

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

Former Publisher Here—

D. B. Worthington and sons, Ned and Dean, of Beloit, Wis., arrived here yesterday for a day's stop-over in this city and to greet old friends. Worthington, senior, was one of the early newspaper publishers of Klamath Falls, and to this day carries the reputation of being one of the best newspaper men who have honored Klamath Falls with their ability. He is now owned and publisher of The Beloit News, one of Wisconsin's great newspapers. They are on their vacation, after a year at college, and accompanied by the father, are visiting the scenic attractions of the west. They came here from Glacier national park, stopping for a day at Crater lake. From here they will go to California.
