

TO HONOR ROOSEVELT
Heroic Equestrian Statue Will Be Erected at Portland

PORTLAND, Nov. 2.—Theodore Roosevelt, "Rough Rider," is the inscription on a heroic equestrian statue of the former president, to be unveiled here Armistice day with ceremonies in which many thousands of persons are apt to participate.

The statue, by A. Phimister Proctor, was presented to the city of Portland by Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, a life-long friend of Theodore Roosevelt, and it is to be dedicated to the children of America. Approximately 25,000 school children of the city are to take a prominent part in the exercises. The morning program is to be devoted to the children's part of the ceremonies, with a parade, each child dropping a rose, Portland's emblem, at the foot of the statue.

There will be a military parade in the afternoon, with the regular army, the navy, the marines, Oregon National Guard, the Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish-American war veterans, American Legion, Boy Scouts and Sons of the American Revolution represented. Counties of Oregon and other states are to be represented by committees.

Dedicatory ceremonies will be held at the unveiling, and a message from President Warren G. Harding is to be read.

The statue is located in a park square near the heart of the city. The bronze figure stands more than 12 feet in height, placed on a pedestal of granite eight feet high.

The Roosevelt family has taken a keen interest in the work of Proctor, the sculptor, and Mrs. Roosevelt provided him with the clothing and accoutrements, including the salarinas which were worn by Colonel Roosevelt in the battle of San Juan hill. The army selected as a model a soldier of the same stature, girth, height and weight as Colonel Roosevelt at the time he was a rough rider. After a long search for a suitable horse one was found at Palo Alto, owned by a girl student at Stanford University, and upon this horse, dressed as Roosevelt, the soldier posed daily for many months. Members of the Roosevelt family have pronounced their approval of the work of art.

When Is an Alligator A Harmless Animal?

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 2.—When is, and when isn't, an alligator a harmless animal, has been a much mooted question. Those who have undergone the still more or less discussed fictional adventure of the destruction in a big motor's switchable tail, are somewhat divided. There are many folks who still believe a youngster is a playful pet that can be kept in the parlor as a charm for the baby; but one who has had even the smallest bang onto his admirably extended forefinger with the grim persistence of a steel vice, may still be firm in his belief that it's best to leave 'em alone at any age.

The postoffice department, however, has decided that while under 20 inches over-all length, the baby saurian is harmless. So are baby chicks, soft-shelled crabs, blood worms and chamelions.

One may feel confident the blood worm can be fondled with ease and without fear of danger, and still have his doubts also in regard to baby terrapins, but the latter also are classed by the department as harmless.

This classification has been made by the department for the ease of mind of harassed postmasters whose clients have sought to make of their offices near-menageries. The mailability of live "mail matter" is still a hazy question among the general public, and even among postmasters, the department declares, so to clear up the matter, a circular has been prepared to settle the question.

For more than a year live fowls and domestic animals were acceptable for mailing under a ruling which prescribed their handling only when the rambunctious journey was made by motor trucks, but this ruling was rescinded more than a year ago. Another applying to the insurance and C. O. D. privileges of such shipments was not modified, under which regulation a few shipments of live fowls and domestic animals have been accepted by postmasters.

Only small live animals "having no offensive odor and requiring no food or water in transit," such as the ferocious animals mentioned, and their like, may be sent in the

WHAT IS A RADICAL?

A RADICAL IS A MAN WITH ONE IDEA, AND IS ALWAYS DANGEROUS, RIGHT OR WRONG.
IF HIS HOBBY IS LABOR, THE CITY MUST BE RUN FOR A SINGLE CLASS.
IF HIS MANIA TAKES THE FORM OF REGULATION OF THE OPINIONS AND ACTS OF HIS FELLOW MEN, THE CITY MUST BE RUN TO CARRY OUT THAT SINGLE IDEA, AND FOR ANOTHER SINGLE CLASS.
IN EITHER CASE, THE INFLUENCE ON THE BUSINESS INTERESTS OF THE CITY AND ON THE LIVES AND LIBERTIES OF ITS CITIZENS

IS DISASTROUS

CITIES EXIST FOR AND SHOULD BE RUN IN THE INTERESTS OF
ALL OF ITS CITIZENS
WITHOUT REFERENCE TO CREED OR PRIVATE OPINION WITH THE PROTECTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY

FIRST

ENFORCEMENT OF FEDERAL AND STATE LAWS AND CITY ORDINANCES; REASONABLE AMUSEMENTS FOR ALL CLASSES, EACH TO ITS TASTE; PROGRESSIVE IMPROVEMENT OF STREETS, EXTENSION OF WATER MAINS AND FIRE PROTECTION; BETTER SANITATION AND INTELLIGENT ECONOMY IN CITY EXPENDITURES.

THERE MUST BE ATTENTION TO ALL THESE INTERESTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE, NOT THE PROMOTION OF ONE SINGLE IDEA TO THE NEGLECT AND RUIN OF ALL ELSE.

THIS CITY FOR THE PAST TWO YEARS HAS ENJOYED AN UNUSUALLY HONEST, SAFE, EFFICIENT, PROGRESSIVE ADMINISTRATION.
