BY JUNIUS

FAREWELL FLAPPER

What do these flappers imitate These twentieth century days? What do they model after With their twentieth century ways? With half socks on, they think That its one of their original whims. Did they not know that all the Trees displayed their own bare limbs?

But let the flapper reign today We're sure thus stuff can't last For the new styles will put 'em out. The flappers of the past.

He Had It Coming

Why is the judge wearing a black eye? "Because he tried to instruct the lady jurors that they were not to talk."

Religious Exercise

Two shipwrecked sailors were on a desert island. They were utterly miserable, pinched with hunger and cold. The one more wretched than the other said to his companion, "Can you pray, Bill?" "No." "Can you sing a hymn?" "No." "Well," said the first, "Let's have something religious; let's have a collection."

Fashions and Beauty

Long skirts are coming back, but until Mabel gets a raise she'll hafta stoop to keep in style. Face masks improve the looks, until yuh take 'em off. Beauty is skinned deep. Grandma will now wash off the henna and get back her becoming gray.

Capt. Calkins says if a man has a hard time keeping his head above water, it is time to get out of the deep water.

O. C. Applegate says you can tell whether you are old or young by whether you believe the golden age is past or just dawning.

Alfred is So very fat Alleen so very lean, So, you see, between them Both They fill a Ford machine.

An officer was showing an old lady over the battleship. "This," said he pointing to an inscribed plate on the deck, "is where our gallant captain fell."

"No wonder," replied the old lady; "I nearly slipped on it myself."

Two Faced Girl, Luke?

It is all right for a girl to believe that the face should be left exposed. The trouble is that she imagines her face runs all the day down to the wishbone.—Luke McLuke.

"One of the features of raising a family," S. E. Icebuck tells the world, "is that in a few years you are sure to have some gangling youth with a face resembling a mousy green apple pie hanging around with smiles for your 15-year-old daughter."

EARL RITCHE TRAINING HARD TO WIN MATCH

By "Ringside"

Earl Ritchie and his manager, J. L. Sweeney, mean business. They are determined to lower the colors of the scrappy Joe Swindler, and if they fail it will not be because they have not trained.

Those who saw Ritchie box at the legion smoker recently agreed that he appears to be in excellent condition. He is. And that condition is the result of faithful training which will continue until he has not an ounce of superfluous flesh in his body. At present he is training nightly at the old Golden Rule store. Sweeney says his charge will be doing 35 rounds daily before December 22, date of the Ritchie-Swindler match. He also says he is going to take Ritchie east to meet the top-notchers.

Kid Herbert, who also appeared at the legion smoker, in a bout with Jack Harmon, looks like a fast lad. He is well muscled, fast on his feet and appears to know the game. Unless all the dope is wrong, he will make Kid Evans step lively when they meet in the semi-final at the Ritchie-Swindler go.

Reed College Varsity To Play W. U. Freshmen

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 12.—Reed College of Portland, which has added rowing to its list of sports, will send its varsity against the University of Washington freshmen in Seattle next spring.

Russell S. Callow, rowing coach at Washington, in proposing the race stated that the university would do all it could to further the "finest and cleanest" of sports at Reed. Sixteen men are out for the Reed crew, working under Coach Richardson who was stroke of the 1920 Washington eight.

Equity No. 1438
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF KLAMATH.
J. WALCH, PLAINTIFF, VS. KLAMATH LIVESTOCK CO., A CORPORATION, SAN FRANCISCO CATTLE LOAN CO., A CORPORATION, MARTHA KERNS, JAMES WALTER KERNS, RUTH KERNS, BEULAH KERNS RAY, SAMUEL E. KERNS, JOHN C. KERNS, BENJAMIN E. KERNS AND AGNES KERNS, DEFENDANTS.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON:
To San Francisco Cattle Loan Company, a corporation, and to Martha Kerens, Ruth Kerens, Beulah Kerens Ray, Samuel E. Kerns and John C. Kerns, defendants herein: You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the amended complaint filed against you and each of you in the above entitled suit on or before Tuesday, the 23rd day of January, 1923, that being the last day of the time prescribed in the Order for Publication of this Summons, and if you fail so to answer or appear, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his amended complaint on file herein, to-wit:

For judgment against the defendant, Klamath Livestock Company for the sum of Eleven Hundred Four ($1104.00) Dollars with interest thereon at six per cent per annum from Dec. 29, 1921 until paid; for the further sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars attorneys fees and for the costs and disbursements of this suit; and further for a decree of this Court foreclosing plaintiff's lien and directing the sale of the premises and real property particularly described in said amended complaint and for the application of the proceeds of such sale to the payment and satisfaction of the above mentioned principal sum, interest, attorney's fees, costs and disbursements of this suit; and that any other existing liens or mortgages upon said property be adjudged by this Court to be subsequent, inferior, and subservient to the lien of plaintiff, and further for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable.

This summons is served by the publication thereof in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper printed and published and of general circulation in Klamath County, Oregon, by order of Honorable A. L. Leavitt, Judge of the above entitled Court, made and entered on the 9th day of December, 1922, which said order required that the summons be published at least once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks beginning on the 13th day of December, 1922.

PINE TREE

Ruby De Remer, declared by Paul Hellen to be "the most beautiful woman in America," and Lewis S. Stone divide the honors in heading the cast in "Pilgrims of the Night," the J. L. Frothingham production which will be shown tonight at the Pine Tree theatre. Miss De Remer has been starred in several productions and Mr. Stone has never shared honors with anyone in a production since the popularity he attained in "The River's End."

The remainder of the cast bristles with the names of well known players. Walter McGrail, Kathleen Kirkham, Raymond Hatton, Frank Leigh and Walter V. Moug are among those listed in prominent parts in the production. The unusual association of so many illustrious players in the same production, it is announced, was made necessary by the fact that E. Phillips Oppenheim in writing "Passers By," the novel upon which "Pilgrims of the Night" is based, created seven characters of almost equal prominence in the story. It is the story of a beautiful girl, brought up as the daughter of a French criminal who makes his living by running a fashionable gambling establishment and heading a gang of bank robbers who have completely baffled the police of Paris.

THE LIBERTY

"Gay and Devilish," a fast-moving comedy brings Doris May again to the Liberty Theatre where her most recent R-C production will be shown tonight. With the flapper craze sweeping the nation Miss May's popularity is soaring to unprecedented heights everywhere. She is the most blithesome flapper of the screen and has won a tremendous following through her popular interpretation of this delightful character. Supporting Miss May in "Gay and Devilish" are Otis Harlan, Cullen Landis, Bull Montana, Jacqueline Logan and other prominent players who keep the fun bubbling from start to finish.

THE STRAND

Tonight there is offered at the Strand an unusual treat for Klamath Falls people. Tonight Metz and Metz, two wonderful vaudeville performers will entertain the audience in singing, dancing, comedy, talking and acrobatic stunts. They are the greatest of their kind that have come to this city for a long time.

This pair of actors, before starting on an independent booking, have been with such vaudeville circuits as the Orpheum, Pantages, Keiths, Interstate and Western. They have also been with the leading circuits of the country.

'BARNSTORMING' PLAN OF O. A. C.

CORVALLIS, Dec. 12—Basketball players of the Oregon Agricultural college here are planning a "barnstorming" tour of California during the Christmas holidays. The men leave Dec. 25 and return January 2.

The tentative schedule calls for games at Marysville, Sacramento, Stockton, Livermore, San Francisco, Oakland and Stanford. Among the teams to be met will be the San Francisco Olympic club, Stanford university, the University of California, St. Mary's college and the University of Santa Clara.

Coach Bob Hager will pilot the expedition and will have eight or nine men on the squad. Among them will be "Mush" Helle, all-coast center last year, and five other veterans, Mose Lyman, Ray McCort, Luke Gill, Lyle Richards and Arthur Ross, guard and captain.

The Aggie's first game in the northwest conference will be played January 12, against Willamette university. The Multnomah club five of Portland plays here January 13.
