Mr. and Mrs. Sargeant of Topeka, Kansas, were guests Thursday and Friday of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Worden. The visitors are on a long automobile trip.

Return From Weeks Trip—

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers returned today from a weeks successful hunting trip.

Back From Hunting Trip—

O. H. Barnstable and Mr. L. L. Truax returned last night from a hunting trip in the Jenny creek country.

Improving After Operation—

J. G. Wright of Hildebrand is improving after an operation performed at the Klamath Valley hospital a few days ago. He will probably be confined to bed for two or three weeks.

Rain Might Be Harmful—

Considerable fear was felt for the farmer today because of the heaviest downpour of the fall that occurred last night. The rain came down in torrents for many hours and the wheat grain and stacks of hay lying in the field are bound to suffer. One prominent rancher who was in the city yesterday remarked that he had 20,000 bushels of wheat grain in the fields. Much damage was done to the crops by the light rain of last week and many farmers hastened to cut and stack their grain before it recoiled. However, the rain is welcomed by all road building authorities of the county. The road bed on the new Green Springs mountain road will be well packed down as a result and also the grading on the railroad at Kirk will be benefitted thereby.

Leaving For Ashland—

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Allison expect to leave by car in the morning for Ashland, where they will pass the greater part of the winter. The change is being made for the benefit of Allison's health. He and Mrs. Allison have learned to like Klamath Falls so well in the year they have lived here that they hope to return and make this their permanent home.

Farmer in City—

L. C. Wishard of Langell Valley well known farmer attended to business matters at the county seat yesterday. After spending the day here he returned to his farm last night.

Four Ranchmen in City—

A party from Rockavert ranch were in town yesterday for business reasons. They were J. A. Edwards, G. C. Fitzgerald, O. Scott and J. M. Parker. The four men will probably remain here for the day.

Sheriff Is Off Again—

Sheriff Low is again away for a several day trip, destination unknown. The sheriff's office was telephoning all over the county for him yesterday, but was unable to locate him. It is thought that he is still out on the trail of the murderers who killed McDonald.

In From Bly—

J. G. Owens, Sidney Lyons, and P. J. Collins were all visitors of the county seat from Bly yesterday. They spent the night here and will presumably return to Bly tomorrow.

Newspaper Man Here—

H. W. Boyce, connected with the Sacramento Bee, is in the city for several days to transact business and look over Klamath county.

Visitors From Fort Klamath—

Sam Dixon, prominent sheep rancher, spent this afternoon on Main street talking with acquaintances, and transacting business.

Banker and Rancher is Here—

William Dalton, president of the American national bank and a prominent rancher, was in town yesterday on a weekly visit.

Stolen Car Recovered—

E. O. Sha, of the local reclamation office, is a happy man today. Three weeks ago his car, a Chevrolet touring, was stolen from its parking place on Eight near Main while Sha was attending the theatre. Yesterday he was informed by Chief of Police Humphrey that the Oakland, Calif., police had the car in their possession. Sha is a member of the American Legion drum corps and he plans to drive the car home after attending the convention in San Francisco. The car was not insured and Sha would have been out the entire purchase price.

Road Being Graveled—

Gravel is being sprinkled on the Klamath Falls end of the Ashland Klamath Falls highway testifying to rapid work accomplished on the stretch of road to Keno. The road will be open to Ashland throughout the winter.

Lawyers Before Federal Court—

Horace Manning, W. P. Myers and William Marx have been in Medford for the past week trying cases before the federal court in session there. Myers who has been in Bend trying cases went from that town to Medford.

Going To Pendleton—

E. E. Magee and C. E. Jay leave tomorrow morning for Pendleton to attend the Grand Commandery Knights Templar which meets there October 11. Jay will attend as representative of Cavalry Commandery No. 16 while Magee will occupy his position as Grand Generalissimo, being in line this year for Deputy Grand Commander of Oregon. Jay will be accompanied by his son and will visit his parents in Omaha, Nebraska, before returning to Klamath Falls.

PLAN SPORTS, LEGION MEET

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—A sports program rarely if ever equalled in this country will be offered 150,000 delegates and guests during the American Legion national convention here Oct. 13-19.

Track and field, golf, tennis, football, baseball, aviation and aquatic events form only a part of the strenuous schedule.
