There will be a community Christmas tree here on Christmas eve. Short plays are being prepared by the school children for the program of the evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Givan was the scene of a surprise party on Wednesday evening of last week. Quite a number of their friends unexpectedly arrived early in the evening and remained until late hour. The evening was spent playing cards.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lerner Lowry on Wednesday of last week, who has been named Paul Lawrence. Mrs. Lowry was Anita Labaree before her marriage to Lerner Lowry.

Pete O'Connor was in ill a few days last week.

On account of the illness of the teacher, Mrs. Joanna Givan, there was no school for the primary grades Friday of last week. Mrs. Givan was able to be back at her work on Monday.

The young folks of the community were invited to a skating party at the Walter Campbell home last Friday evening. Directly below the house is a large body of ice where the skating was in progress several hours. When the guests returned to the house they were served with delicious warm refreshments.

A. J. Duffy, who is connected with the Southern Oregon-Northern California pine beetle control project, has been in ill several days on business.

Otto F. Boys went into Klamath Falls Friday of last week.

There was a dance at the community hall last Saturday evening.

Eddy Lyons, who is employed at the Warren ranch, has suffered with a very badly injured hand the past week. The injury was caused by a barbed wire scratch that got infected. The wound is very much improved now.

Letha Driscoll of Salem arrived here Sunday where she will remain for the next few weeks as the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. T. Givan.

Barbara Owea is expected home soon for the holidays. She has been attending school at Merrill this year. Garner Lundy, son of Amos Lundy, lives at Adel where he is working for the M. C. Cattle company.

ADVENTURERS ON YEAR CRUISE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—Adventure seekers will meet a sturdy old whaler, the Narwhal, when she sails from the port of San Francisco about January 1, on a year's cruise in the south Pacific. Captain Chas. Arvey, a veteran of many wars, will command.

For some time Captain Arvey has been looking for "landlubbers" to sail with him on the Narwhal and more than 100 have applied. From this list he recently selected ten. One is a physician, another an attorney, two are Canadian army veterans and another claims he graduated from Annapolis and at one time was picked for the All-American football team. The names will not be announced until the entire crew is selected.

The hand-picked crew will act as "apprentices" and part owners, for each member must subscribe $500 toward outfitting the boat. They also will man the boat, but to make sure the craft reaches its destination, Captain Arvey also is taking along ten deep-water sailors.

It will be a trading expedition. Captain Arvey said recently, and detailed reports that the Narwhal was heading south in search of treasure buried by Germans during the war. The first port of call will be Samoa.
