

Perfect Saxon Beauty

The type of English beauty which is most characteristic of England has been found in the features of Mrs. C. E. Eaton, prominent London society woman, by a committee of artists.

NEW CHAPTER IS SEEN IN ECONOMIC HISTORY OF WORLD

LONDON, Dec. 21.—"We are entering a new chapter in the economic history of the world, a period which will, I believe, surpass in the intensity of its development the wonderful forty-four years preceding the great war," said Edgar Craigmiles, the English financial writer, recently in the course of a lecture on "The International Economic Situation" to members of the London chamber of commerce.

ed for the payment of our debt to the United States. It is our policy to invite American co-operation with us in a policy of help and forbearance. To carry out these great tasks, it is essential that we have freedom from governmental control of the financial machinery of the country. The great joint stock banks, the Anglo-foreign banks, and the great British mercantile houses should now be allowed to exercise a greater influence in the shaping of our financial policy than they have enjoyed since August, 1914.

Getting Even With the Auto

Leonard Stroud, former world's champion rider, gave his broncho a chance for revenge on his mechanical rival in this brilliant feat of acrobaticship. In one magnificent leap the spirited animal carried his rider over the high touring car.

HOLDS SHINY NOSE WILL LAND JOB FOR GIRL WHEN ROUGE FAILS

By Josephine Van de Grift NEA Service Staff Writer NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—There's no virtue in a shiny nose. But the old-fashioned girl whose whitewash is fairly opaque, whose face is combed demurely and whose hair is innocent of rouge or lipstick still has the best chance of landing a job.

Don't dress conspicuously or use make-up. Don't, if you are told to report at a check, attempt to force yourself upon the person's attention earlier. Don't fling letters of introduction down on the desk carelessly. Don't go after a job with a hazy idea of what you want. Don't try to get a job in a hush just because your folks think it's respectable. Don't lose your poise.
