

SOCIETY AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Clara Calkins, the newly-elected city treasurer, was hostess last Saturday evening to a small group of her friends at a dinner and theatre party. The dinner was served at Tin Hing Guey's and covers were laid for five: Misses Alice Thurston, Ruby Fenwick, Loretta Jennings, Maybelle Leavitt and the hostess. Yellow chrysanthemums were given as favors to each guest, who had at some time attended the University of Oregon and wore the flower in honor of the homecoming game which had been played that afternoon at Eugene, Oregon.

A delightful surprise was tendered Miss Vera Morgan in the form of a china shower last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Phelps. Her coming wedding on Sunday was the inspiration for the event. A complete set of dishes was received by Miss Morgan from her many friends who gathered to wish her happiness. Games and music were enjoyed throughout the evening at the close of which refreshments were served. The following guests were present: Misses Josephine Upp, Vera Woods, Katherine Upp, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson, Mrs. Ed. Dunham, Mrs. Wintonham, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Sunday morning Miss Vera Morgan became the bride of William Melhase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Melhase, long time residents of Klamath county. Miss Morgan is the sister of Mrs. L. K. Phelps. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock Sunday morning by the Rev. Moore, of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phelps. The bride was attended by Miss Josephine Upp and Dan Melhase acted as best man to the bridegroom. The wedding party entered the room to the strains of Lehengrin wedding march played by Miss Katherine Upp. Mrs. J. Lindesty and R. E. Patterson sang a duet, "O Promise Me." The bride was attired in a blue tailored suit trimmed in squirrel fur and wore a black picture hat of velvet trimmed in grey. After a brief honeymoon trip to San Francisco the newly-married couple will return to Klamath Falls and will be at home to their friends in the Burke Mason home on Crescent avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nelson and Miss Charlotte Huntley entertained Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Ligeance and Geo. Taek of the Thurlow Ligeance company. Each guest entertained with a number from his particular program. The other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, and Norman Pierce, of the Pierce-Dixon Trio; Sam Grathwell, lecturer, all Ellison-White artists and Corwin Foster. cooking and serving. After dinner an interesting program was given in which a short skit entitled "The Family Album" was a feature. A duet by Mrs. Fred Cofer and Miss Marie Oberchain was enjoyed by the audience and the committee in charge of the program was particularly fortunate in being able to have Miss Claudia Spink number among their entertainers. She sang two numbers and was accompanied on the piano by Miss Oberchain. R. E. Patterson and Miss Clara Calkins favored the party with a vocal duet.

Friends of Mrs. Louise Voge and people interested in musical advancement will be interested in a note which appeared in a recent San Francisco musical journal: "Mrs. Louise Voge, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, an artist pupil of Giacomo Minkowski, is completing a course of study in singing and teaching. Mrs. Voge has a very fine dramatic soprano voice and is exceedingly musical, her teacher being enthusiastic over her work." Mrs. Voge is now in Klamath Falls resting and visiting with friends and relatives, after completing her course of study with Minkowski. She has received her diploma from him as a fully qualified instructor in voice culture.

In the music world, particularly in the east and in Europe, Giacomo Minkowski ranks with the foremost instructors of his day, being himself a pupil of Verdi, and other masters, and closely associated with Lampert, the great voice instructor and with Godowski, famous pianist. This is the sixth season Minkowski has taught on the coast and he expects to return shortly to Florence, by way of New York, to resume his former classes. Mrs. Voge has received the very flattering offer to take his studio and class in San Francisco after his departure. With the intention of accepting this offer Mrs. Voge will leave here for San Francisco about December 1.

The material too counts a lot in the scheme of things. It should be of chinilla cloth, cheviot, heather mixture or a new brown worsted.
