New Hotel Clerk—

Charles Campbell resigned the position as night clerk at the White Pelican hotel and has left for Hollister, California, for a rest and will later join the hotel fraternity. Campbell was well liked during his period of one and a half years of service and will be greatly missed by his many friends here in Klamath Falls. F. W. Fowler of Boston, Mass., has joined the office force of the hotel as night clerk, to take the place of Campbell. Fowler was formerly connected with a large New York hotel but for the past four years has devoted most of his time in the employ of the U. S. Shipping Board, acting as chief steward on some of their large passenger ships, and has recently returned from a trip to South America. Fowler, who has traveled most every corner of the globe, narrates some very interesting stories. To fill the vacancies left by the recent resignations of Charles Welch and Bruce Perkins, former bellhops, Ben Dennell and Wallace Hansen, who have just completed a cross country hike from New York City, are now rendering their services.

Visiting At Willows—

Mrs. Marjorie McClure Gallagher left Thursday for Willows, California, where she will attend the wedding of a girl friend, and visit for a week.

Visitors From Canada Like Klamath

Klamath has two admirers in Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Patchwill, who are here from Calgary, Alberta, Canada as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner. Mr. and Mrs. Patchwill like the country so well that they are trying to make arrangements to settle here.

At Hibbert Home—

Mrs. W. H. Hibbert has returned from a year's stay in the east, and will spend the winter with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hibbert. J. E. Hibbert of Susanville, California, came up this week for a short visit with his mother and brother, and is a guest at the Hibbert home.

Return From Talent—

Bert Ball accompanied by Mrs. Ball has just returned from Talent, Ore., where he attended the funeral of his brother.

Kills Nine Coyotes—

A man in an obvious hurry hustled into the county clerk's office and asked whether there was still a bounty on coyotes in Oregon. When informed in the negative he turned and started down the hallway with the parting shot, "To bad, I killed nine of the brutes last night and none of them were pups, either." The bounty was taken off last May.

Leaves On Business Trip—

Seth Dixon, prominent rancher of Fort Klamath was in town yesterday on his way to Portland and Roseburg. He will be gone several days and will transact business in both towns.

Word From Stinsons—

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stinson, who formerly conducted the New Home restaurant and who left here several weeks ago to Los Gatos, are now located but not at Los Gatos. Despite assurances from the owner, when they arrived to take possession of the hotel restaurant it was found that they would not have a clear title. Another opportunity awaited itself in Vallejo and they are now proprietors of the Manx hotel there.

Hank Wilson In Town—

H. S. Wilson who was chief of police here for many years arrived in town yesterday for a visit of several days. A year ago Wilson purchased a farm between Medford and Grants Pass, and is now located there permanently.
