

URGES STUDENTS SUPPORT CONCERT

Albert Moorland, president of the student body, in assembly at the high school this morning urged the support of the entire student body for the concert to be given tonight at the Pine Tree theatre to raise money to send the high school quartet with their instructor, Miss Evelyn Applegate, to the state teachers' convention to be held at Portland, December 24, 27, and 28. The high school quartet, consisting of Clifford Hogue, Kenneth Maier, Harry Felix, and Felix Mills gave a few selections and judging from the applause by the students the singers pleased their audience. Miss Applegate also expressed the appreciation of her department for the help of Mrs. Don Zumbalt and Harry Horel, whose pupils will assist in the concert tonight.

Following is the program, which will follow the usual moving pictures:

DE VALERA'S MOTHER PROUD OF HER SON AS HE FACES DEATH

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 14.—The world's proudest and happiest mother is one whose son confronts constant privation, ever-present danger and is in peril of facing a firing squad. She is Mrs. Charles M. Wheelwright, mother of Eamon de Valera, Irish republican leader.

MRS. CHARLES M. WHEELRIGHT AND HER SON, EAMON DE VALERA.

The capture and execution of Eamon de Valera and other republican leaders having been completed, Irish Free state heads today are concentrating on the capture of de Valera, their most important foe. A cablegram any day may bring news of his death. But—

"If my son cannot live for his country and his cause, when what could be more glorious than to die for it?" the mother asks proudly.

Doesn't Worry

"I do not worry about his safety because he is doing right. God will take care of him. But I should worry and even if he had betrayed his trust, if he had chosen a life of luxury.

"What material thing can be gained by sticking to 'his principles' Nothing. And what does he lose? Everything the world holds dear—his position, his fortune, his friends, the companionship of his wife and the seven children he loves. But it's all for the freedom of Ireland.

"To be sure," she admitted, "I should like to know that he always had a comfortable place to sleep at night, that he had enough to eat and warm clothing, but these are material considerations.

Cottage Her Home

Mrs. Wheelwright lives in a small cottage. Though exquisitely neat, her home reveals housework is not her only activity. Flowers, copies of masterpieces and quantities of books bring her tactics.

Mrs. Wheelwright has not seen de Valera since his last visit to this country.

"But he doesn't forget to send me a message whenever he can," she concluded.

JUST SO

"We're getting a lot of printed matter telling us not to waste coal."

"We've got some the advice."
