COMING EVENTS

- Sept. 17-22.—Constitution week.
- Oct. 3, 4, 5.—County fair.
- Oct. 12-15.—Railway celebration.

Returns From California—

Nate Osterbein returned yesterday from a week's visit with his sister at Antioch, California.

Leaves For Oakland—

Mrs. Louise Riggs who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Riggs here, left for Oakland this morning where she will resume her work as a registered nurse.

Will Visit Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough left this morning for Lafayette, Indiana, where they will spend the rest of the winter. Brockenbrough and his wife may return shortly after the first of the year but were not sure of their plans when they left.

Just A Rumor—

A rumor to the effect that dividends of the First State and Savings bank which failed in January, 1922, were to be declared yesterday, was punctured when members of the receiver's staff declared that there was absolutely nothing to it. "Where that ever got started is beyond me," remarked one. "Dividends will not be declared till next year."

Methodist Preachers Appointed—

At the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church held in Portland this week which was attended by preachers from all over the state appointments of pastors to all the pastorates of Oregon were made. Those preachers who were appointed to Klamath Falls and vicinity were as follows: Klamath Falls, the Rev. F. L. Moore; Klamath Indian Mission, postoffice at Modoc Point, the Rev. Edgar Kendall; Lakeview and Pine Creek, the Rev. C. O. Jennings; Beatty and Bly the Rev. F. L. Belknap; Paisley, the Rev. C. O. Jennings. The appointment to Bonanza is yet to be supplied.

City Hall Reclaimed—

Several rooms in the city hall are being reclaimed. Work commenced this morning on the room housing the fire department apparatus.

Marriage License Issued—

A marriage license was issued in the county clerk's office yesterday to Amosa Wilkinson of Bonanza, a mill worker, and Mildred Scott of Bonanza, housewife.

Murray Released—

William Murray accused by C. L. Holliday of stealing $90 was released by order of Justice of Peace R. A. Emmitt yesterday afternoon. Murray stated that he was leaving Klamath Falls this morning.

Medford Visitor Returns—

Arthur Brown and family who have been visiting with Mrs. R. M. Wilson returned to Medford today.

California Stockman Here Again—

E. E. Cady, stock buyer from Stockton who was in the city earlier this week returned to Klamath Falls yesterday and registered at the Hall.

Number of Divorces High—

An examination into the files and records of the office of the county clerk and the office of the clerk of the circuit court, reveal a startling fact relative to marriage and divorce for the month of September. Up to yesterday, afternoon 11 marriage licenses have been issued to residents of Klamath county. Twelve suits for divorce were filed in the circuit court register during same period.

Trappers Prepare For Winter—

E. A. Melbroom and B. M. Adams were in the city yesterday making preparations for a winter of trapping. They are both from Viattles, and will probably return today.

Worden Farmer Here On Business—

Grant Nelson farmer of Worden was a visitor at the courthouse yesterday afternoon.

Has Lamé Foot—

Capt. J. W. Siemens, who is superintending the farming of mint and rye lands on the Klamath Mint company's tract on Klamath lake, was in town today. He is suffering from rheumatism in his left foot, and although it is improving it is still swollen and lame. Great headway is being made in the development of the westside mint lands, he said.

Probate Petition Filed—

Anna Havlina, has petitioned Klamath county court for letters of probate in the estate of James Havlina, killed in a recent automobile accident. The estimated value of real and personal property is $5,125.

Body Shipped To Bridal Veil—

The body of Watson Heckart who died at a local hospital yesterday morning was shipped to Bridal Veil this morning where funeral services and interment will take place under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge. Mrs. J. W. Heckart, daughter-in-law of the dead man accompanied the body.

Former K. P. People Not In Fire—

Word has been received here by friends of Mr. and C. C. Hogue of Berkeley that they were not in the area recently devastated by fire, but that the home of Mrs. Ida M. Fink was destroyed. Hogue was formerly chief clerk in the local reclamation service office and left here with his family about two years ago. Mrs. Fink and her two daughters resided in their home on Klamath avenue here until their removal to Berkeley about three years ago.

Mrs. Gallagher Home—

Mrs. Marjorie McClure Gallagher and little son, Bob, have returned from a trip to Seaside, Portland, Waldport, and Vancouver, Washington. At Seaside Mrs. Gallagher attended the state convention of the American Legion auxiliary, as a delegate from the local auxiliary. The convention was held in conjunction with the Legion convention.

Returning To Portland—

Mrs. Florence Brandenburg, who has been visiting her brother, J. J. McLaughlin and family, plans to leave in the morning for her home at Portland.

Mrs. Rees Doing Well—

Mrs. J. B. Rees, who underwent a major operation at the Klamath General hospital Tuesday, is reported to be getting along very well.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our gratitude for the many kindnesses shown us during our bereavement. We appreciate deeply the sympathy and help extended to us, and the beautiful floral offerings.

MRS. ANNA HAVLINA AND FAMILY.

CIGARETTES

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.
