HEAD-OF-FAMILY THAT SLEW KIN CONVICTED

NEWMAN, (In.) Sept. 13.—With their father convicted of first degree murder, Grady and Jeff Minter and their brothers-in-law, Floyd Weldon and Leon Goodrum, will go on trial here for their lives in connection with the death of Millard Trouton another brother-in-law.

J. W. Minter, head of the family probably will be sentenced to pay the death penalty.

Trouton, weighted down with rocks fastened about his body by a plow line, was thrown alive into a shallow creek near here a month ago. According to Sheriff S. P.
 Carpenter, the father, J. W. Minter, made a confession to him admitting he and his sons adjusted the weighting, threw Trouton into the water and followed the body as it moved slowly down stream to "make sure it did not come to the surface."

Trouton was sentenced to death by the Minter family. According to evidence brought out at the trial Friday, the Minters charged him with having whipped his wife, Mrs.
 Mary Minter Trouton, so severely it caused her much suffering.

Mrs. Trouton left her husband and returned to make her home with her father. Later, Trouton wrote her a letter in an effort to bring about a reconciliation.

Minter, it was said, then called his two sons and two sons-in-law into council and the plans were laid for Trouton's abduction.

William Feltman was secured to lure Trouton from his home, after which the Minter clan kidnaped him and carried him to the woods, where he was given a speedy trial and put to death.
