Purchase Apartment House

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Argraves have purchased from Hart Bros. the St. Francis apartments on Oak street. The sale was handled through A. A. Bellman and company. Mr. and Mrs. Argraves formerly owned the Argraves apartments on Second street, which was destroyed at the time of the Houston hotel fire in 1919. They returned this spring from Florida and the past, where they went after the fire, convinced that there was no better place than Klamath Falls to live. The St. Francis, which has not been occupied for some time, will be put into shape to house rodeo visitors, and after the rodeo, the apartments will be prepared for occupancy, making room for 12 families.

To Visit At Chiloquin

"We're going to a place that sounds like 'Chile beans,' but I don't think that's it," said Robert Rogers this morning, and his sister Marian agreed that was the way the name of the place sounded, all right. Then their father, Fred Rogers, came along and explained that they were going to Chiloquin to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Mallory. Rogers and the children live in California, and registered at the Hall last night after a 250 mile drive over The Dalles-California highway from Portland.

Back From Class Reunion

A. M. Collier is home from Eugene, where he went several days ago to attend the reunion of the class of '13. Collier was one of the speakers at the class banquet. His little daughters, Marie and Carolyn, accompanied him to Eugene, and spent the time visiting their grandmother.

Visitors From East

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Powell are the guests of his sister, Mrs. O. Peyton and family, while on a tour of the west from their home at Marion, Illinois. They arrived here last night and will remain for a few weeks, taking in the rodeo, and visiting places of interest in Klamath county.

California Visitors Leave
