SEATTLE CITIZEN GAINS THIRTY-FOUR POUNDS

"I gained thirty-four pounds by taking Tanlac, and am feeling fine," declared J. B. Nelsen, the well-known auctioneer, of 614 10th Ave., North, Seattle, Wash.

"When I began on Tanlac, I was in such a bad fix I could hardly pull myself up on the auction block. I could eat scarcely anything and I was literally starving for lack of nourishment. What little I did eat caused gas pains, heart palpitation, shortness of breath and headaches, and after crying off a lot of furniture, I would be completely exhausted. I also had rheumatism so bad it seemed that every bone, muscle and joint in my body hurt.

"Well, sir, I sure 'fell into clover' when I found Tanlac for it made me as sound and healthy as a man could be, and I've kept in great shape ever since. Tanlac certainly is a wonderful medicine."

STATEMENT OF
ARTHUR R. WILSON

Candidate for Mayor of Klamath Falls

If elected Mayor of Klamath Falls I will be guided by the following principles:

I favor strict economy in all city matters, in so far as economy is consistent with progress and improvement. Finances of the city require careful supervision to keep them on a sound financial basis, and this should be the first aim of the city administration.

I favor progressive action towards cleaning the city, both physically and morally, and will work to this end. With due regard to economy, care must be taken to keep the streets and parkings of the city clean and attractive, and encourage beautifying the city by the citizens themselves.

There is no excuse for tolerating boot-leggers or gamblers in our city, and it will be my aim to drive them out and keep them out.

I do not favor closing pool halls or moving picture houses on Sunday. I have made no pre-election pledges nor promises nor even discussed possible appointments to city offices with any one.

I am in favor of progress in all lines, and will endeavor to give the city a business administration.

(Signed) ARTHUR R. WILSON.
