MAKE BADGES FOR SHERIFF DELEGATES

SPokane, Wash., Dec. 15.—Moonshiners of the northwest are contributing badges for delegates to the Northwest Association of Sheriffs and Police convention to be held at Portland, Ore., from January 18 to 20, 1923.

The peace officers' organization is melting up copper stills and converting them into badges for the delegates. The association includes in its membership officers from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Alberta and British Columbia.

Salvation Army Junior Girls will have a fancy work and candy sale in the old Golden Rule Store, near 4th and Main, Saturday, Dec. 16th at 2 P. M. Proceeds from sale will be spent for toys for poor children for Christmas.

Latest Love Triangle

When Eugene V. Brewster, New York publisher of a string of movie magazines, took Corliss Palmer, 20-year-old cigar counter girl from a Mason (Ca.) hotel and awarded her the prize in an international beauty contest, he saved the seeds for the legal difficulties in which he now finds himself. Mrs. Eleanor V. V. Brewster (Gower left) has sued for separation.

A VISIT FROM ST. NICHOLAS

Take the light before Christmas when all through the house not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse. The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, in hopes that Saint Nicholas soon would be there. The children were nestled all snug in their beds, while visions of sugarplums danced through their heads. And Mama in her kerchief and I in my cap had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap. When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter. Away to the window I fled like a flash, Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash. The moon on the breast of the new fallen snow gave the lustre of midday to objects below. When what to my wondering eyes should appear but a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer. With a little old driver so lively and quick, I knew in a moment it must be Saint Nick. More rapid than eagles his courses they came, and he whistled and shouted and called them by name. "Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer! and Vixen! On Comet! on Cupid! on Dunder and Blixem!

To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall! Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!" As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly when they meet with an obstacle mount to the sky, so up to the housetop the courgers they flew. With the sleigh full of toys and Saint Nicholas, too, and then in a twinkling I heard on the roof the prancing and pawing of each little hoof—As I drew in my head and was turning around, Down the chimney Saint Nicholas came with a bound. He was dressed all in furs from his head to his foot, and his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot. A bundle of toys like a peddler just opening his pack; His eyes—how they twinkled! His dimples, how merry, His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry! His droll little mouth was drawn up in a bow, and the beard on his chin was as white as the snow; The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth, and the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath; He had a broad face and a little round belly, that shook when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly. He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf, and I laughed when I saw him in spite of myself; A wink of his eye and a twist of his head soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread; He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work, and filled all the stockings, then turned with a jerk, and laying his finger aside of his nose, and giving a nod up the chimney he rose, he sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle, and away they all flew like the down of a thistle; But I heard him exclaim ere he drove out of sight, "Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night."

THE CROWN ARMY SHIRT
sure to like!

"What's in that big box?" he'll ask. Then, there'll be a shout of keen pleasure.

Nothing pleases a man or boy more than a Crown Army Shirt—the shirt that business and professional men wear outdoors and that outdoor executives and workers find indispensable.

Big, roomy, comfortable—well tailored—it is the easy shirt to wear on fishing, motoring, hiking and hunting trips. And in the garden or around the home, it is as comfortable outdoors as a lounging robe would be indoors.

Crown Army Shirts are made of genuine, U. S. Army Serge Flannel, in the serviceable, olive drab color. They wear like iron.

Ask for Crown Army Shirts in any store selling men's furnishings. Look for the "Crown" inside the neckband—your guarantee that you're getting the genuine Crown Army Shirt. Price $5.

Discussion of British-French Believed Object of Return

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Official confirmation given by the state department to the report that Ambassador Harvey has been called home from London "for consultation" did not explain the purpose but the impression gained currency that the German reparations question, now threatening a rupture between Great Britain and France was to be discussed.
