

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

BUSY AGAIN

A busy guy is Henry Huris. He's always picking up the girls. But don't think he's a sporting gink. He just works at the skating rink.

R. T. Cox says the man with the largest mind can make it up the most quickly.

Miss Take: "Your husband has such a lofty, commanding way! Was he ever an officer in the army, a judge, or head soda clerk?" Mrs. Hap: "No! he used to be the stamp clerk in a drug store."

Preparing a Place

A certain Ashland minister who had been asked by his congregation to turn in his resignation selected as his text for his farewell sermon, the following:

"I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also."

A stranger noting the disapproval with which the text was received by members of the congregation, turned an inquiring eye on the man sitting beside him. He received back this answer, delivered in a hoarse whisper:

"He's going to be the chaplain at the state penitentiary."

J. H. Kline suggests a new American song: "Bumper to bumper and hub to hub; the cars are so thick that their fenders rub."

"The only working members of Jude Johnson's family, notes C. E. Hoyt, are Mrs. Johnson and Jude's elder."

Joe the Plodder says a fellow can't push himself forward much by patten' himself on the back.

Able Dohen—Say, I know a very rich girl who wants to get married. Run home, take a good bath, brush yourself up and you can win her. She'll marry you in a jiffy. Jakey Blume (thinking hard)—Ye-es. But suppose after I clean myself up and she won't marry me, den vat? R. A. Moon says making good naves making good excuses.

SWEETHEARTS

Two pals, and true pals, Loving chums together; Two loves, and true loves In any kind of weather For my love is your love, And your love is mine— And young love is wild love When loving hearts entwine.

Two loves, and true loves, Always and forever, Dear hearts, and sweethearts, Which time will never sever; For my heart is your heart, And your heart is mine— And both hearts are glad hearts, With joy of love divine.
