OLCOTT ISSUES THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

People of Oregon Asked to Set Aside Ill-Timed Ran- cor and Factionalism

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 17.—That Thanksgiving day may be a period of peace and forgiveness on which the people of Oregon may set aside forever ill-timed rancor, and that the people may remember that the true spirit of America gushes from a spring deeper than the superficial flow of factionalism or shallow feud, is the sentiment embodied in the Thanksgiving proclamation of Governor Ben W. Olcott, made public yesterday. The proclamation follows:

In accordance with annual custom and following the suggestion of the president of the United States, Oregon again will lay aside her busy cares for a day, to render thanks for the munificent bestowed by an omniscient Creator.

For all of those blessings; for our prosperity; for our resources; for our rugged and our bewitching scenery; for brave and true hearts in men and women, freely may we pour our full mete of thanks, as God has been bountiful, indeed.

But may we also ask that this be a day of peace and forgiveness. That it may be a day on which the people set aside forever any ill-timed rancor, if such may exist. That the people of the state may remember above all that all are brothers and sisters, fellow Americans. That they may remember the true spirit of America gushes from a spring deeper than the superficial flow of factionalism or shallow feud.

May it be a day of thanksgiving on which we may all raise our voices in unison, remembering the time honored injunction that we read the same Bible and worship the same God.

Hours of tribulation and trial are sure to fall upon a people torn asunder by strife and dissension. Our democracy was crafted in the belief and nurtured in the thought that all men are created equal and given the inalienable right to worship God as their own conscience might dictate. Every nation that has strayed from that doctrine has been split on the rock of destruction or has tolled its weary way through centuries of blood, travail and tears.

We are at the cross roads. To the right stands an America, imperishable upon the rock of eternal truth. To the left lies an America bleeding, torn by strife and dissension. May the God of our fathers preserve us from pursuing the left hand turning, the seal of the state of Oregon to be hereunto affixed. Done at the Capitol at Salem, Ore., this 14th day of November, 1922.

BEN W. OLCOTT, Governor.

WESTERN NIGHTS OPEN WITH BANG; BIG PLAY TONIGHT

Everything From Sacks of Flour to Cards of Wood to Be Given
Away at Elks' Temple

Western Nights opened with a bang at Elks' temple last night.

The whirl of roulette wheels, the click of chips and the flutter of cards in the hands of the dealers filled the air during the whole evening. Visitors came to look on and remained to play, and not a few departed with well-filled pockets.

"Me for the days of '49," laughed one, as he carried off an expensive auto robe won in a single whirl of a wheel.

Tonight Big Night

Tonight is the big night, say the Elks. Big play will be on. Everything from sacks of flour to cords of wood will be given away. An extra bartender will be on hand. The sky will be the limit.

Wear your Stetsons, advises the committee. But don't come "heeled." Any person shooting out the lights will be summarily ejected from the hall.

The show will end Saturday night. The bar-keep will polish off the bar, the roulette wheels will be packed away, and Western Nights will be over. Then the committee will check up the proceeds to determine just how many needy families can be aided during the winter months.

SINNOTT GOES EAST

Congressman Will Be on Hand for
Opening of Special Session

THE DALLAS, Nov. 17.—N. J. Sinnott, representative from the second Oregon congressional district, has left for Washington to be on hand for the opening of the special session of congress which will convene November 20 in answer to the call of the president.

Borah's declaration to filibuster on the ship subsidy bill and any attempt on the part of newly elected congressmen to pester the administration may result in a protracted congressional year, but Sinnott expects normal conditions will soon be reached and that the national body will be able to enjoy a long summer vacation, for the first time since before the war.

It was the opinion of Sinnott that the special session would be devoted to the ship subsidy bill and matters of the budget for next year.

HELD FOR ACCIDENT

Verdict of Guilty Returned Against
Dick Williams

Dick Williams was given a jury trial in the justice court this morning on the charge of failing to stop and render aid in a motor accident. A verdict of guilty was rendered at noon today and sentence was postponed by Justice Gaghagen until 4:30 this afternoon.

Williams was arrested by Traffic Officer MacLaughlin as a result of an accident which occurred election night at the corner of Sixth and Main streets. Williams, who was driving the Kirk automobile stage, started away from the curb without a signal and hit Clayton Kirk's car, damaging it to some extent. Without stopping to render aid, Williams drove away followed by MacLaughlin. Due to the officer being on foot the first part of the chase, Williams was able to get away and later wrecked the car he was driving when he hit a post on the bridge crossing the canal off Esplanade.

The jury was composed of Harry Goeller, L. A. Brannon, Percy Evans, Frank Bryant and E. H. Thomas. W. Woods was excused because of illness and the attorneys agreed to try the case before only five jurors.
