MOVIES

THE STRAND

The main attraction tonight at the Strand is the vaudeville with Dorothy Darling and the two over-age boys. Miss Darling is exceptional in her singing and the two younger boys give some novelty musical acts that always please.

The vaudeville is added to the regular program which includes Hair Trigger Casey, a story of the western plains and is full of exciting and amusing scenes.

Frank Borzage, whom you will all remember for his direction of "Hallelujah" directed this production. He and Ann Little are featured, supported by Jack Richardson, William Stewart, Charles Newell, Chick Morrison, George Clark and Harry McCall.

The story is that of a young westerner who leads a fight against an unscrupulous band of cattle rustlers. The fight and thrilling capture of the rustlers when the action along to a swiftness which the picture is a happy affair.

THE LIBERTY

A picture which leads with the force of a Dempsey knockout, laughs and vaudeville and no end of delightful thrills make "The First Woman" starring Mildred Harris, one of the most popular comedy-dramatic hits of recent months. It will be shown at the Liberty theatre today.

"The First Woman" ends with a regular Henry Field. It opens with a surprise, as usually the season narrative has developed, it recalls for example, such well wrought plays of the stage as "Seven Years' Titch" and "The Rat" and others of that class, in which the solution of the mystery is not divulged until the final scene.

"The First Woman" in which Mildred Harris repeats the brilliant success she achieved in "Paula Paradise," has to do with the experience of a young woman of the stage in her efforts to convince a noted playwright that she really could not.

PINE TREE

Richard Barthelmess, star of "Tollable David," pronounced one of the three best pictures of the present season, will be the feature at the Pine tree theatre Friday and Saturday in "Sonny." This is the adaptation of the stage play by George Robert which ran so successfully on Broadway last fall and which was declared one of the most human stories ever dramatized.

Pauline Caren, who created the leading feminine role in the stage play, retains her part in the screen production by virtue of her excellent acting. Patterson Dial, who had an important part in Barthelmess' "The Seventh Day," has the role of a Red Cross worker, while the remainder of the cast includes Margaret Seddon, Lucy Fox, Herbert Grimwood, Fred Nichols, James Torrell, Margaret Elizabeth Patterson and Virginia Moore.

Henry King, who directed the two previous independent Dick Barthelmess pictures, wielded the megaphone for "Sonny" and the complete liaison between star and director promises, in this instance as in the two previous releases, a perfect picture.

The story centers about the complications ensuing when Joe Peters, Hoboken poolroom proprietor, returns from the war to find himself taken for Sonny Crosby, who was killed in France. Sonny happened to be the last word in money and blood. Joe wouldn't have taken the job for anything, but—there was Sonny's blind mother looking for the return of her boy.

Simple characterization and in unadorned human angles are the outstanding features of a story of unusual dramatic interest.

For the first time in his career as a screen actor, Richard Barthelmess appears in a dual role in "Sonny," his next picture for First National. One character is a blue-blooded aristocrat and the other a Hoboken poolroom proprietor.

Last chance, W. H. Morgan, piano tuner, at Ellisons. A few more days only.

Today At The Liberty

All wrong again—We thought Eve was

"The First Woman"

but now learn that it is our mistake. But seriously speaking when you see Mildred Harris in this one you'll agree that "The First Woman" is some show. There will be an excellent comedy, of course, and in addition a fine scenic subject will be shown.

AND DON'T FORGET FRIDAY

We are going to have the funniest picture you ever saw. It's "The Galloping Man," and the boy with the big goggles—Harold Lloyd—will take you through four reels of laughter that will do your old heart good. In fact we think it will be more fun than the election. Anyhow, most of our audience, you, and The Liberty wishes every winner the best luck in the world, and we'll help them out if ever, too.—H. W. P.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

For every mother's son—For every son's mother—Richard Barthelmess has made another drama that equals "Tollable David" in poignancy.

Here's Sonny—the pool-room boy who tried to steal mother-love—and who found himself worshipping the girl who thought she was just his sister.

AUTO BRIGADE OF TOURISTS BEAT IT FOR FLORIDA NOW

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 9.—Somebody in Maine or Minnesota discovered a few years ago that he could load his family into the family flyover and drive to Florida for the winter at an expense about equal to the railroad fare for one person.

Now motor cars, from the quiet running sedan to the rattling, long-legged flyover with frying pan, lanterns, coffee pots, buckets and other utensils attached all over them from radiators to spare tire racks, descend upon Florida in droves, bearing the vanguard of the thousands of tourists who make the peninsula in the fall from all parts of the Union.

The movement is not expected to be in full swing before the middle of November, but for weeks they have been trickling through the gateways, and by October 15th it was estimated that during the daylight hours one tourist car was crossing the border over the three main highways every fifteen minutes. Some of the vehicles include contraptions never before seen on four wheels. One favored by many of the travelers is a chassis with a car-room house upon it, with everything from stationary washbasin to rocking chairs.

The flyover with camping equipment suspended from every possible part of the car to which a bit of wire or cord can be attached, is the most common long distance traveler. A "hay burner" lantern, one of the variety usually seen about farm houses, may be attached to the radiator cap. Under the car may be swinging two or three water buckets, each filled with cooking utensils or other articles. A frying pan may be attached to a door handle and the running boards usually are weighted down with baggage, and the inevitable small tent that may be erected within a few minutes when the tourist finds a likely place to stop for the night.

Every city and town in Florida along the motor routes within the last few years has established a camp site, and in the case of those on the outskirts of the larger places are equipped with electric lights, water mains and sewerage. Every camp is now under the supervision of the state board of health, and one sanitary engineer devotes his entire time during the winter to the inspection of them.

Mrs. Adela Elmer Montford, prominent in New York society, played the title role in "Who Got Spanked?" according to her husband, Frederick B. Montford. Her husband, former St. Paul banker, admitted in newspaper papers, that he spanked his bride in a hotel in Naples.
