KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1922

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Fifteenth Year.—No. 6150.

WEATHER FORECAST TONIGHT AND TUESDAY, RAIN OR SNOW, SOUTHERLY GALES

CAMPAIGN HERE GROWS WARM AS ELECTION NEARS

Getting off to a mild start could bring the number of candidates in the field, Klamath's political race is drawing to a close today with a real battle on between the majority candidates, and lesser ones between candidates for other offices.

With the withdrawal today of A. J. Lyle, the field narrowed down to four in the majority race, but in political circles it is not considered that Lyle's withdrawal will affect to any great extent the outcome of the election. Without the support of any party or organization, it was believed that Lyle would not have polled more than a handful of votes.

League Behind Wilson Just what the Civic League candidate, Arthur Wilson, will poll is largely a matter of speculation, although his opponents concede that he will get almost the full support of the Civic League and its adherents.

Dr. A. A. Soule has confined his campaign to an attack on Wilson and his supporters, and his strength is also an unknown quantity. Ted White, with the support of the Timberworkers union, appears certain of at least that portion of the labor vote, although in the camps of his opponents it is openly declared that the labor vote is split, and it is said that a large portion of it will go to Wiley.

Wiley's campaign is based on his past record, and is aimed to win the support at this election, as at the last, of the business men and conservative element of the city. Believing his record for a business administration is sufficient proof of his qualifications, the Wiley forces have refrained from making promises.

Two for Treasurer With Miss Ida Momyer and Miss Clara Calkins in the race for city treasurer, the outcome is considered a matter for conjecture. Miss Momyer, who holds the office, is not making any apparent fight.

Miss Lottie Fischer, C. K. Brandenburg and Lem L. Gaghagen are the candidates for police judge. Miss Fischer at present is handling the clerical work of the city. Brandenburg is a patrolman and Gaghagen is justice of the peace.

Councilman Bert Hawkins, J. B. Volmer and J. T. McCollum have opposition, and the re-election of Volmer and McCollum is considered by many to be doubtful. Volmer is opposed by J. H. Covert and Walter Hefter. F. H. Cofer is opposing McCollum. Fred Duke, running against Hawkins, is not considered by the Hawkins forces to have much chance of winning. W. O. Smith and M. S. West are unopposed.

Judge A. L. Leavitt, republican, R. C. Groesbeck, democrat, and Chas. M. O'Neill, independent, are the circuit bench candidates. Fair Bill Unopposed Since the measure providing for a special one-mill tax for a fair site has met with practically no opposition, it is generally considered that it will carry by a large majority.

FOOTBALL VETS OUT Klamath Has-beens Prepare for Game With High School Saturday

Fifteen candidates for the city football team, the "Klamath Has-beens," who will battle the high school eleven on Armistice Day, appeared at Modoc park Saturday for practice, according to H. E. Getz. Among the 15, Getz said, was excellent material for a strong team, and there is every reason to believe that the students will find they have no set-up team when they go up against this squad of gridiron veterans. The Has-beens will hold practice each evening in the basement of the courthouse. Any former football players who would like to try for the team will be welcomed at the nightly practice.

QUESTIONS FAITH

After 59 years of priesthood, Roy Samuel Davis McConnell, former rector of St. Stevens Episcopal church of Philadelphia, has published a book in which he questions fundamentals of Christian belief.

CALIFORNIA WALKS OVER WASHINGTON STATE; SCORE 61-0

Cougars Outplayed by Bears in Every Department; Nebraska Falls Before Syracuse

FOOTBALL RESULTS

California 61, W. S. C. 0. O. A. C. 0, Multnomah 6 Syracuse 9, Nebraska 6 Army 23, Bonaventura 0, Cornell 26, Columbia 0, Yale 29, Brown 0, Northwestern 3, Illinois 6, Princeton 22, Swarthmore 3, Harvard 24, Florida 0, Alabama 8, Penn 7.

BERKELEY, Nov. 6.—Another California football triumph was registered here Saturday when the Golden Bear, angered by the criticism that he had lost his "kick" rose up in anger, chased the Washington State Cougar and sent him scurrying northward on the short end of a 61-0 score, the largest tally the Californians ever have registered against a Pullman team.

The game gave Andy Smith the Bear coach, a chance to give his entire squad a lesson in football for after the first string Californians had rolled up 21 points they were all replaced by substitutes. In all, Californians used 24 men out of its squad of 35. The 25th could not play because he was injured in practice last week.

With the exception of the second quarter when California failed to score, Washington State was out-kicked, outcharged, out-tackled and generally outplayed by the Californians, the visitors getting no closer than 25 yards to the Blue and Gold goal line.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Syracuse university won a hard played game from Nebraska here Saturday 9 to 6. The Grange had a slight edge on Nebraska throughout the game, although both elevens fought every inch of the way. Syracuse put over the winning score late in the fourth period on a series of steady drives through Nebraska's line which carried the ball from the 25 yard line over the goal line. A fumble gave Syracuse its chance and it was a fumble which led to a Nebraska touchdown previously.

SHOTS WIFE, SELF MEDFORD, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Josie Hearns, of Jacksonville, is in a serious condition in a hospital here as a result of having been shot yesterday by her husband, Mel Hearns who shot himself, dying instantly. The couple had been separated for some time.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy registered a steady fall in barometric pressure from noon yesterday unnoon today. Unsettled conditions will prevail for another 12 hours at least. Forecast for next 24 hours: Unsettled; Conditions favorable for rain or snow tonight, with brisk winds. The Tycoos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows: High 44 Low 29

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM VICTORY BY BIG MARGIN

Confidence Expressed by Republicans and Democrats; Campaign Bitter

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—One of Oregon's bitterest political campaigns is closing today with final appeals issued by all factions. Republican State Chairman Tongue in a statement today claimed an 80-20 victory by 20,000 votes. Chairman Smith of the democratic forces is claiming a majority of 20,000 for Pierce. Sharing equal interest in the governorship fight is the fight on the Compulsory Education bill, which would put private primary schools out of business in the state. The religious issue has been strongly injected into the campaign, both over the school bill and through the activities of secret organizations.

LYLE RETRIEVES HAT

Withdraws as Candidate for Mayor; Will Vote for Wilson

Declaring that there are now so many candidates in the field that the successful candidate "might not be the true choice of the people," A. J. Lyle today issued a statement in which he retracted his hat from the ring by withdrawing as a candidate for mayor. He said he would vote for Wilson.

Lyle's statement, addressed to the citizens and voters of Klamath Falls, said in part:

Up to the present moment I have been a candidate for mayor of your city, and I take this opportunity to withdraw from the race as a candidate for that office. I therefore request that you do not vote for me at the election held tomorrow. I do this for the reason that I have considered the situation carefully from all various angles and believe that there are now so many candidates in the field for the office of mayor that the successful candidate might not be the true choice of the people. I am convinced that can best serve Klamath Falls at this time by doing my part in narrowing the list of candidates with the view of permitting at the polls the expression of your actual choice for the highest office in your city.

MARKET REPORT

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—Cattle slow. Hogs 25c to 50c lower, prime light $9.50 to $10.00. Sheep strong. Eggs weak. Butter steady to strong.

GARCIA MISSING WHEN DEMAND TO BE JAILED IS REFUSED

Klamath Man Got in Wrong Pew, But Failed to Follow Directions of Portland Police

PORTLAND, Nov. 7.—When Joe Garcia, of Klamath Falls appeared in Portland to serve 60 days for violation of the law prohibiting liquor from being taken on an Indian reservation, he marched directly to the police station.

Garcia, previously, had been granted a 30 days stay of execution that he might harvest his crops. When he was refused admittance to the city jail Garcia walked eloquent, called down maledictions on the heads of various police officers, and upon being advised to see United States Marshal Hotchkiss, left the building.

He did not show up at the county baillie. A formal and urgent invitation will be tendered him today, according to the marshal's office.

ROAD MEET AT YREKA

Effort Being Made to Settle Question of Outlet

Another effort definitely to settle the location for an outlet to the Pacific highway is being made at Yreka today. Delegations from Weed, Dorris, Macdoel, Dunsmuir and Klamath Falls will be present.

The Klamath delegation, composed of J. H. Martin, John Boyle, J. J. Furber, W. W. McNealy and T. A. Stevenson, representing the chamber of commerce, left here at 5 a. m. today. They will meet the other delegates for a short conference before the entire body goes before the county supervisors at 11 a. m.

County Judge R. H. Hunnell and Commissioner Burrell Short, representing the county, left for Yreka Sunday.

90 MINERS ARE ENTOMBED WHEN BLAST OCCURS

Three Bodies Discovered by First Rescue Party; Little Hope for Others

SPANGLER, Pa., Nov. 6.—A terrific explosion in the Reilly mine of the Reilly Coal company here this morning entombed between 90 and 95 miners. The miners had just gone to work when the explosion occurred without warning, cutting off the men immediately.

The first rescue party to enter the mine reported at noon the finding of three bodies. It was feared that many if not all of the other 91 entombed men were dead.

The rescuers came to the surface after a second trip into the mine, but declined to give any information. A second rescue party immediately went into the workings.

Silent groups of wet-eyed women and children were huddled at the mouth of the shaft, paying no attention to the rain which beat upon them.

RING BATTLE TUESDAY

Evans and Welty in Main Event Promise Fast 10 Rounds

Fight fans tomorrow night will have an opportunity to watch two fighters new to this city, but who come here with reputations for being exceptionally fast men in the 145-pound class. They are Ed Evans of Windsor, Colorado, 145 pounds, and Wildcat Welty of Boise, Idaho, 146 pounds.

In their workouts during the past week, both Evans and Welty have exhibited speed and science, and fans are of the opinion that the two are well matched. They are scheduled to go 10 rounds.

Jack Harmon will appear against Ed Blackburn of Medford, who is also a stranger here. Harmon gave a good exhibition in his previous bout here, although he was not matched with a fighter of his class.

Elmer Hammer of San Jose and Johnny Owens of Portland, 118 pounds, have been imported for the occasion, and both are reputed to be clever milt artists. They will fight four rounds.

The young flyweights, Fitzsimmons and Anderson, will do their usual interesting curtain-raiser.

SLAIN MINISTER

Another tragedy in clerical life took place in Havre, Mont., when Rev. J. L. Christler, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, was shot and killed by Mrs. Margaret Carleton, wife of former District Judge Carleton. Mrs. Carleton killed herself immediately after slaying the rector.

WHAT WILL WOMEN DO? BIG QUESTION; VOTES WILL ANSWER

Feminine Ballot Big Factor in Election; Veteran Politicians Unable to Predict Outcome

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—"What will the women do?" now is the question on the lips of innumerable political candidates and managers, and most of them admit that the answer will not be known until after the votes on November 7 are counted.

The "women's vote" is a big factor in many campaigns, congressional and gubernatorial as well as local in the present campaign, and veteran political leaders, of the male persuasion at least, declare it remains an unknown factor in most cases. In many campaigns the women, it is said, hold the balance of power and the election will swing as the feminine votes fall. "Dry" candidates, for the most part, are relying heavily upon feminine support while in some congested centers the "wets" are claiming a share or majority of the woman vote.

Politicians Up Stump

Women have secured the ballot generally so recently that the male politician, according to information here, have not yet "gotten a line" accurately on feminine action at the polls. Women's organizations have been built up within both republican and democratic parties and also the socialist and prohibition, but these organizations have not yet begun functioning, it is said, with the accuracy of the male element. Women speakers are numerous, women voters have been polled carefully indexed and otherwise corralled on paper, but astute politicians declare that it still remains impossible to forecast the "swing" of the feminine voters to any point of accuracy. Even the number of women voters on November 7 is uncertain, despite registration requirements. Heavy primary voting, it is declared, does not insure a 100 per cent vote of women on election day.

1920 Vote Largest

Women cast their largest vote in the 1920 presidential election, after ratification of the suffrage amendment, but future feminine voting is expected to be much larger. The total popular vote cast in 1920 was about 26,600,000 as compared with 18,528,000 four years before. While politicians do not believe that the total increase was due to woman suffrage they are sure that a large proportion of the new millions of electors was of the feminine sex, previous presidential years showing but comparatively small increases. The politicians doubt, however that the feminine interest in the congressional bi-election will be as large as two years ago.

C. H. KESTER PASSES

Charles Hamilton Kester, 56, resident of Klamath county for 36 years, died of blood poisoning at his home in Poe valley at 10 p. m. Saturday. Funeral services were held this noon and burial was at Poe valley cemetery. Kester is survived by his wife, two daughters and a son.

SHIP OF STATE WILL HAVE NEW HANDS AT HELM

Election Will Bring Shake-up in Control of Legislative Affairs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Regardless of the election results, there will be a new deal in legislative affairs in the next congress.

New hands, to a large extent, in both senate and house will handle the wheel if the republicans win, and of course, there will be a complete turnover should the democrats gain control.

New officers and committee chairman in both senate and house for the next congress already have been seriously and widely discussed, privately generally but publicly to some extent; while voluntary and involuntary retirement of some present leaders insures a shake-up in management of the 68th congress. In addition there are prospects of increased "insurgency," largely confined now to the senate, which if it is to make substantial headway, according to veteran politicians, must develop during the next congress or be too late for the 1924 presidential campaign.

House Changes Certain

Principal changes in management of the next congress naturally will occur in the house, from which Representative Mondell of Wyoming, republican leader, retires either to become senator or return to private life, while Representative Fordney of Michigan, chairman of the powerful ways and means committee, is not a candidate for re-election. Representative Volstead of Massachusetts, chairman of the judiciary committee, also is up against strong opposition for re-election.

In event of continued republican control of the house Representative Longworth of Ohio, Madden of Illinois, Mann of Illinois, and Burton of Ohio, are being mentioned as possible candidates for the republican floor leadership. There also has been some talk of bringing forth another republican candidate for speaker against Representative Gillett of Massachusetts, but sentiment generally now is against the possibility of change in the speakership on the part of the republicans. Representative Garrett of Tennessee, democrat, it is generally believed, would be in line for the speakership nomination should the democrats win the next house, with Representative Garner of Texas and others being discussed for floor leader.

New Rules Chairman

Defeat of Representative Campbell, republican, Kansas, chairman of the house rules committee, is the primary also calls for a new chairman for this powerful committee and there also will be several vacancies on the important appropriations committee.

In the senate, while Vice-President Coolidge will continue "on the throne" for the next two years at least, a new president pro tempore, a new whip and several chairmen of important committees are expected in the next congress under continued republican rule and certainly if the democrats should regain control. Senator Cummins of Iowa, now president pro tempore, according to his friends, is expected to relinquish the duties of presiding officer when the new congress is reorganized. Senators Curtis of Kansas, Jones of Washington, and others have been mentioned as successors in event of continued republican majority. Senator Curtis also, according to his friends, is desirous of relinquishing the duties of whip, with the prospects of a new senator securing this appointment.

McCumber Retired

A primary defeat retires Senator McCumber of North Dakota, chairman of the finance committee, with Senator Smoot of Utah in line as his successor, while Senator Page of Vermont, chairman of the naval affairs committee, is not a candidate for re-election and Senator Poindexter of Washington, if re-elected Nov. 7, stands first on the list for the committee chairmanship.

There has been some discussion of changes in the senate floor leadership of both parties in the next congress.
