

LET'S ALL GO

Christmas Window Display Opening

THE BEST PRESENTATION YET

Klamath Falls, December 12th, 7:30 P. M.

"Taken by storm, Kris Kingle will sweep over Klamath Falls in his fullest regalia" Tuesday evening, December 12th, at 7:30 P. M. Every merchant in Klamath Falls will be ready to greet Kris and his stay for 13 more days in full attire.

When the curtains go up at 7:30 you will view the most elaborate window display, lighting effects, decorated Christmas trees and merchandise yet on display in Klamath Falls.

Special preparations throughout are being made, Music by the Klamath Falls Band, every light on Main street in full glow, solid columns of giant evergreen trees on each side of the street, dancing at the Scandinavian Hall, Santa in his private car to talk to the kiddies. Big time for all, bring the entire family out.

A Letter from "Santa"

Dear Folks:

Will see you all December 12th, 7:30 P. M. Bring the kiddies out as I want to talk to them and find out what they want for Christmas. Will meet you in my car at 6th. and Main streets about 7.30 P. M.

Honest to Goodness,
SANTA.

P. S. Also have a big sack of candy and noise makers to give away so be sure and be there.

Klamath Falls Band

Headed by Prof. Kramer the band will march from the Elks Temple to the Pelican Hotel to meet Santa then back again rendering various numbers on their way as well as in concert.

Klamath Falls can well be proud of the work Prof. Kramer is doing in re-organizing the band and can best show their appreciation by turning out next Tuesday evening.
