MYSTERIOUS DOOR RETAINS SECRETS FROM PRYING EYES

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 10.—One of the most curious institutions in this city is the "Casa dos Expostos," a foundling asylum that receives its small inmates through a sort of revolving door which is so built in a wall that the person operating it from the outside cannot see inside the building nor be seen by persons within.

The purpose of this mysterious door is to enable unfortunate mothers to place their offspring in safe keeping without revealing their identity or whatever secrets may have been connected with their existence.

Most of the foundlings, the asylum officials say, are put within the revolving door, at night when there is little or no traffic on the street outside. With the turning of the door a bell rings, which announces to the attendants that a new guest has arrived.

If a note giving the child's name or other information is placed in its clothes, it is baptised with that name, but once a baby is placed within the door by the "despairing mother," it is never returned, no matter what change in fortune may come to the mother or what claims she may advance to support her repentance.

The inmates of the "Casa dos Expostos" are raised like orphans and prepared for life with the best care within the ability of the gentle nuns who manage the institution in the two centuries of its existence has furnished more than 45,000 citizens to this city, some of whom achieved renown and high position—and their introduction to the world was a revolving door.

BANANAS RARE IN BERLIN

BERLIN, July 10.—Bananas have been so rare in Germany for the last two years that a Berlin fruit shop almost created a panic by exhibiting two complete bunches on Potsdamer street. Crowds gathered about and eagerly asked the price.

The bananas sold for 5,000 marks each, which at the current rate of exchange was about six cents.

Special Reduced Price Made For Classified Advertising

If you have some farm machinery, a cow, horse, some extra furniture, or any other article which has small value to you but may meet the needs of others, better turn it into cash.

This can be done by the use of classified advertising and at an expense too small to be considered as material. There are many articles which will bring in many dollars, and the cost of the classified ad is about the farm or in the home paid for in the sale many times over.

There are a number of people in this community who use these ads regularly, but many have never tried them and do not know their real value. For these people we are making a special offer.

Cut out the blank form below and write in it, using a space for each word, telling what you have, being sure to include the name and address. Attach a One Dollar bill to the ad you have written and mail the two to The Herald, Klamath Falls, Ore.

This ad will be run for six consecutive issues in this paper, the first insertion being in the "New Today" column and the other five issues in the regular classified department.

The price of One Dollar for 35 words is a special rate made only as a trial offer and good only when the form which follows is used. The regular rates for this advertising are published daily in The Herald.
