Sheriff Has Hard Time

Sheriff Low, who spent most of the weekend with S. L. Walker in the hills around Chiloquin and Kirk, had a difficult time in returning to the city. His car caught on fire while he was in the woods and the frame of his machine was thrown out of line by the rough roads. He limped back to town yesterday. The sheriff's office had been telephoning all over the country for him and had begun to worry at his continued absence.

Crescent Merchant Returns

E. C. Rourke, deputy sheriff of Crescent and a merchant there, has just returned from a short visit to California. He visited San Francisco, Santa Cruz and other California towns. "The weather was balmy and cool," he said.

Helping Out at City Hall

Mrs. G. A. Halliwell is helping out at the city hall for several days until someone else can be found to take her place. Judge Gaghagen has had a hard time getting over the last few days without help. She went to work this morning.

Drive to Crater Lake

A cold wind and prospects of bucking snowstorms did not impede a party consisting of Roy Nelson, Helen Colwell and three others from making the trip to Crater Lake yesterday morning they spent the day there.

Have Good Luck

Two fine bucks which were brought to town yesterday testified to the luck that Mark Howard and Frank Bundage are having on a deer hunt. Howard came to town yesterday left the bucks and returned the same day for another. One buck shot by Howard was one of the finest that have been brought in by local hunters. It was an 11 point buck and in fine condition. They will remain in the woods for several more days.

Marx Returns to Medford

William Marx who has been attending the session of the Federal court in Medford for the past week spent the weekend at his home and drove back to Medford this morning. The Green Springs Mountain road is in good shape he said and in another four weeks should be travelled from Klamath Falls to Ashland.

Duck Hunters Successful

J. J. Miller, Fred Houston and C. M. Ramsby were among the duck hunters yesterday who brought home well filled bags. Miller said the shooting was excellent south of town.

Geese Coming In

An increasing number of geese was the predominant impression of the scores of local hunters who shouldered their guns yesterday. The big honkers were evident everywhere and few were the hunters who did not get a shot or did not bring some of the big fellows in. One hunter reported a 15 pound bird and another came in with three fat ones. From now on, experts declare, geese will be coming in. The duck shooting was fine, according to reports from all sides. A great number of devotees of the sport were down by Malin in Tule lake. Nobody came home empty handed and all reported good luck, with the ducks flying low and in bunches. A stiff cold wind blowing down from the north made hunting somewhat uncomfortable yesterday afternoon.

Out on Inspection

A. J. Jaenicke, who is the head of pine beetle control work in this section, left for an inspection of the infected areas east of here. Lakeview will be his eastern point. He will return Thursday.
