LEAGUE TALENT IS PROMISING

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—National League clubs will take south an unusually promising array of new talent this year for the spring training and testing program, according to an official list made public today at the league headquarters.

More than 100 additions have been made to the rosters of the eight clubs in the senior circuit. Of these about 80 will strive for the first time to land major league berths. The remainder were recalled for further trial or obtained in major league deals.

Christy Mathewson's Boston Braves head the list with 20 additions to the squad. Pittsburgh and Brooklyn are next with 17 and 16, respectively while Cincinnati, standing pat on its line-up outside the box, has the smallest number of newcomers, five.

Recruits, of whom high hopes are entertained include Pitcher Kremer, obtained by the Pirates from the Pacific coast; Lucas, hurler, obtained by the Braves from San Antonio; Pitcher Yarrison and Shortstop Jones, Brooklyn rookies from the Pacific coast; and Jackie May, expensive southpaw bought by Cincinnati from Vernon, Cal.

The complete list follows:

Boston.
Pitchers—Datchelder and Kemp, left-handers; former with Worcester and latter semi-pro of Roxbury, Mass., last year. Graham, six-foot Alabamian who pitched for Little Rock last year. Lansing, secured from Macon, Ga. Fred Lucas from San Antonio. Stryker from Worcester.

Cincinnati.
Yearling from Greenville, S. C. Catchers—Cousineau and Phillips; former from Albany and the latter a semi-pro of Worcester.

WILD WEST DAYS NOT YET PAST

Anybody who in the safety of the police protection of the larger western cities refers to the "wild west" in skeptical terms speaks not advisably. Days of two gun men, of crack shots, and of reckless dare devilry on the range have not gone as was evidenced by a punctured "ten gallon" hat which Frank Morgan displayed in the justice court this morning. Morgan was in the justice court to pay a fine for drunkenness and being in possession of a dangerous weapon.

Through the top of the hat was a wide and gaping hole. Morgan was asked what caused such a hole.

According to the story that was told in the justice court, partly by Morgan and partly by his friends, Brown and Morgan, bosom companions, were on the range one day, when Brown, who is one of the crack shots of the neighborhood, said:

"Bet I can drill one through your hat."

"I dare you to," promptly responded Morgan.

Whereupon Brown, in true western story-book style, made a lightning draw and fired. The bullet punctured Morgan's hat as it rested on his head.

The two men went on about their business as if Morgan had not missed death by a scant inch.

DEBATE VALUE OF PLANE, SHIP

LONDON, Feb. 5.—England has been interested in a debate as to whether the modern battleship had not been rendered obsolete by the airplane. Admiral Mark Kerr took the affirmative and Viscount Curzon the negative. The decision favored the arguments of Curzon.

The viscount contended that as to whether or not the present type of capital ship was obsolete depended on whether the battleship could be destroyed by under-water boats or by aircraft. Jutland proved that the bomb and torpedo had not gained ascendancy over the heavy gun. Gunfire had an accuracy far above that of the weapons of submarines or planes. Experiments purporting to show that the big ship was at the mercy of hovering planes had been carried out, but the target ship was an obsolete one, and the test had been carried out in fair weather and perfect water. The battleship still remained the greater factor of naval strength.

"Admiral Kerr's suggested large aircraft carrier," Viscount Curzon said, "was just as vulnerable as the big battleship, which after all, could have its protective capplanes."

SEEK AID FOR LAKEVIEW ROAD

L. P. Davidson Asks Improvement of Section in Forest Reserve

PORTLAND, Feb. 5.—Among the contracts awarded by the highway commission today was a bridge over Mary's creek, near Astoria, to W. H. Luce, Wulga, Oregon, for $4,270.

The low bid of the Johnson Contract company, of $162,188, for rock surfacing 16 and 9-10 miles of the Coquille-Bandon section of the Roosevelt highway, was taken under advisement.

County Commissioner Peterson, Astoria, asked state aid on the Seaside-Hamlet Junction section of the Roosevelt highway. Answer is to be given at the March meeting.

PEYTON OUT FOR ROOK SWIMMING TEAM AT O. A. C.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Feb. 5.—L. L. Peyton of Klamath Falls is practicing daily in an effort to make the rook swimming team soon to be selected for the Oregon meet. Daily workouts in breathing and kicking exercises under the direction of Preston Wisdom, freshmen swimming coach, are putting the first year men in condition for the season's program.

"FAKE" BROADCASTER FOUND IN OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Cal.—The mysterious radio station, "6-LL," which for a year and a half had been sending out alleged fake "S.O.S." and other alarming calls, has been located here by government radio inspectors and police. Frank Miguel was arrested on a charge of operating without a license.

Miguel was located by means of a "directional" radio system. According to the police, he said that a brother had got all of the objectionable messages.

SEA GULL LIES WITH 6-INCH SPLINTER THROUGH ITS BODY

LONG BEACH, Feb. 5.—A sea gull with a 6-inch splinter through its chest was exciting interest here today. A physician who examined the bird after it was captured on the beach said it apparently had been living for months with the splinter protruding from its body, and probably would die if an attempt were made to remove it. The gull appeared to be able to fly with ease despite the piece of wood which pierced him, and seemed to have become accustomed to it as part of his anatomy.

LEGION TO "GO THE LIMIT" FOR BONUS

PORTLAND, Ore.—Oregon members of the American Legion will "go the limit" on the National Legion program for adjusted compensation for ex-service men.

This was the consensus of opinion expressed at a meeting of the executive committee of the state department held here Saturday, at which the question of the national campaign now being waged in support of the veteran legislation was discussed. Messages from all members of the Oregon delegation in congress expressing their allegiance to the program for adjusted compensation were read by Fred E. Kiddle, state commander, who expressed the opinion that the department of Oregon is firmly behind the national organization.

The proposal to hold seven district conferences throughout the state in March was discussed, but final action was not taken.

J. D. MICKLE TO SEEK OFFICE AGAIN

PORTLAND, Ore.—J. D. Mickle, present state dairy and food commissioner by appointment and formerly by election, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for that office at the primary election in May.

ON WAY TO HOLY LAND IN SLOOP

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 5.—Ira C. Sparks, of Peru, Ind., who arrived here a year ago after having imprisoned himself in a packing box consigned from San Francisco to the orient as "freight," has continued his journey to "the Holy Land to seek the true word of God." He left here in a 23-foot sail boat, the Dauntless, which water front habitues say will be his coffin.

Sparks built his boat himself, being a carpenter by trade. "They say this craft will be my coffin," he said before leaving, "but I am not afraid. I have a message from God. I am on my way to the Holy Land to seek the true word of God. When I have been given the message, I shall give it to the world."

MEXICANS START FINAL JOURNEY

Confessed Murderers of Felix Are Taken to Penitentiary

On the last trip that they will ever take, Pablo Montes, Damasio Cadenas, and Alfonso Hoyoga, murderers of Jose R. Felix on Dec. 4 near Algora, left on the noon stage for Salem for the state penitentiary where they will begin to serve life sentences. They are being taken to Salem by Sheriff L. L. Low, and Deputies Bob Hunsaker and Clave Howard.

The three Mexicans will be remanded to the warden of the penitentiary some time tomorrow morning. After leaving the three prisoners at Salem the sheriff will journey to Oregon City to take possession of a car stolen from George Miller which was recovered there. He will drive it back to Klamath Falls.
