to participate effectively in the future of Russia one must know its language, history and literature. A recent canvass of 19 seats of learning in Germany showed that 374 of their students are tackling the Russian tongue. Twenty-six of them are women. More than a fourth of the total are studying Russian philology. The city of Breslau reported forty-three students of Russian at the Eastern European Institute, thirty-nine at University of Breslau, and ten at the city's technical school. Of the other institutions canvassed, Freiburg university reported 30, Hamburg 28, Dresden 26, Cologne

Table with columns: Description, Amount. Rows include Indebtedness (Bonded and interest thereon), Transportation of Teachers, Insurance, Miscellaneous (Telephone and Telegraph, Freight, Drayage and Express), and Emergency.

Total estimated amount of money for all purposes during the year $ 98,000.00. (The above form of estimated expenditures may be clipped from this blank by the budget committee and after being made out by said committee may be certified to as correct on the margin and filed with the district clerk.)

RECAPITULATION Total estimated expenses for the year $ 98,000.00. Total estimated receipts, not including proposed tax $ 30,900.00. Balance, amount to be raised by district tax $ 67,100.00. Dated this 19th day of October, 1922.

P. L. FOUNTAIN, Chairman Board of Directors. Attest: IDA B. MOMYER, District Clerk.

GERMANS LEAVING COUNTRY IN EVER GROWING NUMBERS

HAMBURG, Oct. 23.—'Wanderlust' is again stirring noticeably in the German breast. During the first half of 1922 there was an increase of 48 per cent over the same period last year in the number of nationals setting out for new residences in foreign lands.

Prussia led the individual contributing sources with a total of 5,666, of whom 966 were from Hanover, 913 from Berlin, 832 from the Rhineland, and 112 from Upper Silesia.

Hamburg continues the most favored point of exit, with Bremen second. Of 149 who sailed from Amsterdam up to July, 92 were bound for South American and 47 for New Orleans, Mexico, and Cuba.

Prussia led the individual contributing sources with a total of 5,666, of whom 966 were from Hanover, 913 from Berlin, 832 from the Rhineland, and 112 from Upper Silesia.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—American agriculture has successfully withstood the strain of readjustment from war-time conditions.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—American agriculture has successfully withstood the strain of readjustment from war-time conditions, if attendance and exhibits at state fairs are any indication.

'Wherever I went' said Mr. Helde, 'I was impressed with the high standard of the live stock displayed and with the enthusiasm evinced for better agriculture.'

When the winning animals at these sectional fairs are brought together at Chicago during the first week in December for final adjudication the indication that international records will be broken.

The Rush She: 'I wouldn't marry you if you were the only man in the world.' He: 'Of course you wouldn't; you'd get killed in the rush!'

CANTELOUPE COGS 100,000 RUBLES EACH IN RUSSIA

PAWLOGRAD, Oct. 23.—This southern Russian city grows large quantities of watermelon and cantaloupe. Locally they cost 100,000 to 200,000 paper rubles each.
