DEMPSEY BEGINS HIS TRAINING

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, SARATOGA LAKE, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world has started a steady training grind here in preparation for his clash with Luis Angel Firpo of the Argentine, in New York, September 14. No fewer than ten rounds of boxing are on Dempsey's daily program, while each morning a period will be devoted to road work. He will have eight sparring partners.

In expectation of large crowds of admirers at the Dempsey camp tomorrow eight state troopers have been assigned to handle traffic on the road leading here from Saratoga, supplementing two who have been on duty since the champion's arrival.

Tex Rickard, promoter, who is staging the Dempsey-Firpo fight, was a visitor at Saratoga, but did not come to the Dempsey camp here. Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, motored to Saratoga this afternoon for a conference with Rickard.

FIRPO TRAINS

Luis Angel Firpo, "wild bull of the pampas," having knocked out Charlie Weinert at Philadelphia, now turns to training for his bout with Dempsey for world's heavy-weight title.

FATHER, SON AND GRANDFATHER TOUR IN WAGNER CONCERT

BAYREUTH, Bavaria, Aug. 21.—Grandfather, father and son will be represented on the programs which Siegfried Wagner will direct in his American tour beginning in New York next January. His concerts will consist of compositions by Liszt, who was Siegfried Wagner's maternal grandfather, of the works of his father, Richard Wagner, and of his own contributions to the wealth of classic music which has been created by the group of which he is the last living representative.

Siegfried Wagner has signed agreements to conduct concerts in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, San Francisco and several other cities for the purpose of raising funds for the restoration of the Bayreuth Wagnerian festivals next year. He will conduct the local symphony orchestras in the cities named, and in addition engagements will be made for him to direct these orchestras in neighboring cities.

Wagner also will conduct the first performance of his own opera, "Die Baerenhaeuter," to be given at the Manhattan opera house in New York January 29 by the Wagnerian Opera company, which visited America last season. This company will return to America from Germany in the early autumn and open its season in Washington October 15. Herman Weil, formerly of the Metropolitan opera; Maria Ivergou, of the Chicago and Munich operas; Rudolph Ritter, of the Stuttgart opera, and a number of other new singers have been engaged by Melvin Dalberg to supplement the company which appeared last season in America. Josef Stransky will serve as guest conductor for a number of the company's performances. Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Cleveland, Washington, Milwaukee and Buffalo will be visited.
