$20,000,000 IS RED CROSS NEED

Sum Will Be Divided Between National Organization and Chapters

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Twenty million dollars is the estimate of the American Red Cross for this fiscal year. Officers said this would be divided between the national organization and the active chapters on approximately an equal basis.

Budget allotments of the national organization for domestic operations aggregate $6,335,795, or $488,015 less than similar expenditures for last year, while the allotment for foreign operations will be $2,404,077, about $2,247,959 less than the year before. It was stated that the reduction in the cost of domestic operations represented a saving in overhead expenses and decreased personnel through the combining of divisional units. The foreign operations, with the exception of the Junior Red Cross, practically were terminated last July.

Relief work for disabled former service men and their dependents remains the main obligation which the Red Cross is meeting in funds and service. Approximately $1,000,000 of the domestic budgets is set apart for soldier service, this representing an increase of $366,000 over last year.

Other outstanding domestic items in the 1922-1923 budget, are: for disaster relief, $750,000; for emergency in chapter work, $500,000; for service and assistance to chapters and their branches, $1,293,000; for assistance to other organizations educational institutions that train Red Cross nurses and workers, $200,000; roll call assistance furnished to chapters, $190,000; for unforeseen contingencies, $190,000.

Less than $500,000 is set aside for management of the national organization. The ratio of management expenses to the total expenditures last year was placed at 5.2-10 per cent, officers said the ratio this year probably would fall below 5 per cent.

The child health program in Europe and medical and hospital supplies for Russia represent more than two-thirds of the entire foreign allotment. The child health program will get $641,314, but this is the balance of funds contributed to the American Red Cross specifically for this purpose. The $1,534,044 for Russian supplies is the balance of funds made available by the Red Cross for medical and hospital relief in the famine stricken areas of that country, and this money is expended under the direction of the American Relief administration.

"The Red Cross must depend chiefly upon its volunteer membership for financial support and service," said the budget announcement. "In its appeal for the maintenance of strength through a full enrollment during the annual Roll Call campaign, from Armistice day to Thanksgiving, the American Red Cross presents in its annual financial statement its evidence of unlimited work in the service of all mankind at the lowest cost commensurate with adequate standards."

MRS. PHEBE HAMMER PASSES ON AFTER A BRIEF ILLNESS

Mrs. Phoebe Hammer, well known here, recently passed away at her home in Portland after a brief illness, according to word received here.

Mrs. Hammer had lived here several years and had a host of friends in the county. She was a recommended minister in the Friends church for 25 years and her life was devoted to serving others. She is survived by her husband and four children: Margaret, Laura and Jesse Hammer of Portland, and Mrs. Burt Marsh of this city. Mrs. Marsh was formerly Mrs. Eakelson.

Mrs. Hammer was an aunt of Herbert Hoover.

AT THE THEATRES

THE STRAND

"Married People," the Hugo Ballin-Hodkinson production which comes to the Strand theatre Sunday was written by a little Chicago stenographer, Nell Marie Dace, who submitted the story under the title of "Things Divine." During the course of production several suggestions were made for a new title, as it was not thought that "Things Divine" suited the story.

One day Mr. Ballin suddenly stopped work and said that he had decided on a title. "What is it?" everyone eagerly asked.

"Married People," said Mr. Ballin. "It's a good title."

Now Mr. Ballin's friends are wondering if he was taking a facetious fling at the conjugal state in thus converting "Things Divine" into "Married People." Some say yes and others say no, but in making your own decision remember that Mabel Ballin, who plays the lead in the picture, is Mrs. Hugo Ballin in private life.

PINE TREE

Every newspaper in New York accorded "Sherlock Holmes" the Goldwyn super-feature starring John Barrymore, the highest praise when it was given a pre-release showing at the world's largest theatre, the Capitol, and broke all records for a week's engagement at that house, following it with a three months' run at B. S. Moss' Casino theatre in the heart of New York's theatrical district. It then moved to the Broadway Theatre for an additional week on Broadway.

The "Daily News," always a frank critic of motion pictures, gave the following summary: "Direction—Superfine; Photography—Very Good; Value—100 per cent." The review accompanying this summary enlarges upon the merits of the picture as follows: "Sherlock Holmes is by far the most thrilling character-in detective fiction. He's always the man who plays the last card, holds the whip hand and that kind of thing. So satisfactory, I think, to be sure your hero is going to come up smiling—and with a pipe in his mouth.

"It was undoubtedly a happy thought making a picture about him, and putting Jack Barrymore in the title role was little short of inspiration. Mr. Barrymore has a light air of infallibility, anyhow.

"The London scenes were taken in London. That's nice isn't it? All the eerie atmosphere of the story has been preserved in toto. No less a person than the ineffable Roland Young plays Watson! That in itself is worth the price of admission."

After commenting on Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's approval of the picture, "The Morning Telegraph" continues: "Thus making it unanimous that 'Sherlock Holmes' is one of the greatest film successes that Barrymore has ever made and a superlatively fine motion picture. Had Conan Doyle himself started out to configure an embodiment in flesh and blood of all the baffling, canny, whimsically ironic and astute characteristics of the greatest detective, he could not have invoked a more fascinating reality than Mr. Barrymore. The latter's impersonation will doubtless seem many things to many people. But each one will wonder with the same breathless amazement how he knew that Watson moved his bureau, and chuckle in the same degree when he tricks Moriarty, behind the curtain, for here is the perfect detective story, camera told."

Other metropolitan critics were equally impressed by the picturization of "Sherlock Holmes" which will be shown at the Pine Tree Sunday and Monday.

THE LIBERTY

Sunday at The Liberty is always made memorable by a good picture and tomorrow there will be shown a most unusual Western feature, "Out of The Dust", starring Russell Simpson, Robert McKim, Dorcas Matthews and little Pat Moore. "Out of The Dust" was inspired by the paintings of America's most famous painter, Frederick Remington, and is a picturesque tale of the great outdoors and of the pioneer days of the Great West. Mr. Poole has been fortunate in securing a number of copies of the most famous of the Remington pictures and a number of these will be given to the patrons of the Liberty on Sunday and Monday. They are now on display in the lobby of the theatre.
