MY PERFUMED LOVE In a little Eastern village. Ou a drear October night, A livery stable keeper met a maid Whose troth he'd plight; Now, he was tall and hands Is my thinking way, And she Oh, my! was quite a queen

She was so slim, yet gay. The livery stable keeper. As he asked her for her hand Attempted to embrace her But for this she would not stand Oh, why upon this manly breast-Will you not lay your head? She looked into his placid face.

"My love works in a green house And there always is a smell Of violets and geraniums Upon his coat lapel;" Now mind. I do not blame you, Nor do I make complaint:

But a green house has a fragrance

That a livery stable aint.

And this is what she said.

Federal Reserve Report Indicates Healthy Tendency in All Lines

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27 .ductive activity has increased notably during the past six months in all the major industries in the 12th federal reserve district, according to a report issued here today by John Perrin, federal reserve agent. There has been only a slight increase in the use of bank credit for commercial purposes, however. Mr. Perrin said.

"Total loans and discounts of reporting member banks in the larger cities have increased but $55.18 .-000 or 6.7 per cent since Feb. 1. when the low point of the year. $818,102,000, was reached. Rediscounts of these banks with the federal reserve bank on October 9 were near the lowest levels of the year. Recently their holdings on investments have declined slightly. The county banks, as a group, have borrowed only in small amounts during the current crop moving season. On Oct. 11 the total discounts of the federal reserve bank had declined to $34,573,000, the smallest figure since member banks began to reduce their borrowings in December, 1920

"Interest rates in the principal banking centers were generally unchanged during the month. An exception was the rate on 30 to 90 day paper of customers in Sas Francisco, which at 5 per cent was lower than at any time during the present period of readjustment. The intérest rate en bankers' acceptances advanced from 3 1-8 per cent on Sept. 15 to 3 3-4 per cent on Oct.

"Industry has been hindered recently in some sections by inadequate transportation service and in others by a shortage of labor. The lumber industry in particular has been inconvenienced. Partly as a result thereof production of lumber V. Green: No, but I can hold em which is new approximately 100 per cent normal, has exceeded shipments and orders for four consecu-

Permits issued during September vere greater in both number and value than one year ago. According to the United States bureau of labor index, wholesale prices of building materials are now 16 per cent L above their low point of March, 1923 and 17 per cent above the general |level of wholesale prices.

"Goods continue to be distributed freely at retail and wholesale. The value of sales of 31 department stores was 3.7 per cent greater than ! in September, 1921. In the wholesale trade, nine of the ten lines. reported an increase in the value of their sales compared with one year ago. Dealers in six lines sold! more goods in September than in

Business failures during September, 1922, were less than in the mouth since April, 1922, and were below the figures for September. 1921, in both number and amount of

"After advancing from 13s in January, 1922-the low point-to 155 in July and August, the United States bareau of labor index number of wholesale prices declined two points during September. Prices of the principal products of the district changed little during the month.

"An average crop of wheat, amounting to 96 659,000 bushels. has been harvested in the district. The movement to market was more rapid during September, but is still retarded by a shortage of freight ears and the reported hope of many farmers that better prices will prevail in future months. Threshing returns indicate that the California harley crop totaled 41,654,000 bushels, the largest yield since 1914. The large potato crop of the district has thus far beed marketed with difficulty and prices are low. With the exception of apples in the Pacific northwest and grapes in California. the fruit shipping season is practically completed.

"Livestock are being marketed in normal quantities.
