

TIPPED BEAM AT ONLY 75 POUNDS; NOW WEIGHS 110

"I was almost helpless and weighed only seventy-five pounds when I started taking Tanlac, but today I am well and strong and weigh exactly one hundred and ten pounds," declared Mrs. R. P. Ryan, of 4223 Fifth Ave., S. W. Seattle, Wash., wife of a well-known real estate dealer.

"For eight years I had stomach trouble, and the past two years my life has been simply miserable. I scarcely ate enough to keep alive and finally got so weak that for days at a time I had to stay in bed or in my Morris chair, and I was growing worse day by day.

"My husband spent nothing to get the best of attention for me but I was utterly disappointed when he finally prevailed upon me to try Tanlac. It is almost unbelievable, but today, after taking only four bottles of the medicine, I am a well and happy woman in every way. I will bless Tanlac as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold by all good drug lists.—Adv.

STATEMENT OF ARTHUR R. WILSON

Candidate for Mayor of Klamath Falls

If elected Mayor of Klamath Falls I will be guided by the following principles:

I favor strict economy in all city matters, in so far as economy is consistent with progress and improvement. Finance of the city require careful supervision to keep them on a sound financial basis, and this should be the first aim of the city administration.

I favor progressive action towards cleaning the city, both physically and morally, and will work to this end. With due regard to economy, care must be taken to keep the streets and public places of the city clean and attractive, and encourage beautifying the city by the citizens themselves.

There is no excuse for tolerating bootleggers or gamblers in our city, and it will be my aim to drive them out and keep them out.

I do not favor closing pool hall or moving picture houses on Sunday. I have made no proposition for prohibition nor even discussed possible appointments to city offices with any one.

I am in favor of progress in all lines, and will endeavor to give the city a business administration.

(Signed) ARTHUR R. WILSON, Adv.—116

THE TROUBLE

"What's the matter with Rhonda, these days?" asked Louie of the ragged fire restaurant. "She looks like gray had got her."

"Ah, Rhonda's sweet on her 27-year-old beau of the same establishment, and how the darn bound has degenerated."

Common Garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients in a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of mess.

The Doctor's Orders

She was the sort of a woman who always tells everybody her family troubles. With a cheery smile she settled herself at the counter and began: "My husband has been very ill—very ill—so I have to do his shopping; and I want a coat."

"Certainly, madam," said Will Copp courteously. "Stuff that and cuffs?"

"Oh, no!" she exclaimed in horrified tones. "The doctor says he must avoid anything with starch in it."
