

The Klamath Evening Herald

Issued daily except Sunday by The Herald Publishing Company.
Office, 119 North Eighth St., Klamath Falls, Oregon

F. R. SOULE President and Manager
RUTH SOULE Secretary-Treasurer

Entered at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second class matter.

Member of the Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and to all local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

F. R. SOULE Editor
R. H. HILL City Editor
P. C. NICKLE Advertising Manager
H. W. REYNOLDS Mechanical Superintendent

The Evening Herald is the official paper of Klamath County and the City of Klamath Falls

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Delivered by carrier.

ONE YEAR $8.50
SIX MONTHS $5.00
THREE MONTHS $2.75
ONE MONTH .65

By Mail

ONE YEAR $8.50
SIX MONTHS $5.00
PER MONTH .65

INFORMATION FOR ADVERTISERS

Copy for display advertising must be in this office not later than 3 p. m. on the day preceding publication in order to be inserted in the issue of the paper of the next day.

Want ads and reading notices will be received up to 12 noon on the day of issue.

Advertising for fraternal orders or societies charging a regular induction fee and dues, no discount. Religious and benevolent orders will be charged the regular rate for all advertising when an admission or other charge is made.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1923.

THE PRESIDENT'S ILLNESS

WHILE physicians blame the serious illness of President Harding upon ptomaine poisoning from crab meat, the diagnosis is not complete unless cognizance is taken of the terrific mental strain and worry that the responsibilities of the presidential position place upon the holder.

Under ordinary conditions it is probable that the system of an individual of the average robust type of the president would easily throw off the effects of the crab meat. It does not appear in the news dispatches that other members of the party suffered ill effects, yet it is most improbable that they did not share the course that is said to have caused their chief's illness.

The truth is that we are too hard on our presidents. Upon one man we place all of the burden and worry of a nation's problems. True the president has his advisers and subordinates to whom much of the executive task is apportioned, but the responsibility for decisions, the blame for erroneous decisions falls upon the chief. He shoulders it all in the end.

There should be some division of responsibility. Why, for instance, have a vice-president, unless he can relieve the president of some of the anxiety and care?

Where is the incentive to strive for the highest place in the nation if the goal is but a portal guarded on the one side by chronic invalidism and on the other by death?

Woodrow Wilson entered the white house a strong and vigorous man. He emerged after eight years worn out and broken.

President Harding, after three years, suffers illness and temporary collapse. The whole country hopes that the illness will be slight and the results not permanent. The hearts of all must go out to the sufferer, whose vicarious acceptance of all our common burdens has laid him upon a dangerous sick-bed.

PUGILISTIC PROPHECY

IN THE recent Dempsey-Gibbons argument, Gibbons closed Dempsey's eye, and Dempsey closed three banks. A fairly good set-up was then arranged for Firpo, and since the Willard-Firpo bout considerable propaganda has been circulated to the effect that Dempsey is slipping. This ought to increase the odds on Firpo against Dempsey, catch a few more suckers, and put the kibosh on another bank or two. The million or so of dollars raised to put these two plug-uglies in the ring would give a dozen high schools first class athletic equipment or train a great many young men in the defense of their country—a subject in which Dempsey was not interested. In this way the country would get its money's worth, without being double-crossed. But again we run afoul of Barnum's insuperable argument.

The good looking girls of Klamath Falls never complain that the modern man is not sufficiently chivalrous.

The demand for mirrors ought to be good in the offices where the stenographers are employed.

The folks who oppose equal pay for women workers should reflect on the many who have husbands to support.

As much as being said about malnutrition of children, the kids are organizing to demand more dough-nuts.

The folks who have no boys coming along feel quite confident that wars can never be avoided.

In view of the danger of hold-up men, the pretty girls get many offers of protection on dark nights.

BREAKERS AHEAD

"What's in your telephone?" asks an advertiser. Two million wrong numbers and a boiler shop.

When a woman gets all her bills paid she thinks the neighbors are not her kind of folks.

Take a bottle of iodine to the woods to be used after opening pickles or sardines.

"Flapperitis," says a Chicago doctor, "is a disease." But it doesn't keep them at home.

England and France couldn't get much madder at each other if they were baseball umpires.

What the United States needs is summer only every other day.

That's nice weather for getting caught in ice floes.

Seattle man of 76 has married again: the spirit of 76.

In Paris, nine bakers were arrested and fined some dough.

The thing seems to be spreading. Mexico will have a presidential election next year, also.

Silk stockings will seldom run unless you do.

More bedtime stories by radio. Presidential candidates will use it for delivering speeches.

What tickles the boy more than passing the school during vacation.

This is the month you are dirty again before you are cleaned up.

Uncrambled eggs and reading monograms are about the same.

People in just about every walk of life are rising now.

The hardest building to find in a strange town is the library.

Y. M. I. Y. L. I. AT SANTA CRUZ

SANTA CRUZ, Calif., Aug. 1.—Santa Cruz will be the scene for the many delegates who will be here August 29-30 to attend the annual grand councils of the Young Men's Institute and the Young Ladies' Institute. Special trains are being scheduled from San Francisco and other nearby points.

Railroad Planned for Fujiama

TOKIO, Aug. 1.—The famous sacred mountain of Japan, Fujiama, may eventually be invaded by a railroad. Plans are on foot to build a line to its summit.

If this enterprise is carried out the mountain climbers of Japan and many visitors to the country will be derived of one of their great thrills and adventures. To come to Japan without at least attempting to climb Fuji is to make the visit only partly complete, while with many Japanese it is a sacred duty to at least once reach the top of the mountain and look down into the wonderful crater.

Blue-Flame Fuel

This lump of coal undoubtedly would burn with the bright blue flame of alcohol. It is in such black diamonds as these that sailors bring bootleg booze to America.

Catalogues Don't Get Business

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 1.—The American consul here believes Bulgaria offers an excellent market for manufactured articles of many kinds. He is Graham H. Kemper, and he says the value of the market is evidenced by the desire of foreigners to share in it.

"American merchants," says Mr. Kemper, "should pursue a definite campaign here extending over several years, as do the British. The latter are not deterred by lack of immediate profits, but build for the future. The Bulgarian market is worth going into, but this cannot be done by circulars. The work needs personal representation."

10 per cent reduction on ladies' outing wear at K. K. K. Store, 31-6

MICKIE SAYS—

A MERCHANT SAYS HE COULD ADVERTISE BETTER. THE RESULTS OF AN AD ARE ONLY TEMPORARY! SO ARE THOSE OF A BATH! YOU GOTTA MAKE A HABIT OF 'EM TO GET PERMANENT RESULTS!

The Office Cat

Another reason why a woman hurries home with a new hat is because she wishes to get there before she changes her mind.

Education is all right but you can't make it pay the board bills unless you know how to put it to work.

M. Lavenick thinks some party telephone lines are more than that—they are a whole convention.

A girl reaches the height of modesty when she refuses to look at the weather strip on a house.

Ain't It the Truth
We editors may dig and toll
"Till our finger-tips are sore;
But some poor fish is sure to say:
"I've heard that joke before."

The average husband doesn't earn as much as a movie star, but his sticking qualities are much better.

Before calling a man a liar be sure you are right—then use the telephone.

It's those getting up exercises of a morning, that bother me, sighs Geo. Barth.

Converse, of course, but eliminate the rabbit.

No wonder girls learn to swim more easily than men. Who wants to teach a man to swim, anyhow?

All the world is a stage and across it struts, amaze a lot of other things, a lot of nuts.

Many homes have been broken up by men wanting to sit on the front porch in their bare feet.

There is no real demand for endurance tests in a world where taxes are what they are.

Here lies the body of William Tidd. He thought his tires wouldn't skid. They did.

Fame is merely being known by a large number of people than you know.

Bill Ganong says beware of complimentary banquets.

Life is about equally divided between wishing for something you can't afford and wishing you hadn't spent so much last month.

Another form of violent exercise.

THEATRES MOVIES

AT THE LIBERTY

One of the attractive features of "The Glory of Clementina," Pauline Frederick's most recent, starring vehicle and now at the Liberty theatre is the appearance in support of the star of Louise Dresser, noted musical comedy and vaudeville headliner. Miss Dresser, who long was prominent on the stage is making her debut in motion pictures in Miss Frederick's latest play. Miss Frederick and Miss Dresser have been intimate friends for years. Miss Dresser was Miss Frederick's matron of honor at the star's recent wedding to Dr. C. B. Rutherford.

House Peters probably could play any role in filmdom, but his forte is parts requiring a simple directness and manly simplicity. Such a characterization is his in "Human Hearts," the production in which he stars at the Liberty theatre Thursday. He is supported by a notable cast including Edith Hallor, George Backthorne, Mary Philbin and Gertrude Claire.

Ever Happen To You?
It's easy enough to be pleasant
When you put your foot on a nail;
But the man worth while is the man
who can smile.
When his wife opens his personal mail.

Advertising save Two 11 and six

AT THE PINK TERN

Four offerings of exceptional quality, full of catchy songs, wholesome comedy and dancing on a scale never attempted before will be the attraction at the Pink Tree theatre on tonight.

This extraordinary bill is headed by Anderson Young & Co., American's premier travesty artists in an elaborate production of "Caesar of 1923," a spectacular novelty brimful of surprises and ludicrous situations, a most enjoyable bit of vaudeville showing the humorous side of the popular productions of the present day. Dixon & Freeman, added feature attraction, Miss Jessica Dixon, "The Overseas Girl" assisted by Frank Freeman, Miss Dixon entertained more than 200,000 of our boys in England, France, and with the arms of occupation in Germany as a dramatic soprano. Burke & Libette, a player pair in "A Breeze from Broadway," presenting a musical cycle of songs in a manner original. The Great E. B. is another novelty that will prove entertaining as well as instructive. His acrobatic feats are fast and startling. His backward and forward bending is unsurpassed by any other in his line.

The Hickman-Bessey stock company will present the comedy show "My Buddy" tonight only.

A paper that is always full of good points—a paper of needles.

AT THE LIBERTY

Orchestra Every Evening—Mr. Harry Borel, Director

Every woman in town should see

"THE GLORY OF CLEMENTINA"

We won't tell you why—but when you know that Pauline Frederick, Louise Dresser and Truly Shattuck are all stars in the cast we know it will interest you. Then, too, we have old "POP" TUTTLE in his latest laughmaker—it's called "LOST CONTROL," and we find "Pop" driving a new "river" bus to the depot. And in these two pictures you will find a lesson and a laugh—both of which are good for us all.

Thursday—Hal Reid's famous stage success

"HUMAN HEARTS"

It's dedicated to the mothers of the world and the star is HOUSE PETERS—with a fine supporting cast.

PINE TREE

Tonight

DON'T MISS THIS ONE!

THE VAUDEVILLE

Is a Circus and

HICKMAN BESSEY STOCK CO.

Will Present

My Buddy

A roaring comedy play.
Not a Motion Picture

Open 7:00 P. M.
"My Buddy" 8:00 P. M.
Vaudeville 9:15 P. M.

Double Show For One
Price of Admission!

PINE TREE

Saturday Night Is To Be
PAY NIGHT

FLOWER MEN AT SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—The Exposition auditorium here will be transformed into a vast flower garden when the annual fall flower show is held here October 23-28, according to the California Association of Nursermen, who are staging the exhibit. Florists, seedsmen and nurserymen from all western states will exhibit at the horticultural exposition, it is stated. The association says the October show will be the largest floral exhibition ever held on the Pacific coast.

COOKED FOOD SALE

The ladies of the Sacred Heart church will hold a cooked food sale Saturday, Aug. 4, at Johnston's Furniture Store. Please send all donations in early.

Kodak finishing at Simpson's, 311