

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

Local Boy To Orient—

Carl Newbury, son of Mrs. Wilbur Jones of this city, will sail from Seattle in the morning on his second trip to the Orient, in connection with his position with the Admiral Steamship company. Newbury is a graduate of the Klamath county high school, and after completing his studies at the University of Oregon in December, took post graduate work at the University of Washington at Seattle. He received his degree at Eugene last week, being graduated from the department of business administration and foreign trade. Newbury has been with the Admiral company since May.

Here From Eureka—

Mrs. H. E. Royce has arrived from Eureka to join her husband, who is operating a dairy at Midland. Mrs. Royce has just sold a grocery store she and her husband owned there, and which she has been managing since he came to Klamath county. She was accompanied up here by her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Butler, of Eureka who will remain until after the rodeo. They made the trip by car through Crescent City and Grants Pass.

Visitors From East—

Mrs. R. McLeod of Hutchinson, Kansas arrived last night to pass the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Smith. Mrs. Rebecca Evans of Fall River, Kansas, made the trip with her, and is visiting her son, Frank Evans. Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Evans live only 60 miles apart in their home state. They have been experiencing severe floods and storms in their part of the country this year, and are glad they can pass the summer in the quable climate of Klamath county.

Newcomers From Portland—

July Tire Sale

Due to our immense purchases this Spring, at last year's prices, and our desire to move this stock, we are able to offer you extremely low prices, which have not been equalled in years.

We have about 600 casings and 1,000 tubes, but the stock in some sizes is limited and we cannot duplicate these prices if we buy on today's market, hence we do not guarantee prices for any length of time and would suggest that you buy NOW—even for future requirements.

COMPARE THEM WITH OTHERS—
The Price is Lower—The Quality Higher

	NON-SKID CASINGS		TUBES
