

WESTWOOD MANAGER
JOINS HUTCHINSON
COMPANY, OROVILLE

WESTWOOD, Calif., Dec. 15.—H. F. Pray, resident manager of the Red River Lumber company, has announced his resignation, effective early in January, to accept the position as vice president and general manager of the Hutchinson Lumber company of Oroville. He will have full charge of operations in his new office.

Pray entered the service of the Red River company thirty years ago as a bookkeeper. He was rapidly promoted, and in 1899 was transferred from Minneapolis to Akeley, Minn., where a new plant was started. Shortly after he was promoted to resident manager, which position he held until 1913, when he transferred to Westwood.

Has Many Interests

The city of Westwood and its immense logging industry and mills are largely the result of Pray's work. He is a member of the local school board, a director of the Westwood National bank and an officer of the Lassen Electric company. He also has large real estate holdings in Susanville, the county seat.

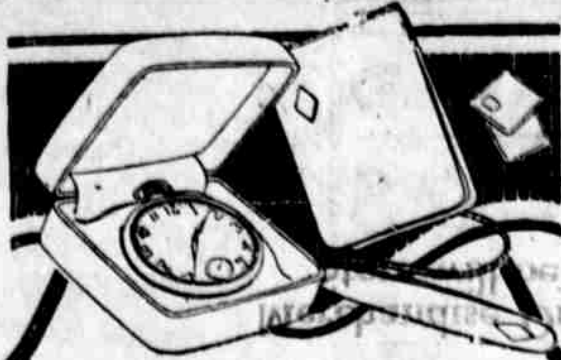

Pray has been a prime mover in local sports and ardent supporter of local baseball, basketball, swimming and track teams.

No announcement has been made as to Pray's successor.
