a complete surprise. Dr. McKoin was delivered before April 1, 1523, bern and grew to manhood at Monroe and later moved to Mer Rouge where he was a practicing physician. His friends arged him to make the race for mayor, and during his incumbency he fearlessly upheld the law and attempted to rid the community of moonshiners and other law breakers, it was said.

On August 2, T922, he reported assassins fired two loads of shot into a sick wall. He later received persistent warnings to leave the community, and he did. This event led. to the tragedy of the 24th, in the theory of the state.
