Olaf Bought Trolley Car

Trimmed by City Slicker

RECAURCUR, N. J., Nov. 22.—When a trolley car of the public service corporation passed through here on its way from Passaic to Hoboken today, a tow-haired six-footer swung aboard and casually informed the conductor:

"You can turn over the fares to me. I just bought this car."

After a short but decisive argument the passenger arose from the mud beside the track and sought the police. He said he was Olaf Jansen, a recent arrival from Sweden. He carried his savings with him, he said so he was able to pay cash when a prosperous looking stranger who sat beside him on the same car, offered to sell it to him for $100.

The stranger told Jansen he had cleaned up $200,000 on the eight-cent fare basis. They got off here to complete the deal. The stranger then disappeared, after directing Jansen to board the car on its return trip and just tell the conductor he was the new owner.
