

The Evening Herald

F. H. ... Publisher and Publisher ... City Editor ... Advertising Manager

Published daily except Sunday, at The Herald Publishing Company of Klamath Falls, at 112 Eighth street.

Entered at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Ore., for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches received by it, or not otherwise credited to the paper, and also the local news published herein.

ADVERTISERS

Copy for display advertising must be in this office not later than 3 p.m. on the day preceding publication in order to be inserted in the issue of the paper of the next day.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1922.

DRIPPING DOLLARS

D RIP, drip, drip, at the rate of a dollar a minute, if we do not miss a guess which it is impossible to verify to the final degree of accuracy, the dollars are being drained from Klamath into the maw of mail order houses.

There are 1440 minutes in the day, and for every minute a dollar is drained from Klamath into the maw of mail order houses.

Take times at their best, and anywhere under the sun, there are not enough dollars, or whatever name nations may give their currency's standard, coin, to go around.

Students of the monetary system tell us that for every man who has a dollar, there are five who have not. They are borrowers from the sixth, paying for the use of the circulating medium, passing it from hand to hand, making it do six-fold duty.

Radcliffe college is teaching women politics and the first lesson should be shaking hands.

"Movies", says a director, "are a gamble." They usually win by a full house.

Oregon boxer fights under the name of Broken Blossom and some day may have a nose like a rose.

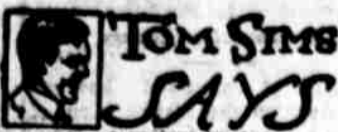

Two dozen jugs for putting liquids in make excellent gifts.

Have you a girl friend you dislike? Why not give her a vanity case without a mirror?

is unloaded at the local depot, proclaims to any but a blind man how far the tide is from being stemmed.

During the year not one voice has been raised to refute our argument. There must be some justification in the mind of the mail order buyer for strangling the growth of the home community.

We are tired of arguing the matter. We long to hear some argument from the other side. Will some of the people who are consistent mail order patrons please explain to us the advantage and gain of mail order buying.

People saving for a rainy day find Christmas an annual cloudburst.

Eyeglasses are cheaper and now you don't have to look over the top so you won't wear them out.

Style hint: War graft suits are all the rage in Washington.

If you know a little boy and a little girl give the girl something the boy will enjoy breaking.

Honduras suggests a big Pan-American League, but America seems to get enough panning without this.

Give tight shoes. They look fine on and feel fine off.

Once you heard of people who had never seen a train; now you hear of children who have never seen a horse.

Bert Brown of Vermont killed a wildcat with his hands so Bert will always have something to talk about.

Percolators are suitable gifts but break when thrown at husbands.

Have you a man friend you dislike? Give him a misused used car.

Refrigerator cars are handling Christmas mail so try to keep cool until your packages come.

Radcliffe college is teaching women politics and the first lesson should be shaking hands.

"Movies", says a director, "are a gamble." They usually win by a full house.

Oregon boxer fights under the name of Broken Blossom and some day may have a nose like a rose.

Two dozen jugs for putting liquids in make excellent gifts.

Have you a girl friend you dislike? Why not give her a vanity case without a mirror?

Personal Mention

George Chastain was a visitor here yesterday from Pine Ridge.

R. C. Spink is in town today from Chilquin attending to business matters.

Mrs. Rex McMillan arrived here last night from Hornbrook for a brief visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Low.

Harry Stapleton, of the Douglas National bank of Roseburg, left this morning for that city after several days spent here on legal business.

Frank Sevitts was in town yesterday from his ranch near Keno transacting business with local merchants.

Miss Ruby Smith is confined to her bed with a fractured hip suffered when she slipped and fell to the pavement two days ago.

Lyle Hemelwright spent yesterday in the Bonanza section looking after cattle. He reports that the roads are very muddy out that way.

Charles Gaddis left this week for British Columbia where he will spend the next few weeks with his parents, who reside at Vancouver.

Earrest McCollum is in town from the beetle camp near Hildebrand and expects to stay until after the holidays.

Mrs. L. C. Moore was a passenger on the morning train bound for Sebakton and Santa Rosa where she will spend the holidays with her sons and daughter.

A. C. Clark and A. H. Howe, both members of the United States bureau of post roads, are here on business this week. They are registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook left on the morning train for an extended visit in the middle west and east. They expect to be away for two or three months visiting relatives and friends in Ohio, and they will spend Christmas with Mrs. Hardenbrook's parents in Nebraska.

Gertude's Millinery Blouses Petticoats HOLIDAY SALE Entire Stock of Petticoats and Blouses 1/2 PRICE

SEES OPPORTUNITY FOR BANKS TO AID THEIR CUSTOMERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 10.—The part that banks can play in bringing to the attention of their customers the desirability, pleasure and profit to be gained by reading good books, is shown in an article by J. H. Puelicher, president of the American bankers' association appearing in the bulletin of the American library association.

"The intelligence test during the war showed much illiteracy. It aroused many to serious thought. It made many feel that they had not properly supported the public school systems. It showed that the ill of America were largely economic.

EGYPTIAN STUDENTS WILL STUDY ABROAD

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 19.—Thirty-three Egyptian students have been selected by the minister of communications to be sent abroad to complete their technical studies. Ten of them will go to the United States.

These young men will study the latest developments in manufacturing processes. Following an agreement between the American department of commerce and the Egyptian government, one of them will be assigned for two years' training to the locomotive department of some American railroad.

For sale, $100 Brunswick phonograph, new, $77.50. Winters' Jewelry Sale, 15-20

COMING EVENTS

- 6 days until Christmas. December 19.—American Legion annual election. December 20.—Chamber of Commerce Forum. December 21.—Presbyterian choir Christmas concert. Dec. 22.—Masons and Eastern Star Christmas Tree and entertainment 7:30 P. M.

Watch our windows for real bargains. Winters' Jewelry Sale, 15-20

Queen Quality SHOES "They Fit Where Others Fail" "New Shoe Beauty—Old Shoe Comfort"

Sold Exclusively By THE BOOTERY CHAS. P. MAGUIRE 713 Main Street

SIGN OF THE ARROW (THE SQUARE DEAL DRUG STORE)

Santa Claus Has His HEADQUARTERS CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

- Kodaks Kodak Albums Crater Lake Pictures Flash Lights Watches Perfumes Alarm Clocks Safety Razors Manicure Sets Thermos Bottles Eversharp Pencils Fountain Pens Christmas Cards Hand Mirrors Atomizers Vanity Cases Writing Paper Envelopes Hair Brushes Combs Powder Boxes Nail Files

Perfume Always An Acceptable Gift "Every woman," be she the little Miss or the Matron or even the Grandmother, appreciates good perfume.

CHOICE PERFUMES table with columns for perfume name and price

For Her Selection of a gift for wife, mother, sister, or the "Only Girl" becomes an easy matter in our store.

Conklin Utility Sets Toilet Sets Perfume Sets Gift Books Fine Stationery Vanity Boxes Framed Mottoes

Crater Lake Pictures Underwood's Pharmacy KLAMATH FALLS OREGON WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS